THEY'RE ALL ALIKE

Ask any man past fifty years of age and he will tell you of some time in his life when he was sailing high. Things were coming his way. There are few exceptions. Why is he poor now? Well there are various reasons. One thing is sure. It is not because he placed his money in a sound bank and checked it out only when safe investments were secured. There are more ways to lose money than to make it. If you are making any money, no matter how small the amount, start the saving habit by opening a bank account.

The First National Bank of McCook, Neb.

You will find that druggists everywhere speak well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know from long experience in the sale of it that in cases of coughs and colds it can always be depended upon, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

C. J. RYAN,

Christmas Wine and Walnuts

Wonderful Man.
Decem—Ginks had the most wonderful control of his features of any man I ever knew.
Burr—I understand he was a marvel.
Decem—He was. Why, I've even seen that man look pleased when he saw what his wife had bought him for Christmas.

In Advance.
Mrs. Skinfint—Oh, John! Mary, the parlor maid, has just swallowed a quarter! What ever shall we do?
Old Skinfint—Do? Well, I suppose we'd better let her keep it. She'd have expected a Christmas present, anyhow!

Once Enough.
"Christmas comes but once a year," said the cheery citizen.
"No use in its coming twice a year," said the morose person. "Must give a man a chance to save a little money before he can spend it!"

Too Late.
Highwayman—Halt! Your money or your life!
Victim—It's no go, stranger. My wife's in the same line of business all ways at Christmas time, and she's just finished with me.

Two Kinds.
There are friends and Christmas tree friends. The latter take all the presents they can get and present you with beautiful boughs.

A MYSTERY.

Dudley Nobs—Pa, there's one thing about Santa Claus I never could understand.

Mr. Nobs—What is that, my son?
Dudley Nobs—Why does Santa always leave valuable presents to rich folks and cheap ones to poor people? Why don't he even things up?

A Clean Sweep.
Caroline—I've been in the stores all day.

Pauline—So soon after Christmas, and still shopping?
Caroline—Shopping! I guess not. I'm exchanging all my presents.

Cackling.
Mrs. Gramercy—She must have been surprised when her husband gave her such an expensive present for Christmas.
Mrs. Park—Not surprised, my dear, but suspicious.

George—Ah, Lily, dear, this will be the jolliest Christmas I've ever spent. Now that we're engaged I think only of the future.
Lily—Do you? Well, at this time of the year I think only of the present.

Christmas Thanks.
When turkey's on the table laid, And good things I may scan, I'm thankful that I wasn't made A vegetarian.

Trouble and a Turkey.
Brown was boasting of the fine turkey he had bought for Christmas. "Biggest bird I ever saw; cost me seven-fifty."

"That's nothing to the turkey I had last Christmas," said his friend Jones. "It cost me $150."
"One hundred and fifty dollars!" positively shrieked Brown, in his incredulity.
"Yes," said Jones, bitterly.
"Turkeys," said Brown, looking him straight in the eye, "are generally to be bought for a quarter a pound. Say yours was a quarter, then it must have weighed about 630 pounds!"
"It only weighed twenty pounds," said Jones, sadly; "but I bought it alive and tried to kill it myself. It flew all over the house first and did $150 worth of damage."
