We have 10,000 acres of the best land in the Valley for sale. No land more than three miles from shipping point. Our lands adjoin the town of La Junta, the county seat of Otero county, which has a population of 7,200.

Prices Low, Terms Easy

Our water rights are unexcelled. We have just completed the best reservoir in the State of Colarado, and in addition have an ample river decree. All lands sold by us are watered by the OTERO CANAL. This insures you abundant water.

Alfalfa nets $40 per acre in our section and is very easily raised. Forty acres of alfalfa will educate the children and leave you a comfortable margin. Compare this with the income from 160 acres in Iowa, Nebraska or Illinois. Desirable land at a reasonable figure is fast disappearing. Don't Delay.

Cantaloupes net from $75 to $150 per acre each year. We are in the Rocky Ford District and our market is established.

La Jounta is the end of three divisions of the Santa Fe Ry. and has the railroad shops which employ 1,200 men whose payroll is $90,000 per month. We can ship our products direct to Kansas City, Chicago, Denver or Los Angeles.

Our public school system is second to none.

Prices run from $20 to $115 per Acre

Very liberal terms, with six per cent on deferred payments.

The land of the Otero Irrigation District at La Junta, Colorado, offers irresistible inducements to the homeseeker.

Transportation facilities are the very best.

The climate is pleasant the year round.

The farm tracts are close to a fine city with good schools, and this community offers every social and industrial advantage that the farmer is seeking.

There are 10,000 acres now for sale in small and large tracts, not far from Rocky Ford, in the very heart of the most productive cantaloupe and sugar beet district.

I invite correspondenc and will be glad to furnsh you with circulars, maps. etc., and we guarantee that if you investigate this proposition and find it misrepresented either by us or by the literature of the LA JUNTA LAND CO. we will pay the entire expenses of your trip. # SANTA AND THE

By FRANCIS TAYLOR. [Copyright, 1909, by American Press Asso-ciation.]

One Christmas eve when Santa

Came to a certain house To fill the children's stockings there He found a little mouse.

"A merry Christmas, little friend," Said Santa, good and kind. "The same to you, sir," said the

"I thought you wouldn't mind

"If I should stay awake tonight And watch you for awhile." "You're very welcome, little mouse," Said Santa,

And then he filled the stockings up Before the mouse could wink-with a smile.

"Now, they won't hold another thing,'

Said Santa Claus, with pride. A twinkle came in mouse's eyes, But humbly he replied:

"It's not polite to contradict. Your pardon I implore. But in the fullest stocking there I could put one thing more."

"Oh, ho," laughed Santa, "silly mouse! Don't I know how to pack?

By filling stockings all these years I should have learned the knack."

And then he took the stocking down From where it hung so high And said: "Now put in one thing

I give you leave to try."

The mousie chuckled to himself, And then he softly stole Right to the stocking's crowded toe And gnawed a little hole.

"Now, if you please, good Santa Claus, I've put in one thing more,

For you will own that little hole Was not in there before."

How Santa Claus did laugh and laugh! And then he gayly spoke,

"Well, you shall have a Christmas cheese For that nice little joke."

THE DEAR OLD TREE.

By FRANK H. SWEET. There's a dear old tree, an evergreen And it blossoms once a year.

'Tis loaded with fruit from top to And it brings to all good cheer.

For its blossoms bright are small candles white, And its fruit is dolls and toys,

And they all are free for both you and me If we're good little girls and boys.
