or to "Coffee" with us because we know that when you once sample these match less brands you will be a life-long customer for both. The strength and flavor of both account for their popularity among Tea and Coffee critics. And it does not take so large a quantity of either in order to produce a most satisfactory and cheering cup of Tea or Coffee.

We have not at hand at this writing data of an accurate sort, but in a general way the late H. H. Pickens has been indentified with the early settlement and development of Red Willow county, having lived more than quarter century on a farm a few miles southeast of Mccounted for or taken up on returns Cook. He was one of the early commissioners of the county. He was a man of staunch ideals and a friend of finest fiber. He is survived by a wife whose devotion to her husband has been an inspiration to all who have had the pleasure of their friendship.

The Tribune freely adds its deep and genuine sympathy for the bereaved but courageous wife.

"As the Sun Went Down," which is announced for its first appearance here at the Temple theatre, Monday, May 16, is a new play by Geo. D. Baker, and it will receive marked attention for the reason that it will be produced under the direction of Arthur C. Aiston, a manager who has given numerous plays of merit and has presented several excellent stars, his latest productions having been "Tennessee's Pardner," "At the Old Cross Roads," Jane Corcoran in "Pretty Peggy" and other plays.
