BARILEY.

Mrs. Chas. Camack left for their new home in Dundy county, Monday.

Joe Burton and Miss Nellie Rittenburg took dinner at Dr. Brown's, Sunday.

Henry Konans moved onto his farm south of town, the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McKean and family moved into the Ross Grissell property in the north part of town, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rector, former residents of our little village, were here saluting old friends and acquaintances, last Monday.

E. A. White moved into his new residence, this week, and Mr. Ford of McCook, took possession of the hotel at once.

Mr. and Mrs. C.J. L. Trainer returned from their visit in Oklahoma, last Friday morning, receiving rather a cool welcome.

Last Monday, Geo. Rawson and family moved into the property just north of town, which was recently vacated by Chas. Camack.

Ira Sheets returned from his trip through the Indian Territory very well pleased with the country but glad to get back to Nebraska.

Mr. Stuart who formerly lived north of Bartley left, Wednesday, for Missouri where they intend to make their home. The ladies of the family will follow sometime the latter part of the week.

BOX ELDER.

J. K. Gordon is attending court at North Platte, this week.

N. Tubbs is arranging to build a blacksmith shop on Main street in the near future.

Mrs. Martha Shields and little son Harry of Harris, Kansas, are visiting her son George Shields and other relatives.

An effort is being made to raise money for the purpose of fencing the cemetery at this place with cedar posts and a woven wire fence. This is something every one in this vicinity should help push along and show an interest in as the old fence has gone down and the ground in a very bad condition.

There is quite a change of people in this community again this spring. Two families from near Cambridge by the names of Easton and Mosher have moved on the farm recently vacated by B.F. Shultz. Mr. Dedman has moved on the farm which he purchased of James Oakley, known to old settlers as the Piper farm up near Thornburg postoffice. We understand that a man by the name of Bible has moved on the N. Boyce farm.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY NO. 1.

Vern Bower of Missouri is here and will remain with W. E. during the coming season.

Mrs. G. A. Roedel is not improving, and her condition is giving some concern to the family.

T. A. Endsley's school closed in the boisterous gale of last Friday. Pretty strenuous day, that.

Floyd Roberson will work on the Gerald Wilcox farm, this coming season, and the gossips are wandering who will be his helpmate.

Walter N. Rogers of Shadeland Park stock farm has been "enjoying" the most robust lot of boils, lately, of any one on the route. Both eyes are affected and the doctor had to be consulted, Wednesday.

John Trout and John Kern have rented the Colonel W. E. Corwin place, moving onto the same this week. The colonel and wife are with Mrs. L. J. Burtless temporarily until arrangements can be perfected to move into McCook.

A week ago last Sunday, some one in passing through Rogers' ranch set fire to the pasture, burning over a considerable territory, destroying about twelve tons of hay etc. The Rogers had to fight until late in the night to stop the fire.

LEBANON.

Walter Devoe's baby is very sick with measles.

L. E. Wier has sold his livery barn to J. Porter.

Gar Wetherwax starts for the coast, this week.

William Cumming accompanied a shipment of hogs to St. Joe.

Dr. H. Z. Arbogast was called from Bartley and pronounced James Ferrell's two boys sick with diphtheria.

An emigrant with two cars was shipped here, last week, and moved on to Ora Bodwell's farm north west of town.

Harry Ryan was buried in Wilsonville, Sunday. He leaves a wife and five children; he died of quick consumption.

Wm. Pennington traded his windmill and pump business and two acres of land to John Adams for John's business property on Main street. John Adams sold the pump business later to Robert Murphy.

In the spring time you renovate your house. Why not your body? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea drives out impurities, cleanses and enriches the blood and purifies the entire system. 35 cents. L. W. McConnell.

We make this remarkable offer to our old and new subscribers to give them

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER

All we ask is that in every case your subscription must be prepaid to or beyond December 31, 1906

IT'S A REMARKABLY FINE FARM AND LIVE STOCK PAPER

We want every one of our subscribers paid up to the end of the year, so we have selected the stock and farm weekly that we think will be likely to please most of them. The price of the Twentieth Century Farmer is $1.00 per year and it's a big dollar's worth--24 to 48 pages each week--full of good sense and good reading.

Some Notable Contributors and Regular Departments

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER is edited by Thomas F. Sturgess, one of the best posted men on matters relating to western agriculture and live stock, as well as having a rare faculty of gathering together a list of eminent contributors and a strong staff of department editors.

THE LIVE STOCK DEPARTMENT is edited by G. W. Harvey, associate editor of The Twentieth Century Farmer. He has had much practical experience as a stock breeder and feeder. He was for many years editor of The Nebraska Farmer and is a member of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture.

FEEDS AND FEEDING—No feature has been, or can be of greater value to our readers, than the Department of Feeds and Feeding, under Prof. H. R. Smith of the University of Nebraska. Prof. Smith grew into the feeding business on his father's farm in Michigan. From the feed yard he went to Michigan Agricultural College to study the technical side of feeds and feeding. He spent a year each at the Wisconsin and Missouri Agricultural Colleges. The knowledge thus gained has been put in practice at the Nebraska Agricultural College, where he has attained a national reputation, by winning championship honors at the International Live Stock Show. This department is for Twentieth Century Farmer readers, who are urged to ask questions on feeds and feeding.

VETERINARY DEPARTMENT—Through the Veterinary Department is given the free services of Dr. H. L. Ramaccotti, a professional veterinarian of the foremost rank. When anything goes wrong with the stock, each subscriber is not only privileged, but urged, to write about it to The Twentieth Century Farmer. Questions are always answered promptly.

THE DAIRY AND CREAMERY DEPARTMENT is filled with matter from prominent dairy men located in different sections of our territory. Among these are Prof. A.L. Haecker, Nebraska University, Prof. O. Erf, Kansas Experiment Station and Alson Secor of Iowa.

WEEKLY MARKETS are edited by A. C. Davenport, the commercial editor of The Omaha Daily Bee—a recognized authority on the subject.

POULTRY—This department is very popular and is conducted by Ida M. Shepler, a practical poultry woman.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN is in charge of M. J. Wragg, who was a judge in the Pomological Department of the St. Louis Exposition. Mr. Wragg has made a study of horticultural conditions throughout the entire territory from the Mississippi to the Rocky Mountains. Inquiries from subscribers are answered from a practical standpoint.

Such well known men in the live stock world, as F. D. Coburn, who was Chief of Live Stock Department at the St. Louis World's Fair; C. R. Thomas, Superintendent Royal Live Stock Show; W. J. Kennedy, Prof. of Animal Husbandry, Iowa Agricultural College, A. T. Peters, Veterinarian of Nebraska Experiment Station and others write special articles on live stock problems.

James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, is an occasional contributor.

Among some of the prominent men who write about the orchard and garden are:

Charles E. Bessey, the Nebraska State Botanist—a man of world wide reputation.

Theodore Williams, the great western orchardist, who has produced remarkable new practical varieties of fruits.

C. S. Harrison, who has made a study of trees for western use.

The seed question is discussed by such men as Thos. L. Lyon of the Nebraska Experiment Station; A. Carleton, Cerealist of the Department of Agricultural and others; Irrigation by F. H. Newell, Chief of the Irrigation service; D.H. Anderson of the Irrigation Age. These are only a few of the subjects and men.

CARPENTER'S LETTERS OF TRAVEL—The Twentieth Century Farmer receives letters from its readers nearly every day, praising Frank G. Carpenter's Letters of Travel. In simplicity of language and vivid descriptive writing, Mr. Carpenter is not excelled by any present day writer of travel.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, who is on a tour around the world, is writing a series of letters about his travels, which appear each week.

FOR THE FAMILY CIRCLE—The purpose of the Home and Fireside and Young Folks' Departments, edited by Mrs. Isabel Richey, is to furnish good wholesome, entertaining and instructive family reading for the women, youth and children. Mrs. Richey is a woman whose heart lies close to farm scenes and interests; she is a farmer's wife, yet a woman of much literary note, having been chosen to write the ode at the recent unveiling of the monument to the late J. Sterling Morton.
