Silas R. Barton for Congress?

"You may look with reasonable surety," said a republican Thursday "for the entrance of Silas R. Barton into the Fifth district congressional race the minute George W. Norris declares himself a candidate for his party's nomination for United States senator."

"Further," he continued, "those Fifth district republicans in picking this apparently dark horse for the race will be choosing a man who can make the strongest race in the entire district. Look at last fall's figures. Norris won over Sutherland by 4,000 votes. Mr. Barton polled nearly as large a majority for auditor and didn't work enough in the district to work up perspiration. With a trip to the towns of the district his majority would be overwhelming."

Democrats, it is said, in that section of the state have been looking with considerable glee at what they thought would be an insurmountable barrier should the present congressman, Mr. Norris, decide to launch a campaign for the senatorial seat. It is said they have figured that any one of a bunch composed of Dungan of Hastings, Sutherland of Nelson or even Harmon of Holdrege could win out over almost any of the republicans left, with Norris out of the way.

The talk of the Thompson boom for senator is said to have started a coterie of southwestern Nebraska democrats booming Shallenberger for congress, a thing which they thought would result in his election not only next fall but subsequent falls as well. The fact, however, that the Harlan county man's intentions were otherwise indicated may put an end to the congressional talk. The withdrawing of Norris from the congressional field, if it should come, would mean that the bars would be let down in the Fifth district and that James of Hastings, Junkin of Smithfield, Perry of Cambridge and Prince of Grand Island might flock in with their filing fees.—Lincoln Journal.

Ex-Gov. Shallenberger Will Run

"You may announce that I expect to be a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator in 1912," said ex-Governor Shallenberger of Alma, who was in the city Wednesday.

"But say further that in informally announcing my intentions that I do not seek to take any interest from the coming fall campaign. The election of three judges of the supreme court, of two university regents and county officers over the state is the most immediate thing at hand and should be met before we begin our 1912 battles," said Mr. Shallenberger.

"As far as the candidacies of W. H. Thompson and Willis Reed is concerned I believe that it is hardly the right moment for them to run. They reside north of the Platte, while it is a well known fact that this is a south Platte year. The new senator, Mr. Hitchcock, is a north Nebraska man in the way we've been allotting senators for years past, and I believe that the next one—the successor to Senator Norris Brown—should be from south Nebraska. The fact that George W. Norris resides in southern Nebraska will, I understand, furnish him with a weighty campaign asset should he decide to contest with Norris Brown, who lives north of the Platte," said Mr. Shallenberger.—Lincoln Journal.

Foley's Kidney Remedy Acted Quickly
M. N. George, Irondale, Ala., was bothered with kidney trouble for many years. "I was persuaded to try Foley Kidney Remedy and before taking it three days I could feel its beneficial effects. The pain left my back, my kidney action cleared up, and I am so much better. I do not hesitate to recommend Foley Kidney Remedy." A. McMillen.

In the Wake of the Measles.
The little son of Mrs. O. B. Palmer, Little Rock, Ark., had the measles. The result was a severe cough which grew worse and he could not sleep. She says: "One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured him and he has never been bothered since." Croup, whooping cough, measles cough, all yield to Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The genuine is in the yellow package always. Refuse substitutes. A. McMillen.

SUIT AGAINST LUMBER TRUST

New York, May 19. — Sweeping charges of a gigantic conspiracy to maintain high prices, to blacklist concerns not regarded as "proper" trade, and to violate generally the Sherman anti-trust law are made in a government suit filed by Attorney General Wickersham in the United States court here today against the so-called Lumber trust.

Ten trade organizations and more than 150 individuals are named as defendants in this suit, which may be the first of several planned by the Department of Justice against combinations of retailers in staple commodities and the necessities of life to prevent the ultimate consumer from buying anywhere except from local retailers.

The government's suit is replete with sensational allegations and it is asserted that builders and consumers of lumber the country over are at the mercy of the retailers' organizations in different sections of the United States.

The suit filed today is against the Eastern States Retail Lumber Dealers' association, which is the central body of nine local organizations covering five states, the District of Columbia and the cities of Baltimore and Philadelphia.—Omaha Bee.

GOVERNMENT WANTS TO KNOW

Sending Out Inspectors to Examine Subscription Books of Country Weeklies.

The government is now sending out inspectors to examine the subscription books of the country newspapers with a view of getting all subscription lists on a "paid in advance" basis. With weekly papers, subscribers must be paid up within a year of the date of inspection.

The Clinton (Ill.) Advertiser says an inspector is now working in that vicinity. The order was originally made to shut out the papers issued by the mail order houses, which had no regular list, but it seems it is to be enforced rigidly among the weekly papers of the country. The government, realizing that such a ruling would work a hardship among the country publishers, has been very lenient so far, in order to give them a chance to adapt themselves to the rule, but as three years have gone by since the order was made, the department thinks enough time has been given, and will strictly enforce the rule from now on.

The foregoing would indicate that the country editor will be forced to collect back subscriptions or strike all in arrears from the list. The Tribune has no desire to crowd any subscriber, but it would be a great accommodation if those knowing themselves to be behind on subscription would adjust the matter at once thus putting our books in shape for the department inspector who is sure to call on us soon. This is one reason why we are sending out some reminders this week.

Examine the name label on your paper, where you will see the date to which your subscription is paid. We appreciate your patronage, and believe you appreciate our efforts to make The Tribune one of the most welcome weekly visitors. If there is a doubt about your subscription date, write us at once that we may get the matter adjusted.

ANOTHER BANK STORY

Smith bought some pigs from his neighbor Jones. The price came to $6.42. Smith paid Jones in cash, but as usual neither had the proper change, and Smith said: "Just make it even money." Smith lost 8 cents. Jones bought some pigs from his neighbor Johnson. The price came to $6.42. Jones had his money in the bank and gave Johnson a check for the exact amount. Jones did not lose a cent. This is only one of the advantages of a checking account. Come in and let us explain further.

CHURCH ADVERTISING.

Modern Specific for Banishment of Service Dullness.

"Display advertising for the house of the Lord beats the church bell," says Robert Frothingham. The late Edward Everett Hale agreed with this view. Advertising, unfortunately, has never been taught at theological schools. Many preachers have assumed that church advertising, beyond the formal notice, would be undignified. It is considered good form to have an entire sermon printed after it has been delivered. A few of the strong sentences taken from a sermon and displayed in the newspapers on the Sunday morning that sermon is to be preached would draw many a man and woman to the church that day. The Sunday newspaper might be made a greater missionary worker. If it is legitimate to pay a soprano soloist a high salary to contribute the beauty of her art to the church service it is legitimate to engage a skilled writer of advertisements to present that costly feature in a way to make it tell in church attendance. There is a general complaint among choir singers that they are not so well paid as they were a few years ago. All persons employed nowadays by non-advertisers are likely to find business equally dull, and churches are all engaged in what their members consider the most important business in the world.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. The Sound Sleep of Good Health.
Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southers, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." A. McMillen.
