A Food to Work On Work! Work!! Work!!! Lots of energy is needed to keep up the pace. In the struggle, the man with the strong body and clear brain wins out every time. The man of to-day needs something more than mere food; he needs a food that makes energy—a food to work on. Although some people may not realize it, yet it is a fact, proved and established beyond doubt, that soda crackers—and this means Uneeda Biscuit—are richer in muscle and fat-making elements and have a much higher per cent. of tissue-building properties than any other article of food made from flour. That this is becoming known more and more every day is attested by the sale of nearly 400,000,000 packages of Uneeda Biscuit, the finest soda cracker ever baked. An energy-giving food of surpassing value-sold in a package which brings it to you with all the original flavor and nutriment perfectly preserved. Truly the food to work on. Whoever you are—whatever you are—wherever you work-Uneeda Biscuit. NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Trial of the Beef Packers

It Will Be an Important Battle In the War Against Trusts-The Nature of the Charges and the Men Involved

HE most important engagement yet fought in the war against trusts promises to be the battle which the federal government will begin on Oct. 2 against the beef packers. Months were spent by a federal grand jury in examining the operations of the packing companies, which are charged with forming conspiracies in restraint of trade. The result of this long and searching investigation was the presentation to the court of a formidable list of indictments. Among the men whose names are on this list are captains of industry who count their dollars by millions, and the corporations represented by them are among the most powerful in the world of trade and commerce. With unlimited funds upon which to draw in fighting the charges against them, these men and corporations will have the assistance of the best legal talent obtainable. The representatives of the government will have a task of almost unprecedented difficulty.

Referring to the general belief that certain large corporations have flagrantly violated the Sherman antitrust law, President Roosevelt recently said at Chautauqua:

"Many of these combinations by secret methods and protracted litigation are still unwisely seeking to avoid the consequences of their illegal action. The government has very properly exercised moderation in attempting to enforce the criminal provisions of the statute, but it has become our conviction that in some cases, such as that of at least certain of the beef packers recently indicted in Chicago, it is impossible longer to show leniency."

Twenty-one packing company officlals and five of the corporations with which they are identified were indicted by the jury which closed its sessions in Chicago on July 1. Seventeen of the twenty-one officials indicted were conspiracy, resulting in increasing the cost of meat to the consumer. The remaining four were indicted for conspiring to secure rebates from railways in the shipment of meat. The corporations indicted were Armour & Co., the Armour Packing company, Swift & Co., the Fairbank Canning company, successors to Nelson Morris & Co., and the Cudahy Packing company. J. Ogden Armour is president of Armour & Co. and Charles W. Armour is president of the Armour Packing company. Michael Cudahy is president of the Cudaby Packing company, but for several years he has not been in active direction of its affairs, such duties having been performed by the vice president and general manager, Edward A. Cudahy. The grand jury which investigated the packing companies worked three months at its task, There were twenty-two members at the start and twenty-two at the finish. When the indictments were presented the court said to the jury: "You have worked at the sacrifice of your busimore citizens were actuated by the same public spirit there would be less need for enforcement of the laws."

At the head of the federal department of justice is the attorney general of the United States, William H. Moody. The prosecution of these noted cases falls to the United States district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, Charles B. Morrison, and he is aided in his task by Oliver E. Pagin, assistant attorney general.

District Attorney Morrison has been a resident of Illinois since early boyhood, when his parents left the east and settled in Lee county. He graduated from the Union College of Law in Chicago in 1878 and began the practice of law at Dixon, Ill. In 1884 he was elected state attorney of Lee county. He was twice re-elected to that position and in 1898 received the appointment of assistant United States district attorney. His promotion to his present post followed.

Oliver E. Pagin has made quite a record in the investigation of frauds and scandals in the federal service and In the prosecution of offenders against the laws of the United States. He drew up the indictments in the Oregon land fraud cases, including those against Senator Mitchell and Repreentative Hermann; he prepared the ent post in 1908.

AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO.

David E. Thompson, Recently Promoted From the B. azilian Mission. David E. Thompson, who has been promoted from minister to Brazil to ambassador to Mexico, has risen from the ranks through the agency of energy and brains. Mr. Thompson is a native of Hillsdale, Mich., and was born in 1854. When he was seventeen years old he sought employment in Lincoln, Neb. He was unknown and almost penniless and was glad to get a job at handling freight as a truckman in the depot of the Burlington and Missouri railroad. He was soon promoted to be a brakeman and then rose to be a conductor. Nine years after entering the service of the Burlington road he was division superintendent of the entire system. Meantime he had been saving as much as possible of his earnings and making small investments. Everything he touched seemed to yield good returns. By 1890 his private business was of such magnitude that he decided to retire from his railroad position and devote himself to looking after his investments. A few years more and he was on the list of millionaires. Six years ago the Nebraska legislature was engaged in selecting a successor to William V. Allen in the United States senate. There was a prolonged contest, and Thompson was one of the leading candidates, coming within seven votes of securing the honor. President Roosevelt appointed him minister to Brazil in 1902 and now advances him in the diplomatic service by tendering him the post resigned by Ambassador Edwin H. Conger. Mexico is a country in which Mr. Thompson is much interested, and years ago he showed this interest by making extensive investments there.

Mr. Thompson is noted for his generosity. While the Omaha exposition was in progress he sent all the children of Lincoln between the ages of BARBER SHOP eight and sixteen to see the sights of the show. Every Christmas he gives away a whole carload of flour. During his connection with the Burlington road he established a system of restaurants which yielded him a yearly Rear of First Nat'l Bank revenue of from $10,000 to $15,000. It was only a short time before he came so near being chosen senator that there was a bigger rush than usual in one of these restaurants one day, and Mr. Thompson, who then gave them his personal supervision, chanced to be on hand. Seeing that a group of men were not securing attention, he stepped up, took their orders and brought them their food as if it were a mere everyday affair. They did not know until afterward that they had been waited on by a millionaire.

A TYPICAL AUTOCRAT.

Alexander Bouligan, Former Russian Minister of Interior.

Alexander Gregorovitch Bouligan, who recently resigned the post of minister of the interior of Russia after a brief career in that office, is a stanch upholder of autocratic ideas. He drafted a plan for a national assembly, and the one adopted and recently promulgated was based on his ideas, though it is said important modifications were ness in the interest of the public. If made in them. Bouligan was born in 1855 and graduated from the Imperial
