CAPITOL BUILDING, SALEM, OREGON.

A Letter From The Governor of Oregon.

Peruna is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Letters of congratulation and commendation testifying to the merits of Peruna as a catharr remedy are pouring in from every State in the Union. Dr. Hartman is receiving hundreds of such letters daily. All classes write these letters, from the highest to the lowest.

The outdoor laborer, the indoor artisan, the clerk, the editor, the statesman, the teacher—all agree that Peruna is the catharr remedy of the age. The stage and rostrum, recognizing catharr as their greatest enemy, are especially enthusiastic in their praise and testimony.

Any man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catharr. Catharr is well nigh universal; almost omnipresent. Peruna is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catharr. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catharr out of its victims. Peruna not only cures catharr, but prevents it. Every household should be supplied with this great remedy for coughs, colds and so forth.

The Governor of Oregon is an ardent admirer of Peruna. He keeps it continually in the house. In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, he says:

STATE OF OREGON,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:
Dear Sirs—I have had occasion to use your Peruna medicine in my family for colds, and it proved to be an excellent remedy. I have not had occasion to use it for other ailments.
Yours very truly,
W. M. Lord.

It will be noticed that the Governor says he has not had occasion to use Peruna for other ailments. The reason for this is, most other ailments begin with a cold. Using Peruna to promptly cure colds, he protects his family against other ailments. This is exactly what every other family in the United States should do. Keep Peruna in the house. Use it for coughs, colds, la grippe, and other climatic affections of winter, and there will be no other ailments in the house. Such families should provide themselves with a copy of Dr. Hartman's free book, entitled "Winter Catharr." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Jack London.

No writer today has interest for a wider circle of readers than Jack London, only twenty-seven now, unheard of by the reading world three years ago. But these three years have been fruitful. First there was "The Son of the Wolf," in the spring of 1900, a collection of short stories; then "The God of His Fathers," "Children of the Frost," "The Cruise of the Dazzler," "A Daughter of the Snow," "People of the Abyss," "The Call of the Wild," and now, beginning in the January Century, "The Sea-Wolf." It will begin in the January Century and run serially through the year. Those who have read the manuscript believe that the young writer has wrought with the greatest skill and power he has thus far shown, in this tale of sea-life, which he knows so well, and in delineation of the character of the strange Wolf Larsen.

The success of an amateur gardener often depends upon the number and the appetite of his neighbor's chickens.

The January Atlantic.

The "toast-master" of the the January Atlantic opens the feast with a genial talk on Catering for the Public,—the tasks and troubles of a literary purveyor.

Thomas Wentworth Higginson resumes his reminiscent papers with a characteristic account of The Sunny Side of the Transcendental Period full of entertaining description and anecdote.

Andrew D. White contributes a valuable paper (the first half) on Fra Paolo Sarpi—terrible frate—the Sixteenth-Century Controversialist and defender of his native Venice against the Vatican.

The first of several papers on a novel subject, some phases of contemporary advertising, is furnished by Professor Walter D. Scott, who writes on The Psychology of Advertising.

Jack London contributes an entertaining paper on The Scab in his various relations, and goes to prove that everybody, all the world, is a scab or non-scab at intervals, or alternately, as circumstances may induce.

Y. M. C. A. Progress.

The railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association has issued a pamphlet, "Progress," telling of its growth. The railroad branch had 43,000 members in 1901, and has now 62,348. It had two years ago ninety buildings, valued at $1,300,000, and has now $1,821,000 invested in buildings.

Warned Lincoln Against Booth.

Bishop Thomas Bowman of East Orange, N. J., the oldest Methodist Episcopal bishop, just past his 86th birthday, says that he warned President Lincoln against John Wilkes Booth five days before the emancipator was slain. Mr. Lincoln made light of the warning. Bishop Bowman, then chaplain of the United States senate, had observed Booth prowling about the capitol and the White House and at once called on the president with a warning. Mr. Lincoln smiled kindly and said he did not think anyone wanted to kill him. Two days later Mr. Bowman started for his home in St. Louis and had hardly reached there when news of the assassination arrived.

Good News From Minnesota.

Lakefield, Minn., Jan. 4.—Mr. William E. Gentry of this place is one of the best-known and most highly respected men in Jackson County. For 45 years he has suffered with Kidney Trouble and now at 77 years of age he has found a complete cure and is well.

His cure is remarkable because of the length of time he had been suffering. Cases of 40 years' standing might be considered incurable, but the remedy that cured Mr. Gentry seems to know no limit to its curative power. Mr. Gentry says:

"I have suffered with misery in my back for about 45 years and had all the troublesome symptoms of Kidney and Urinary disease. I tried various kinds of remedies, but all to no effect until I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Now I have no pain in my back, and feel quite well in every way.

"I am 77 years of age and I feel better than I have for the last 40 years. I attribute it all to Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Some men who take a post-graduate course are, in the long run, glad to become letter carriers.

Popular Foulards.
Large figuring and ombre stripes will characterize the foulards for the coming season, and a model recently shown, which is an imported one, shows a scarlet silk with large white flowers and gold braids, effectively used for trimming. The shaped piece of plain scarlet silk which outlines the white yoke is heavily embroidered with gold threads, and tressed gold cords are draped beneath this and used to form a lattice over the under-blowse of plisse chiffon. The skirt has a tunic effect deeply scalloped over the two scant volants, this being outlined with the gold lace braid and a deep pointed belt of gold lace, with sash loops and ends in the back, make a girlish finish.

The hat worn with this gown is in white Irish crocheted, with a binding of white panne velvet embroidered in gold and a shaded plume in white pink and a little red drooping over the side.

Fashion's Latest Monstrosities.
Some of the new leather, suede, morocco and silk belts are perfect monstrosities, and it is to be hoped that all dainty women will put their stamp of disapproval on them. They come in all colors and all widths, but the one upon which fashion has set its seal is about four inches wide and undeniably ugly.

One of the prettiest leather belts is the Japanese, which has the dragon embroidered on it in different shades. It has a silver or gold dragon mounting.

The buckles were never handsomer. Chinese ones of jadestone and crystals, set with garnets, are taken from the men's wraps and used for buckles.

Elaborate Afternoon Attire.

Picture hats are worn—which means that they will be worn with all kinds of afternoon tailor dress; a low-crowned, wide-brimmed hat, heavy with feathers and fur scarfs and jewel buckles. The handsomest of afternoon furs are in peleries or kerchiefs, with long stole ends, and usually combined with chiffon of the same shade, masses of rope chenille and a border of contrasting fur.

Girl's Apron.

Dainty aprons always are attractive as well as serviceable and are to be commended from the aesthetic as well as the practical point of view. This one is made of lawn with trimming of embroidery and gives an effect of epaulettes at the front, a bertha at the back. As shown it is worn over a frock but it can be used with the guimpe only when desirable. All lawns, dimities and the like are appropriate. Both front and backs are tucked for a short distance below their upper edges, the tucks providing fullness below, and between the groups of tucks at the front pointed bands of trimming are applied. The quantity of material for a girl of 4 years of age is 1½ yards 36 inches wide with 4528 Girl's Apron, 2, 4, 6 years.

3½ yards of insertion and 4½ yards of embroidery. A May Manton pattern. No. 4528, sizes 2 to 6 years, will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents.

Pastel Pink Sicilienne.

A charming and simple little frock of pastel pink sicilienne is made with placements of lace and hand-made tucks. The corsage fastens in the back and the sleeves are really a series of ruffles, composed of the sicilienne and chiffon alternating, these falling into a tight cuff at the wrist. The skirt is tucked in groups to the knee, where it is left to flare. The ostrich boa and muff are in woodland brown, the boa being in three strands and the muff large and of the extreme pocket shape.

Cheese Souffle.

Cheese souffle is a dainty dish, and one suitable for the autumn supper table. Put two level teaspoonfuls of butter in a frying pan and stir in a heaping tablespoonful of flour. Gradually add half a cup of milk and boil one minute. Then add a seasoning of half a teaspoonful of salt and one-tenth of a teaspoonful of cayenne. Stir in one cup of soft grated cheese and the yolks of three eggs, well beaten. Pour the mixture into a bowl and set it away to cool. When thoroughly cold, add the whites of the three eggs, whipped to a very light froth. Turn the mixture into a buttered baking dish, or into individual custard cups. Bake the souffle from ten to twelve minutes, and serve hot, immediately.

Misses' Waist.

Young girls always look well in waists that include broad collars giving a sailor effect. This one is pecularly desirable and includes, besides that feature, tucks which give tapering lines at the back and a box plaited effect at the center front. As illustrated it is made of white corduroy with a collar of silk and trimming of applique, but can be reproduced in almost any of the season's waist or dress materials with equal success, and the collar can be either of the same or contrasting material.

4602 Misses' Waist, 12 to 16 yrs.

The waist consists of the fitted lining, which closes at the center front, the smooth back and the full fronts which are arranged over it, the closing of the waist being made invisibly beneath the edge of the box plait. The wide collar is cut with stole ends and arranged over the waist. The neck can be finished either with the stock, as illustrated, or with the collar alone. The sleeves are the favorite ones of the season that are snug above the elbows and form full puffs at the wrists.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3½ yards 21, 3¼ yards 27 or 2½ yards 44 inches wide, with ¾ yard for collar, and 2¼ yards of applique to trim as illustrated.

The pattern 4602 is cut in sizes for girls of 12, 14 and 16 years of age.

Cleaning Chamois Trimmings.

Linings or facings of chamois leather upon garments may be cleaned by rubbing all over with soft, white soap, then sponge the leather with warm soapsuds in which a little soda has been dissolved. Wash this off with lukewarm water, containing a slight percentage of soda, and finally dry the facings between two towels. If the chamois leather is not detachable from the rest of the garment, care should be taken that the latter does not become wet also. Hang the article to dry in the shade and stretch the leather straight and smooth while it is still damp, for it must not be ironed.

Brown is the Color.

Paris modists say that brown is the color of the season—not the dull, sad tones of brown that our mothers and grandmothers wore, but rich, deep, warm brown, with lots of russet and red shades in it. For the girl with mahogany-tinted hair and bright complexion there is no other color so charming, although brown can be worn by anyone if combined with some other color which is becoming to the wearer. For instance, the girl with blond hair and blue eyes can have a touch of the new soft blue in her hat and about her throat, and yet wear a brown suit with splendid effect.

Of Woodland Brown

A pretty shade of woodland brown in cloth is effectively relieved with a yoke and vest effect in tangerine velvet decorated with mixed brown and gold braid. The eon jacket is so cut that the shoulder overhangs the sleeve, this latter consisting of a single puff banded into a straight cuff which shows a little of the braid and gilt buttons. The skirt is cut in eleven gores, which flare at the foot, and is finished with stitching.

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful, I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, MRS. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West.)

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I suffered more than tongue can express with kidney and bladder trouble. My physician pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, caused by displacement of the womb. I had a frequent desire to urinate, and it was very painful, and lumps of blood would pass with the urine. Also had backache very often.

"After writing to you, and receiving your reply to my letter, I followed your advice, and feel that you and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have cured me. The medicine drew my womb into its proper place, and then I was well. I never feel any pain now, and can do my household work with ease."—Mrs. ALICE LAMON, Kincaid, Miss.

No other medicine for female ills in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
