

Our Annual Muslin Underwear Sale

Begins at 8 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, January 4, 1910, and Closes Saturday Night, January 8, 1910

This sale of Muslin Undergarments will be by far the greatest event of its kind ever inaugurated by us or even attempted by others. How such beautiful garments, made so full of such fine Muslins, Nainsooks, Cambrics and Barred Swisses, so handsomely trimmed, CAN BE SOLD SO CHEAP, will be the query in every lady's mind who attends this sale.

But Listen!

This is How We Did It!

By anticipating the big advance in the cotton market, we contracted months ago for the entire sample line of one of the largest muslin underwear mills in this country, at a big discount from the manufacturers' prices AT THAT TIME, so that during this five-day sale, and FOR FIVE DAYS ONLY, we offer you this entire line at ACTUAL MANUFACTURERS' COST, although these same garments are worth from 15 to 20 percent more today at the mills.

Death of E. A. Dodge.
Elisha A. Dodge, father of Mrs. M. E. Hartman, passed away at his home 8 miles southwest of McCook, Monday morning.
Funeral services were held at the farm home, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Bryant Lowe, after which the remains were brought to McCook and interred in Riverview cemetery.

OBITUARY.
Elisha A. Dodge was born in Crawford Co., Pa., Oct. 1, 1835. In that state and New York he spent his boyhood and early manhood.
At the age of twenty eight, on June 24, 1863, he was married to Liva Pixby of Oneida, N. Y. After a short residence there the young couple moved to Illinois, not far from Galesburg. Here was born the first child, a daughter, who at an early age was taken home. Later they moved to La Seuer Co., Minn., just after the great Indian outbreak. Here was born the last child, another daughter, Myrtle. From here he moved his family to Kansas, near Hutchinson, crossing the prairies as before in a covered wagon. Here they settled down on a homestead, enduring the hardships of a pioneer life and a residence thirty-five miles from a railroad. Thence they moved to Iowa, to Missouri and in 1899 came to Red Willow county. Here the loving wife and mother after a lingering illness followed the daughter home.
Since that time the father has resided with the young daughter Mrs. M. E. Hartman, who was permitted to administer to him in his last short illness.
Besides rearing his own family he took into his kind heart and generous home an adopted boy, Bert, who with the grandchildren were with him when he passed away, December 27, aged 74 years, 2 months, 27 days.
He has been a member of the M. E. church since early manhood, a sincere christian, a fond father and husband, a beloved "Grandpa" to all who knew him, always forbearing and kind and above all patient.
Besides the son and daughter and three grandchildren residing here, there are left one brother and several sisters to mourn his loss.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank those who have been so kind in our late bereavement, the loss of a beloved father and grandfather.
MRS. M. E. HARTMAN AND FAMILY.
F. A. DODGE.

HEALS CHAPPED HANDS.
A pair of chapped hands can give about as much discomfort as any one wants to stand. This is the season for chapped hands and lips and its well to be prepared by purchasing a bottle of our FRAGRANT LOTION.
It quickly heals inflamed and chapped skin and used when needed prevents any further annoyances. It will pay you to try it.
