THERE are people who have lived in McCook long enough to be able to tell in a simple sentence why our esteemed young friend Francis J. Colfer is a Democrat. He was born that way.

Look For Good Year.

Rev. M. B. Carman and family arrived from McCook close of last week and following a strenuous week incident to moving they are becoming settled in the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Carman conducted services at the Methodist church Sunday, when at both morning and evening services he was greeted and welcomed by large congregations, whom he impressed by his evident sincerity and the forcefulness of his discourses. There is every reason to believe that the Methodist church in this place enters, with the advent of Rev. Carman, upon another year of growth, activity and spiritual uplift.—Minden News.
