June 7-8-9, the Dates.

Not the least important part of a successful convention is the music, and the state Sunday school convention at Beatrice, June 7-8-9, is to be particularly fortunate in this respect. Prof. L. D. Eichorn, of Denver, Colorado, will have charge of the music, and will be ably assisted by a large chorus choir from all the churches of the city. The local committee already has this matter in preparation and rehearsals arranged. Prof. Eichorn has for several years been the leader of the music at the Epworth assembly in Lincoln, and will need little recommendation to a Nebraska audience; his presence assures everyone that the convention music will be all that can be desired. 1500 special books have been provided for the convention, selected by Prof. Eichorn. The convention music will be one of the great features of the program.

A Double Wedding.
On Wednesday, June 1, at high noon, at the home of James L. Campbell of the Osburn precinct, Mr. Charles A. Campbell and Miss Anna May Peterson and Mr. Raymond Peterson and Miss Nellie Campbell were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Will J. Miller of Danbury according to the M. E. ritual. The brides were both very becomingly dressed in cream French satin and carried shower bouquets of carnations.

After the ceremony the guests to the number of about one hundred sat down to a sumptuous repast which made the table groan with its feast of good things, and it is rumored that some of the guests groaned, too, after dinner.

Special D. of H. Meeting.
Grand Chief of Honor Mrs. Mamie Cleaver will be in McCook on next Monday, and on the evening of that day there will be a special meeting of the lodge, the Workmen giving the use of their hall for that evening.

Live-Wire Carson.
Rev. Carson of Hastings gave a meaty and convincing county option address in the Methodist church, last evening. He is all the sobriquet implies, a real live wire, and carries a high voltage. The Ray Jordan orchestra provided the music.

Mrs. H. P. Waite and Miss Eva Barber will leave tomorrow for Crete, to attend a musical recital by Miss Edith Waite. Miss Barber goes to her home in York, afterwards to remain, her many friends will regret to know.

The members of the Red Willow County Medical Association held a conference in the city, last evening, and completed tentative arrangements for their entertainment, June 30th, of the Republican Valley Medical association. The local medicals will do the matter justice in fine form. Besides the business sessions, there will be a banquet, toasts, perhaps a theatre party, etc.

Conductor W. T. Wilcott had a lively experience with a bum at Akron, Sunday morning. The bum was caught stealing goods from a merchandise car, and Wilcott and crew attempted to take him in charge. He put up a brisk fight, with a prospect of getting away. In the gunplay that ensued the bum likely owes his well-being to the fact that his thumb was caught between the revolver hammer and the cartridge head. The bum, however, got away with no more injury than a torn thumb.

At Haigler, last Friday, passenger train No. 9 had an accident of a stirring sort, but which fortunately resulted in small damage and no injury. Engineer Viersen with engine 2848 was approaching that station at the rate of about fifty miles an hour, when he was horrified to see a section hand turn the switch for the house track. He put on the emergency brakes and as the engine struck the cars on the side-track "threw the engine over"—that is, in the reverse motion. While the speed of the train had been greatly reduced, the engine went through the first car of cinders on the side-track like a knife, reducing to kindling wood the hand car just beyond, and then struck a box car, which mounted up onto the engine's front end and boiler, stripping away much of the furnishings, but fortunately not harming any vital part of the locomotive. The engine was backed out from under the wreckage and after a delay of 31 minutes proceeded on her way with the train, arriving in Akron but 14 minutes late. The weight of the heavy engine made the shock to the train so slight that the passengers scarcely realized the train had struck anything. Fireman Hill was but very slightly hurt in jumping. Engineer Viersen remained for the entire performance Burlington luck. Yes, and some pluck.

The New Holdrege Depot.

The recent meeting of the Holdrege commercial club anent their proposed new depot was a gladstone event for that city. The Holdrege Progress refers in following language of the participation of our townsman in that event:

"Superintendent E. S. Koller of the McCook division of the Burlington system was also present and was one of the guests of honor, his remarks concerning the commencement of work on the project being listened to with much attention by the club members.

"Mr. Koller took advantage of the opportunity to explain the plans for the new depot. The blue prints had been framed and were inspected by every club man present. The plans show a structure 152x36 feet in size to be constructed of white brick and covered with a tile roof. Wide alcoves extended over the platforms before and in the rear of the building. The main waiting room will have a floor area of 2326 square feet. There is a men's smoking room, a ladies' retiring room, large baggage and express rooms. The main entrance is to the south, facing the main line. There is also an entrance on the north where the branch trains will arrive and depart.

Mr. Koller stated that the old structure would be moved in about two weeks and the work proceed rapidly from that time."

Brass Collars Large and Small.

The Burlington yards at this place were crowded with the private cars of railroad officials, Tuesday night. Mr. H. J. Horn, who has been appointed as assistant general manager to G. W. Holdrege, is being shown over the western division and familiarizing himself with the territory. The officials who met here Tuesday were: Vice President H. E. Byram, General Manager G. W. Holdrege, General Superintendent Troupe, General Superintendent of Motive Power Roope, Division Superintendents E. S. Koller, L. B. Lyman, C. D. Peckenpaugh and E. E.
