

THE BLACK CLOTHES FOR SOCIAL EVENINGS

IT IS A SATISFACTION to handle and try on STEIN-BLOCH Evening Clothes. They are so soft, the silk is so beautifully sewn, the clothes are such high-grade examples of real tailoring.

Few tailors can make them, you know. STEIN-BLOCH makes the best. No tailor at your command can approach them. It is a sin to let an ordinary tailor touch full-dress clothes. If you are thinking of getting a full-dress suit or a Tuxedo for the winter's festivities, come to us before you make up your mind. The price question, aside from the high quality we can show you, will afford you interest.

Beautiful Wedding.
At 5 o'clock on the evening of November 8th, 1910, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bradbury, of Imperial, Nebraska, occurred the wedding of their beautiful and accomplished daughter, Susan Alice, to Mr. James Harold Morris, of McCook, Nebraska, Rev. Bickel of the Methodist church officiating. None but the immediate friends of the happy contracting parties were present.

The bride was dressed in white, the dress being trimmed in lace which made her beautiful dark eyes and glossy hair a sweet contrast with the groom who was dressed in the conventional black.

The happy couple left by auto last Wednesday morning for Denver, Colorado, going by way of Bankerman. As this auto wound its way south it was followed by a long line of admirers, there followed them in their journey the hearty best wishes of every one in Imperial.

Alice, as she was familiarly known from her infancy to bright happy womanhood, has grown up among us one of the bright, sweet flowers of our town, and all who knew her but to love her. We charge her fortunate and lucky young husband that he has come among us and plucked one of our choicest roses, and we know he has made no mistake in his choice and it is the prayer of all that Alice be as not.

The happy couple will be at home at McCook after December 15th.

McCook, Imperial's loss is your gain.

May joy, happiness and peace ever be the lot of these young people in the wish of all Imperial people.—Imperial Republican.

Where are you going, my pretty maid?

To the bazaar, sir, she said.
What will you do there, pretty one?
Buy Xmas gifts, and eat and have some fun.

When and where is this all to be?
At Monte Christo hall, the first of December.

Crushing.
"Do you think that actor can sink his personality in his part?" "His acting is heavy enough to sink anything."

Wisdom in This Sentence.
Love the spot where you are, and the friends God has given you, and be sure to expect everything good of them.—John Albee.

Jury Penalties.
Nowadays no penalty is enforced when the twelve men chosen to form the jury are unable to agree upon a verdict. Formerly, however, a refractory juror was committed to prison and the verdict of the eleven was taken. In the reign of King Edward III, the judges decided that a verdict given by a majority was a nullity and recommended that the judges should carry the jury about with them in a cart till they should agree. The old custom that jurors should fast until they had agreed in their verdict prevailed long, but was mercifully relaxed somewhat in Tudor times, and during Queen Elizabeth's reign a banquet was usually given to the jury by the successful party to a suit.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Science and Cheese.
A medical authority kindly assures us that as long as cheese isn't decayed it will not affect the health of the consumer. This is a fact that we have suspected for a considerable time. But now is the ordinary cheese epicure to detect the difference unless he waits for results?

There is cheese so thoroughly disguised in the costume and aroma of fancy that its proper standing on the sanitary testing table would puzzle a conjurer.

For instance, there is the brand known as Limburger.
But why pursue the subject?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Circumventing Papa.
"Reginald, I'm awfully sorry, but papa says he doesn't want to see you coming here any more."
"Boudicca, your father's wish is law. He shall not see me again if I can help it. What evenings in the week does he spend downtown?"—Chicago Tribune.

Force of Habit.
"A thousand stars are looking down on you this night," said the poet to a young man to the girl.
And she unconsciously put her hands up to arrange the position of her hat.

Official.
"We have had an official warning not to burn much gas this month."
"I never heard of such a thing."
"Oh, yes; it was last month's bill."—Buffalo Express.

Made It Clear.
Now, Clarice, says the Boston Globe, don't get these things twisted: You eat bivalves, see through binoculars, ride bicycles, wish you had biplanes and marry bipeds.

Deepest Hours of Sleep.
The period of deepest sleep varies from 2 to 5 o'clock.

A Lost Inspiration.
Seated one day at the mirror,
I was weary of rats and puffs;
And my fingers wandered idly
Over the curls and puffs.
I know not what I was building
Or what I was mimicking,
But I struck a sort of coiffure
Like the head of an Aztec King!
It flooded my brows and temples
In a most expansive way;
And it lay on my cerebellum
Like an overweight ton of hay;
It fell into puffy billows,
Like that foolish old silk floss;
It seemed like a harmonious jumble
Of excelsior and moss.

It linked all my marcel wavings
Into one humy heap;
Then coiled in a roly-poly,
Like a kitten going to sleep.
I have sought but I seek it vainly,
That one coiffure so fine—
That came from the head of an Aztec
And decorated mine.
It may be in some shop window
That style I can yet procure;
And it may be that only in Juja
I shall find that grand coiffure.
Carolyn Wells.

PLEASANT PRAIRIE.
There is quite a changing and working of roads in our neighborhood.
Mr. Ed Phillippi and family were visitors at the parental home Saturday and Sunday.
George C. Hawkins and Nannie E. Goodenberger were married Tuesday, Nov. 15th at the office of the county judge, returning to their home where a few of their nearest relatives and a good supper awaited them.

They go immediately to house-keeping on what is known as the Lawthers' farm. We see nothing to keep theirs from being a prosperous and happy future, and with their many friends wish them success in life.

Misleading.
A tailor on Thirty-ninth street has a sign: "Clothes mended in the rear."
—Chicago Tribune.

La Vogue Label is the Hall Mark of Quality

The feeling of "quality" is worth double the price—
But when you can buy that "quality" at the ordinary price and less—

As you can here—
We feel we have an unanswerable argument and inducement to offer you—

The La Vogue suits and coats are made on "quality."
Quality in cloths,
Quality in linings,
Quality in trimmings,
Quality in tailoring,
Quality is the watchword of the makers throughout.
For they know that when you wear a La Vogue garment, you will appreciate unusual quality and will want another.
And we know it too.

That's why we buy these La Vogue garments and sell them to our customers—

Because we know they will satisfy you—and you will be our customer next season and the seasons to come.

Let us show you the La Vogue styles for Fall.
