TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 28, 1906

NUMBER 31

At Opera House GRAND UNION MEETINGS LYON AND STENTZ BEGINS JANUARY 6th

Greetings For Everybody.

Christmas gone, and with the New Year come new resolutions. Our resolve will be to try harder to please all our patrons, and in the selection of goods, we shall try harder than ever to get only such as we can thoroughly recommend, and stand right back of.

In this way we hope to merit a continuance of your patronage and confi-

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES. METHODIST.

At the Methodist church on Christmas Eve the cantata "A Visit to Santa Claus" was rendered under the efficient direction of Mrs. Will Dungan who has been untiring in her training of the children during the last few weeks. CONGREGATIONAL.

The Congregational Sunday school exercises filled the church, Monday evening. Recitations, songs etc., by the little folks made up a program greatly enjoyed. There was a tree and the usual wealth of presents and good things to eat, besides a Santa Claus to delight the little ones. The tree and rostrum were prettily decorated in red and white, to which Chinese lilies, potted plants etc., gave an added grace and beauty.
