Old Folks' Service.

Last Sunday at the Methodist church occurred the annual Old Folks' service, which is growing in interest each year. The church was tastefully decorated with autumn flowers, ripened grains and flags. Old hymns were sung and Miss Gertrude Storer sang "The Model Church" very feelingly. The pastor preached from the text, "Say not thou what the cause that the former days were better than these, for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this." Special emphasis was made that these days are the best we have ever seen, from the view point of intelligence and religion. "Peace on earth and good will toward men" is fast becoming the motto of the world. "Do unto others as you would that they should do to you" is fast becoming the key note of the constitutions of the governments of the globe and we are living in the golden beginning of the greatest century that ever held out a helping hand to mankind. There were present between fifty and sixty years of age, 27; between sixty and seventy, 22; between seventy and eighty, eleven; and two over eighty, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weygint. In all the service was enjoyed by the large congregation present.

COMING AGAIN

Dr. E. T. ALLEN

The Eye, Ear and Nerve Surgeon of Denver.

THE magnificent reception tendered this eminent surgeon on his recent visit to McCook and the earnest request of so many patients, has induced him to stop on his return to his Sanitorium in Denver. But this will positively be his last visit to our City this year.

When he was here, he operated twice for cross-eyes, with perfect results. He opened a tear duct; treated four cases of deafness, refused to take one case of deafness because it was incurable; he had cases of discharging ears, catarrh, headache, tumors of the eye-ball, inflammation of eyes, chronic sore throats; he fitted numerous cases of astigmatism, near-sightedness, old-sight, and lack of balance of the eyes which causes nervous disorders, sleeplessness, chorea and even insanity.

Though he worked from early morning till late into the night, several who crowded his apartments of the Palmer House, were unable to see him and as so many urged him to return, he at last consented to do so, and will again be at
