A DISASTROUS WRECK.

One of Most Costly on McCook Division in Years.

The freight wreck in the yard at Brush, Colorado, Monday afternoon, was one of the costliest in recent years, in dollars and cents on the McCook division. Fast freight ran into an extra freight as the latter was heading into Brush yard. Some dozen or more cars were more or less smashed up. The loss reaches well up into the thousands of dollars, a carload of bees, one of whisky, one of emigrant moveables, and several of general merchandise being scattered about.

The engine of No. 77 was also derailed and caused no little trouble to the company to get her back again. Considerable thievery occurred and some annoyance to the company from intoxicated workmen engaged in repairing track and picking up the wreckage.

Wedding.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Episcopal church on Monday evening, when Gladys Fredericka Fuller and James K. Nalle were united in marriage. Dean Cross officiated in the beautiful service.

The bride came in on her father's arm and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Leonard Bennett.

Messrs. Charles Carter and Harry Linder were ushers, and Mr. Leonard Bennett attended the groom.

The altar was artistically decorated with white chrysanthemums and ropes of smilax and numerous potted plants. The wedding march was from Lohengrin and Mrs. Barrow played it.

The bride's gown was of white crepe over liberty satin, en train, and was trimmed in embroidered chiffon and lace. She wore a tulle veil, fastened with flowers, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maidenhair fern.

The matron of honor wore a white lingerie dress and a white satin picture hat.

The groom wore a military white linen dress suit.

Following the ceremony the bridal party went to the bride's home, where an elaborate wedding supper of five courses was served.

The color scheme in the dining room was yellow and white. A large white bell hung in the center and smilax ropes were draped from that, and yellow and white chrysanthemums were used profusely. At the close of the supper the bride cut the wedding cake with her husband's sabre.

Soon after the supper the bride threw her bouquet, and Miss Portz caught it.

All the guests accompanied them to the train and gave them the best of wishes.

Mrs. Nalle wore a dark brown traveling suit, and a velvet Madame Sherry hat, which was very becoming. They departed in Mr. Robins' private car, and will go to New York City and Washington, D. C. On the 16th of October they will sail for Manila and Lieut. Nalle will join the Twelfth regiment at Fort McKinley. Lieut. Nalle has recently been promoted to first lieutenant.—Sheridan (Wyo.) Post.

A Swiftly Passing Auto.

It caused Will Esher's dray team to run away, last Friday. The team was backed against the curb in front of The Bon Ton, and they dashed down the gutter, striking the fire hydrant in front of The First National bank, breaking the hydrant and causing a lively flood in the adjacent basement and on the sidewalk until the stand-pipe was shut off and the pipes had drained out. In front of the Walsh block the team fell and was caught without further damage and without any injury.

At this point, however, Joseph Menard's and David Wagner's horses took up the race, which they continued down to the Burlington depot, where they were stopped, neither causing injury or damage.

It took the water company several hours to repair the damaged hydrant which in the repairing was placed back against the curb, more out of harm's way.

Breakfast For Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. J. S. Stansberry entertained a half score or more of lady friends, Tuesday morning, at a ten-o'clock breakfast in honor of Mrs. U. J. Warren of Fort Morgan, Colorado, now visiting her mother and friends in the city. It was a three-course affair of clever particulars, greatly enjoyed by the guests.

ANOTHER ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

Clayton Priest of Graham County, Kansas, the Victim.

Sheriff Higgins was summoned to the southwestern part of the county, Sunday evening, by a telegram announcing the accidental death of a young man who was driving through that part of the county.

The news came from J. F. Messenger, near whose farm the tragedy was enacted, about a mile north of the Nebraska state line, on the road to Cedar Bluffs, Kansas.

It is pretty much the same old story: There were two boys and their uncle in a wagon. The boys—Priest by name—were returning to Graham county, Kansas, from visiting the uncle near Dickens in Lincoln county, this state. They were in McCook, Saturday.

Sunday evening the older boy had been out of the wagon hunting, and killed a rabbit, which he brought to the wagon, placing the loaded gun in the wagon, and remarking to the younger brother that it was loaded. They were moving on a little further for a more desirable camping spot for the night.

The younger boy, Clayton Priest by name, attempted to pull the loaded gun toward him, with the muzzle toward his breast. Some obstruction discharged the gun, which tore a terrible gaping hole in his breast and caused his almost instant death.

Sheriff Higgins was taken over to the scene of the accident, by Sam McClain, in the latter's automobile, Sunday evening, but the sheriff concluded that the case was so plain that an inquest was not necessary.

Monday, the remains were taken overland in an automobile to the farm home in Graham county, between 20 and 25 miles southeast of Jennings.

Next Meeting at Bartley.

At the contest, Tuesday, by members of the Southwestern Nebraska Checker Playing association, in the McCook commercial club rooms, the following was the result:

Number of points made by contestants in the preliminaries: E. F. Osborn 15, J. F. Payton 25, John Wentz 29, E. J. Hackenberger 22, C. T. Story 10, G. W. Secrest 2, Walter Devoe 19, J. A. Wilcox 23, W. Wiggins 3, F. S. Wilcox 22, B. J. Sutton 18. In the finals the scores were: John Wentz 25, F. S. Wilcox 16, J. F. Payton 14, E. J. Hackenberger 13, J. A. Wilcox 12.

E. J. Osborn was the winner of last year.

The next meeting and contest will be held in Bartley in January.

Stop Liquor Delivery.

Muskogee, Okla., Sept. 29.—All railroads entering Muskogee, Okla., have been notified from headquarters to refuse to deliver consignments of liquor to persons in Muskogee holding federal revenue licenses. This is in compliance with a recent order of the courts enjoining the roads from delivering liquor. Possession of a revenue license is construed as evidence that the possessor is illegally selling liquor.

Some roads are already returning consignments to the shippers.

Rubber Goods Worth Having.

When anything in family rubber goods is wanted you'll make sure of the kind that will give long satisfactory service by coming here for it. Our rubber goods are all of reliable make. We buy of manufacturers who have reputations to maintain.

Let us supply you with rubber goods worth having.

L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Notice to Children.

Complaint is made that children in this city make a habit of jumping on and off moving automobiles. Such are hereby notified that they will be summarily dealt with in future. The practice is dangerous and must be discontinued and abated, and to this end the police will act accordingly.

E. P. HUBER, Mayor.

Card of Thanks.

The ladies of St. Alban's Guild wish to thank all who so kindly assisted in making the benefit entertainment a success.

COMMITTEE.

The Main Store On the Main Street.

If it is the freshest and best in groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc., you seek, look no further than Huber's.

Farewell Party.

Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Bryant Howe gave them an informal farewell party, Monday evening, at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kennedy, which was largely participated in by late parishioners of these estimable people.

There was a short impromptu program of music by Miss Grace Rowell and Miss Helen Schwab, and later in the evening light refreshments were served.

They departed for their new field of endeavor, Cozad, Tuesday morning, and with them went the respect and most hearty well wishes of many friends gathered to themselves during the year he has occupied the local Methodist pulpit, both from within and outside the church.

The Tribune commends him heartily to the people of Cozad, as an earnest preacher of the gospel, and a gentleman of high class; his estimable helpmeet as a lady of many lovable and attractive qualities.

Mrs. C. B. Sawyer, Dead.

A telegram to the publisher, Monday night announced the death, that afternoon of Mrs. C. B. Sawyer, after an illness of but fourteen hours. Burial was made in Spokane, Washington. Up to the time of going to press today no further details have been received.

The news came as a distinct shock to the many friends of the Sawyer family in McCook, where they lived for a number of years before moving to Greenacres, Washington.

Mrs. Sawyer was an accomplished woman of many splendid qualities.

A host of friends will join with The Tribune in extending the sincerest sympathy of this community to the bereaved husband and daughter.

"Stuffed Club" Philosophy.

A small but appreciative audience heard Mr. and Mrs. Maynard of Denver, Monday evening, in the court room, explain the philosophy of Dr. J. H. Tilden as set forth in "A Stuffed Club."

It is reported as having been a brilliant lecture in the interest of health and hygiene a la Tilden, and was a generous source of instruction to all who had the pleasure of hearing.

Especially Strong in Comedy.

"The Flower of the Ranch" was just a trifle too vociferously vociferous, especially in the opening scene, but offered much for the entertainment and enjoyment of the fine audience present; and was warmly received and appreciated.

Their singing was good; comedy strong, and the efforts of the general company quite acceptable.

For Sale.

At private sale at my home 1 1/4 miles south of McCook: 8 head of good work horses, five of them mares; 2 good ice wagons, almost new; 2 wagons with good hay racks; 2 farm wagons; 1 old buggy; 1 plow; 1 mowing machine; 1 feed grinder; 1 good harrow. J. I. LEE.

Removal Opening.

Messrs. Fisher & Perkins of The Model Shoe Store are now most cosily ensconced in the superb new quarters in the new Morris building and by announcement elsewhere to be found in this issue most cordially invite the public to their Removal Opening, Friday evening.

Some Slight Corrections.

The accounts of the suicide of Madison Carter, in this city last week, have confused the public somewhat, respecting the suicide himself and the brother. "Matt" Carter the suicide, was not in the Burlington employ, but worked for H. N. Rosebush and others. His weakness was strong for drink, which doubtless caused him finally to take his own life, after becoming despondent because of his inability to resist the demon. He was almost forty years of age.

The brother's name is S. E. Carter, and he is the Burlington fireman, and stands well with the company in whose service he has been for several months. He also came from Holdrege, as did the dead man.

Highly Creditable.

The "Fairy Revel" entertainment given under the direction of the ladies of the Episcopal church, last Friday evening, in the Temple theatre, had a large and appreciative hearing.

When the work of training scores of children in different drills and costumes and songs is considered the result was very satisfactory and creditable, and the ladies will divide the honors with the children and others assisting in the production.

There was a neat profit to the church, too.

Dr. George Condra.

Among those who will be present at the Farmers' Institute, October 27, will be Dr. George B. Condra, one of the big men physically and mentally of the Nebraska university, who will deliver an address, etc.

The doctor became a national figure in connection with the late conservation convention in St. Paul, Minn. He is one of Nebraska's great citizens, and none should fail to hear him during the institute and boys' and girls' contests of October 27.

Each Had a Clinic.

Drs. H. J. Pratt, E. O. Value, R. J. Gunn, R. H. Gatewood attended the sessions of the Southwestern Nebraska Dental association in Cambridge, Tuesday of last week, each of the local dentists present having a clinic before the association.
