

WE CAN HELP YOU

to select your Xmas gifts. Remember that there is nothing—YES, WE CAN SAY NOTHING—that will ever take the place of China for Holiday Gifts. Every piece we show was selected carefully, and, this being a new department of this store, everything in the queensware department is the season's latest. We want you to come in and look at our stock. Few people know about the big stock we have; every one yet has been surprised.

"Everything Pretty and Everything Useful"

we have adopted for our China Department motto.

Read over a few of the articles we suggest, which make very acceptable gifts.

This store will be open until 10 o'clock after the 15th.
