McCOOK TO CELEBRATE 4TH

Speeches, Music, Races, Fireworks Will Be a Part of the Attractive Doings of the Day.

At the special meeting of the McCook Commercial club, Monday evening, the matter of celebrating the Fourth of July, previously determined upon, was given definite form and impetus. Messrs. J. R. McCarl, H. H. Tartsch, A. G. Bump, J. E. Kelley and H. G. Phelps were named as the executive committee, to push the good thing along.

This general committee has announced the appointment of the following sub-committees:

Funds—G. S. Scott and W. M. Lewis.
Program—G. H. Thomas and F. M. Kimmell.
Advertising—J. R. McCarl, C. W. Barnes and M. Lawritson.

Music—G. S. Scott, H. P. Sutton and S. B. McLean.
Concessions—A. G. Bump, C. B. Gray and H. J. Cox.
Fireworks—H. G. Phelps, Barney Hofer and I. E. Doyle.
Barbecue—H. H. Tartsch, Harry Barbazette, James Hatfield and J. E. Kelley.

The plan is to occupy the morning hours with the celebration and the afternoon at the races, concluding with the fireworks at night.

The celebration will be a peach.
