THE REWARD IS NOW $2100

First National Bank of McCook Adds $1,000 to the $1,100 Before Offered.

Perhaps the most important act of the week in the Spaulding assault case was that of Wednesday morning, when the First National Bank of McCook, in the person of its cashier, F. A. Pennell, appeared before the county commissioners of the county and added $1,000.00 to the reward offered for the capture and conviction of the assailant of Mrs. Claude Spaulding, May 22nd. This makes the total reward offered $2,100.00, and will doubtless stimulate the officers everywhere to the strictest search for the dastardly assailant.

Night Policeman Ed. Fitzgerald brought another suspect in from Holdrege, Monday, on No. 1 and the fellow is being held on suspicion. He is the toughest proposition the local officers have had to deal with since the brutal affair of May 22nd, but nothing certain is felt as to his identity.

It is pleasing to note that Mrs. Spaulding's condition is steadily improving-mentally and bodily-though her faculties are still not perfectly restored. Her knowledge of happenings at that time seems to be clearer than her description of the assailant, though this is improving.

There are no new developments which the officials care to make public, though they are still following clues and hope to make good in time. Mr. Robert Baker, who has been in the case since the beginning, is home, but will continue in the search.

The baccalaureate at the Catholic church, last Sunday evening, was the Willow county will be held in McCook, opening event of Commencement Week, Nebraska, Saturday, July 6th, 1907, for and replete with interest. background of potted ferns. At the appointed hour Mrs. G. H. Thomas, the bride's sister, played Mendelsshon's wedding march and the bride and groom in an unassuming manner took their places under the bridal arch. After congratulations all were interested in watching the contracting parties participate in a significant ribbontying ceremony. The guest book was signed by all present. The bride was gowned in a pretty white airline chiffon silk over white taffeta. She carried a cluster of sweet bridal roses. Large bouquets of carnations and roses lent their delightful perfume to the happy scene. A four-course wedding dinner was spread, the wedding party seated at one long table. A beautiful bouquet of La France roses occupied the center Motto: "Quality, not Quanity," while large five pointed stars, one of white the others of pink carnations, decorated either end. Mrs. H. H. sick could not be present. To Be Enlarged and Improved.

The Palmer house was released, Wednesday, by Kendlen & Stevens for term of ten years. This action carries with it the enlargement of the building to the extent of 22 rooms and general improvements and rearrangement.

Another story will be added to the present structure and rearrangements of a marked character will be made, especially in the location of the main stairway, which will go up from the main office, the space now used by the stairway and hall to become a small downstairs parlor. Another stairway will be added with its foot in the dining-room. About $4,000 will be expended in this improvement which will add largely to the needed room of the hostelrie and its conveniences and facilities.
