HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in McCook, and Good Reason for it.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure? No reason why any McCook reader Should suffer in the face of evidence like this.

Mrs. A. M. Wilson, 204 E Second St., McCook, Neb., says: "My back bothered me for years and there was a dull ache across my kidneys and loins. The pain in my back became worse when I exerted myself and often I had headaches and dizzy spells. I could not stoop and there were many other disagreeable symptoms of kidney complaint in evidence. On a friend's advice, I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills from McConnell's drug store and I soon found them to be just what I needed. This remedy strengthened my back and kidneys and before long effected a complete cure."

(Statement given June 26, 1907.)
Re-endorsement.
On June 21, 1910, Mrs. Wilson

said: "I am pleased to verify the statement I gave in 1907, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy is a specific for kidney complaint."

Fire at Indianola.

Indianola, Neb., May 21.—Fire at 3 o'clock this afternoon destroyed two frame buildings on Main street. One was occupied by I. M. Smith's hardware store, and the other by Mack Lord's harness shop. Nearly all of Mr. Lord's stock was saved as was part of the goods in Smith's store. The buildings were totally destroyed. Both are partially covered by insurance. Mr. Smith's loss is about $1,000, and loss on buildings is about $1,500. This is the second fire Mr. Smith has had in the last few months. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Quite a Foot Race.

The base ball game between the high school teams of McCook and Cambridge, last Friday, developed a meritorious sprinting ability in both clubs, especially among our ownest. The final score was 21 to 10 in favor of the locals.

In the evening the visiting team was given a reception in the high school, with refreshments and a musical-literary program of such excellence as characterizes such events in the city's public school affairs.

They wanted him to buy a farm
A thousand miles remote,
In regions that were full of charm.
The proud promoter wrote,
The more he thought and thought of it
The more he liked the scheme;
To think of it he used to sit—
And then he had a dream.

(Now, dreams are very foolish things
Undoubtedly, it's true—
Your brain puts on its fairy wings
And flies away from you;
And yet it seems that some of us
Our cash would never keep
Unless we learned a lesson, thus,
By falling fast asleep.)

He had a dream a dollar came,
With tears its features wet;
A dollar came and called his name
In anger and regret.
The coin was shedding silver tears
From out its silver eye.
He asked the reason for its fears;
The dollar made reply:

"They tell me you intend to send
Me many miles away,
They tell me you intend to spend
In speculation gay
The dollar that has been to you
A servant many years,
To send me to some region new—
And hence these silver tears.

"I've lived in this community
Almost as long as you;
I've been in every family,
I guess, but one or two—
But one or two, who, sad too say,
Had such a scheme in mind
And sent their hard-earned cash away
Some other land to find.

"I am the dollar that was paid
To Johnson for his wheat,
That Johnson gave again in trade
To Murphy for his meat,
That Murphy gave to Smith, you see,
For furnishing a knife,
That Smith left at the grocery
For candy for his wife.

"The grocer gave me up to Jones,
Who runs the drygoods store,
And that the doctor set his bones
This Jones can thank me for.
The doctor paid me out for oats
To feed his dapple gray,
The feedman paid me on some notes
Fell due a certain day.

"The banker bought a book or two,
And so the thing went on—
Each night I had an owner new,
A new one at the dawn.
A welcome waited when I came,
A godspeed when I went,
In fact, a thousand ways the same
On errands I was sent.

"But now you say that I must go,
A wanderer to be,
Afar from all the friends I know
Who know and honor me.
I wonder that you dare to look
Me fairly in the face;
And in your empty pocketbook,
Oh, who will take my place?"

The speculator then awoke,
The dollar in his hand,
And softly to himself he spoke,
"At last I understand."
He gave it to the druggist's clerk
And bought a brush and comb—
He found a dollar does its work
The best right here at home.

Few to Contest the Honor.
The Tribune is sure there are few citizens of McCook who would desire to participate in the doubtful "honor" of being the author of that "band concert" joke of last Friday evening. And McCook will stand for a good deal in the "joke" line, too.

It Was a Fake.
That band concert advertised per dodgers for last Friday evening in the city park, was a fake pure and simple. Quite a number of citizens repaired to the park, however, innocently, to enjoy the music.

SPENT $500.00--REFUSED $3000.00

Two years ago one of Uncle Sam's soldiers filed on a 40-acre homestead adjoining the town of Powell, Wyoming. By applying his time served in the army, this homesteader has now made final proof. He has paid out only $500.00 on the ten payment plan, towards water rights and improvements, and has just refused a $3000.00 offer for his 40-acre farm.

This illustrates the value of irrigated farms under Government Canals in the Big Horn Basin.

YOUR CHANCE SOON

More of this same kind of land will be opened soon to entry. The Ralston Unit is already platted: 12 miles more of the main canal is more than half finished by the contractors. If you want to get one of these rich Government prizes send me your name and address for my mailing list and I will notify you as fast as new tracts will be supplied with water. The next one will be announced very soon.

TELEPHONE TALKS No. 4.

THAT WORD "HELLO."

If you and every other Bell Telephone subscriber in this country would answer the telephone by giving the name, as "John Smith talking," instead of saying, "Hello!" a million and a half hours of time would be saved every year.

Six billion connections are made over Bell Telephones every year. A second economized on each call by dropping the "Hello!" would mean six billion seconds, a hundred million minutes, a million and a half hours, or 455 days saved every year. This tremendous time saving and consequent reduction in operating expenses could be applied to the betterment of the service.

The most agreeable mode of beginning a telephone conversation, and the method we recommend, because it saves useless words and avoids misunderstanding and consequent irritation, and is at the same time courteous and direct, runs thus:

The telephone bell rings, and the person answering says: Brown's residence; John Brown talking," or "Woods & Company; Mr. Jones speaking."
