The spring time of life

comes but once. Make the best of it while you can, and when middle and old age creep on, revive the happy times of today by a look at your photographs. If you haven't any, or some that are not good come here and have some taken that will do you justice; that you'll be proud to show both now and in the years to come.

MCCOOK TO GET $95,000.

The Omnibus Public Buildings and Grounds Bill introduced in Congress carries that amount for McCook's Public Building.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—(Special Telegram.)—After weeks of consideration, given to the demands of congressmen for sites for public buildings in their districts, Chairman Bartholdt, of the public buildings and grounds committee of the house, reported Saturday the omnibus public buildings and ground bill which will be taken up Monday for consideration carrying an appropriation of $19,288,500 with $3,095,000 for continuing contracts. Chairman Bartholdt has had numerous conferences with the president and cabinet, as to the need of the departments of government for increased housing.

What to do with Norris of the fifth Nebraska district was a question which met the chairman early in the preliminary consideration of the bill for Judge Norris had been a former member of the committee and a most efficient member. He got off the reservation and the question arises in the minds of some people, whether he would have a look-in on McCook. But the bill as reported today shows that Norris had his wires out, and having secured a site for the public building in a former congress, there was nothing left but to give him $95,000 for a building for the postoffice, and courts having to be accommodated.

Nebraska received in the bill following:
Beatrice—Increase of $12,000.
For Sites—Alliance, $15,000; Aurora $6,000, and Falls City, $6,000.
Total for Nebraska, $134,000.

A Credit to McCook.

The rates which are being charged to Junior Normal students are very satisfactory and a credit to our little city. There have been some false rumors to the effect that the McCook people were charging exorbitant rates to Junior Normal students. If this were true the Junior Normal at McCook would not last long, for the reason that the pupils would go on by to Peru or Kearney, where cheaper accommodations could be obtained.

When the report of above facts came to Principal Taylor he immediately took steps to find out precisely the true condition of boarding and rooming rates. Last Friday morning a blank slip of paper asking for the following information was passed out to every student present at the morning convocation exercises. These were the points asked for: Your name; with whom do you room and board; are you a full term student; are you an institute student?

155 students gave the desired information, which is tabulated below:

Rate	Full Term	Institute	Total
$1.00	2	1	3
1.25	4	1	5
1.75	0	4	4
2.00	1	0	1
2.50	1	0	1
3.00	2	1	3
3.50	8	7	15
4.00	5	21	26
4.25	4	0	4
4.50	8	13	21
4.66	0	1	1
4.75	4	0	4
5.00	8	3	11
5.20	0	1	1
5.60	1	2	3
5.75	1	2	3
6.00	0	2	2
6.30	0	2	2
7.00	1	6	7
8.40	0	2	2
Free	16	11	27
Total	78	77	155

From above the following facts are derived:

The average rate for full term students is $3.88.

The average rate for institute students is $4.60.

81 are paying below $4.50 per week.

102 are paying $4.50 or below.

36 are paying above $4.50 per week.

The 27 are not counted in arriving in above facts.

Considering the high prices of everything this shows a very commendable public spirit on the part of the citizenship of McCook.

To Our Friends.

We desire to thank our friends for the interest and enthusiasm displayed in the recent "Baby Contest" at the Pastime theatre. We are just as grateful for their untiring efforts as if Baby Brown was the recipient of the first prize.

We have concluded it is a similar case to the little girl who reached the depot too late for her train and when asked why she didn't leave home sooner, replied, "Oh, I left home soon enough, but I didn't run fast enough was all."

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown.

SUPPOSED MURDERER LOCATED IN MCCOOK

Genyeko Mitisunga, Cook for the Burlington's Japanese Colony Here, Suspected of Dastardly Deed.

IDENTIFIED BY JAPANESE TEACHER AND OTHERS

Was Taken to Denver, Monday Morning, by Detective J. L. Brown of Chief Armstrong's Force.—Went Without Requisition Papers.

McCook is again on the map, the past week, being heralded the land over as the town in which the dastardly murderer of Mrs. Katherine Wilson of Denver was finally located and captured.

May 7th, a few hours after the Japanese appeared at her apartment to help her clean house, Mrs. Katherine Wilson of Denver disappeared. May 7th, Ridgeway Wilson, her husband, returned to the city and found his wife's corpse in the packing box in their apartment.

The Japanese vanished as soon as the woman disappeared, and no trace of him was found until a Japanese English teacher named J. Yamakato visited McCook last Friday. He hung around the car in which the Jap cooked and when he saw Mitisunga identified him as the man wanted in Denver for the murder.

City Marshal Osborn promptly took the Jap in charge and he was placed in the steel cell at the county jail. K. Mara, the Japanese foreman here, went up to Denver last Friday night, to furnish such evidence as he could. J. Yamakato, the teacher, followed on Saturday morning.

Saturday, George C. Hull of the Rocky Mountain News visited Mitisunga in the county jail and further identified the Jap.

Sunday evening, J. L. Brown, detective from the force of Chief Armstrong's office, Denver, arrived here and further identified the Jap as the supposed murderer.

Monday morning on No. 9, Mitisunga accompanied Detective Brown to Denver.

Mitisunga arrived in McCook May 10th, and inquired alone at the roundhouse for work. General Foreman McArthur gave him work and he became a member of the Japanese colony, doing outside work. Feigning illness, he was subsequently made cook and was afterwards rarely seen outside the cook and bunk cars.

He admitted coming to McCook on freight trains.

He wore smoked glasses, and his former teacher did not recognize him until he saw the man with his glasses off. A Denver Jap gave the Denver police the original tip.

Mitisunga went under the name of Matsuo here. He admitted working for the Takamine house cleaning firm in Denver.

The officers feel they have the right man beyond a doubt.

Notice.

There has been considerable speculation as to whether or not the McCook Electric Co. will continue their day service after starting it, July 1st. To this I wish to say that any one desiring to use electricity for power, lighting or cooking, can go ahead and purchase any appliances they may wish, as this service will absolutely continue the year round. We will soon have on hand a stock of motors for all purposes, which can be purchased of us at cost plus the freight.

A power rate will be given on anything above and including 1 HP, in motors and cook stoves. Anything in motors or heating appliances below 1 HP will be run on regular lighting schedule. If you are interested in power of any description, call at our office or call by phone, No. 127.
