Knowles—Knipple Nuptials.

That was a very charming home wedding, Wednesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, when Mr. Charles R. Knowles, of Culbertson, and Miss Lettie A. Knipple, of our city were united in the bonds of matrimony, in the presence of a small company of relatives of the contracting families, neighbors and special friends, Rev. George Conrad officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the archway of the swell window in the sitting room, ferns, palms and smilax giving the position a graceful and tasteful touch. The groom and best man, Dr. Robert Gunn approached from the hall, meeting the bride and bridesmaid, Miss Bessie Bosworth, under the archway, the meanwhile Miss Bessie Crites, of Hastings, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The Mendelssohn and beautiful ring ceremony was used.

The bride was a picture of loveliness in a white duchess satin, yoke of embroidered chiffon, ribbon trimmings, skirt en train, carrying a superb large bouquet of bride's roses.

The bridesmaid wore a pretty cream cloth suit.

An elaborate four-course dinner was served, one large table being placed in the library for the bridal party and relatives. A lavish bouquet of calla lilies, easter lilies and narcissus formed the bride's table's chief decoration. The guests' table was spread in the dining-room proper and its decorative feature was a royal bouquet of red carnations.

Mrs. Herbert Watkins greeted the incoming guests, and Mrs. F. G. Bosworth, Mrs. A. P. Bonnot, Mrs. H. P. Waite, and Mrs. J. F. Kenyon had general charge of affairs.

Carnations and roses were the handsome general decorative items of the residence, large bouquets, shedding a lustrous beauty in each apartment.

The young friends were handsomely remembered in solid silver, cut glass, etc. The bride's parents' gifts embraced the complete furnishings of a dining-room,—china, china cabinet, buffet, etc.

Each departing guest carried a rose and carnation from the hand of Mr. Knipple.

The happy young couple drove home to Culbertson, later in the evening.

The bride and groom are both too well-known to TRIBUNE readers as popular and sterling young people to make admisible any word of praise, so we but add our's to the general note of congratulations and good wishes.

Birthday Surprise.

Agent George S. Scott was the delighted victim and the members of McCook lodge, K. of P. together with Mrs. Scott, were the chief conspirators. After the regular session of the lodge, Wednesday evening, the boys adjourned to the Scott residence in a body to celebrate his birthday with him. A luncheon was served in three courses, there was music and a social time of most hospitable details.

Their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

Last Friday, March 23rd, was a very happy day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Radel, marking as it did, the twenty-fifth anniversary of their happy married life.

In order to give the occasion a fitting celebration they invited a large company of neighbors, relatives and friends in, to make merry with them, about sixty responding.

A three-course dinner was served of a most generous and substantial sort, Mrs. Albert McMillen and Mrs. J. M. Billings serving in the dining-room, and and Mrs. J. M. Stroud, Mrs. Jacob Radel and Mrs. Marguerita Heinlein being in charge of the kitchen activities.

After dinner the afternoon was pleasantly occupied with music and a social time of most happy particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. Radel were handsomely remembered with many and fine presents, tokens of the occasion and of the guests' high regard for the host and hostess.

THE TRIBUNE joins their many friends in heartiest congratulations and in well-wishes for their future.

One Eye Entirely Destroyed.

Henry Ebert lost the sight of one eye and had the other one badly injured, last Friday, in an accident with a gun. He and his brother Fritz were firing a shotgun, using wads made from an old piece of leathern belting, without shot. The shells did not fit the gun very easily, and Fritz was closing the breach of the gun trying to force the shell into the gun. In some manner—not clearly understood—the gun was discharged and the leathern wad tore out one eye of his brother Henry who was near by and severely injured the other eye of the lad. The injured boy was taken to Omaha, on the night train, Friday, A. C. Ebert of our city accompanying him, and he was placed under the care of Dr. B. B. Davis. Hopes are entertained that the boy may be saved the use of the remaining eye. The accident is a most regrettable one and the parents as well as the boys have the earnest and active sympathy of the community.

Another Week.

Owing to the success and large interest of the Revival Meetings now being held at the Congregational church it has been decided to continue them another week and Rev. P. A. Sharpe has consented to stay and lead in the work. Already twelve have started in the Christian life and publicly confessed Christ and many others are showing a deep interest. Meetings every night at 8 p. m. opened with a song service and the sermon by Mr. Sharpe. It is hoped this coming week that everyone will come out and obtain the help and spiritual power of these meetings. Mr. Sharpe's sermons are interesting and practical; presenting the simple truths of salvation and Christian living and his work will be permanent and lasting.

New Pastor's First Service.

Rev. A. A. Holems, the new Baptist pastor, will hold his first service, next Sunday morning, and it is especially urged that all members and friends of the Baptist church be present.

On Wednesday evening of next week, the regular annual election of the church will be held, and at this meeting all members of the church are especially invited to be present.
