ONE KILLED IN BREATHITT WAR

Republican Procinci Worker Slain by Two Democrais.

MORE RAIDS ON BALLOTS.

One Bundle Is Stelen and Another Burned When House Containing Tickets for Election is Fired by Para-state froops Were or Luard at All Polling Places in Famous Kenticky reud County.

Jackson, Kr., Nov. 3 .- News reached here that Tilden Blanton and Ashiord Josephs, Democrats, had killed Demosthenes Noble, a Republican, at the Spring Fork voting precinct in Breathitt county.

Reports from Crockettsville and Se bastian's Branch were that two at tempts, one successful, had been made to steal bailots near Crockettsvide precinct, at the mouth of Long's creek. The home of Mary Dealin, wno held ballots for that precinct, was destroyed by fire, and the ballots were burned with the house. At Sebastian's Branch precinct the Democrats are reported to have seized the bailots and hidden them.

According to their political beliefs, Jackson and Breathitt county men stigmatize the firing of the Dealin home as incendiary or accidental. The most reliable report from the place, which is twenty-two miles away, is that Mrs. Dealin was feeding the Lexington soldiers under Captain Sams when the fire occurred. The ballots were reported destroyed and fresh ones were furnished from Jackson. These are the ballots which an armed crowd of men threatened to take from a Jackson bank and which were finally given to Mary Dealin by Judge Adams for safe keeping. Crockettsville, the home of Ed Callahan, the noted feudist, and gathering place of the warlike Breathitt county clans, was the chief point of interest in the political war.

The Callahans and their friends are angry because Circuit Judge Adams, candidate for re-election, refused to give the command of the troops to Sheriff Crawford, a Redwine partisan. The telephone wires between Jackson and Crockettsville were cut. Captain Sams and his detail of militiamen are supposed to be in that vicinity.

LABOR CHIEFS HELD GUILTY

Court of Appeals Affirms Verdict Against Them. Washington, Nov. 3 .- The district court of appeals affirmed the decree of the supreme court of the District of Columbia adjudging President Samuel Gompers, Secretary Frank Morrison and Vice President John Mitchell of the American Federation of Labor guilty of contempt of court in the Bucks Stove and Range case.

Chief Justice Sheppard dissented from the opinion of the court on constitutional grounds.

The court held that the fundamental issue was whether the constitutional agencies of the government should be obeyed or defied. The mere fact that the defendants were the officers of organized labor in America, said the court, lent importance to the case and added to the gravity of the situation, but it should not be permitted to influence the result.

"If an organization of citizens, however large," the court held, "may disobey the mandates of the court, the same reasoning would render them subject to individual defiance. Both are subject to the law and neither is above it. "If a citizen, though he may honestly believe his rights have been invaded, may elect when and to what ex- kidneys; tent he will obey the mandates of the court and the requirements of the law as interpreted by the court, instead of pursuing the orderly course of appeal, not only the courts, but government itself, would become powerless and society would be reduced to a state of anarchy."

SHANK IN INDIANAPOLIS

Republicans Elect Mayor by Slight Majority.

Indianapolis, Nov. 3 .- In the municipal elections held in Indiana the Republicans scored several victories, the most vital of which was in Indianapolis. Samuel Lewis Shank, the Republican candidate for mayor, and the entire Republican ticket were elected by majorities ranging from 1,-000 to 1,500.

The Republicans also defeated the Democrats at Evansville, where Charles F. Heilman was elected mayor over John J. Nolan, the present mayor. At Fort Wayne, Jesse Grice, the Republican candidate, and all the other candidates on his ticket were elected by small majorities. Further victories were won by the Republicans at Richmond, Crawfordsville and other smaller cities. George T., Harper (Rep.) was elected at Madison.

The Democrats carried South Bend, Muncie, Lafayette and probably Terre Haute and some smaller cities.

Republicans declared that the defeat of the Democrats in Indianapolis was a defeat of the liquor interests of the state, which had contributed largely to the fund used in the effort to elect Gauss mayor. In several other cities the question of law enforcement was the principal issue and the victories were divided between the facitons. At Evansville the supporters

MUST CATCH BOMB GANG

Chicago Detectives to Run Down Crim inals or Quit Jobs.

Chicago, Nov. 3 .- Following an order from Chief of Police Leroy T. Steward that men responsible for the hurling of bombs in the war between gambling syndicates in Chicago must be found, Captain Stephen Wood, head of the city detective bureau, told the members of his department that if they fail to get definite results in the investigation they should get out of the bureau. Captain Wood, in addressing his detectives concerning the latest bomb outrages of Sunday night, when two buildings were wrecked, went further in his threat and declared that should his department fail to run down the perpetrators of the prolonged series of crimes he would resign as head of the detective bureau.

Gambling paraphernalia in the club rooms where bombs were thrown Sunday was destroyed by Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler and detectives of the gambling squad.

FIVE BURN TO DEATH IN HOME

Mother Loses Life, but Succeeds in Saving One Child.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3 .- Mrs. William Marlow and four children were burned to death when fire, caused by the upseting of an oil lamp, destroyed their home in the outskirts of this city. A fifth child was saved by the mother before she met her death.

Lyle, an eight-year-old son, was playing about the kitchen when the lamp on the table was overturned. Mrs. Marlow carried the boy to the yard and entered the house again to aid the four other children, who were asleep on the second floor. The five perished.
