A DOUBLE WEDDING.

The Hodgkin-Mette and Sanders-Mette Nuptials at Beverly.

One of the prettiest of home weddings took place at 6 p. m., March 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mette when to the first notes of the wedding march played by Mr. A. D. Brown, the four men Robert Shara, Floyd Hodgkin, Kurtis J. Mette and Walter Sanders, men in attendance, followed by four bridesmaids Lorna McKnight and Norma Mette in pale blue and Ruth Hineckley and Gertrude Sanders in pink entered a bower of battenberg lace and pink carnations and two large wedding bells, to wait the coming of the grooms and brides J. Myrl Hodgkins and Adela Valda, Adolph J. Sanders and Dena Gertrude. The grooms in conventional black, the brides in gowns of white satin, trimmed in rhinestones and marabou, beautifully draped veils and bearing huge bouquets each of her favorite flowers, Miss Adela white carnations and Miss Dena white lily narcissi. Just as they had taken their place under the bells, two little girls Lillian Stevens in pale blue and Violette Cunningham in pink, brought in each an immense carnation holding in its heart the emblem of unending affection which the grooms placed on their bride's finger at the proper moment, as Rev. Trueman pronounced the sacred words.

After the ceremony all repaired to the large dining room on the second floor decorated in green and white and partook of a six-course dinner.

A profusion of flowers, sweet peas and carnations, abounded. The guests remaining the entire evening to enjoy the program prepared for them as well as music by Miss Hineckley a musician of some note.

The young couples received many useful and ornamental presents.

They will be at home to all friends at Beatrice, Neb., after May 1st.

Out of county guests were: Mrs. Chas. Sanders, Beatrice; Mrs. Max Steurmer, Lincoln, Miss Ruth Hineckley, Juniata; Miss Lorna McKnight, Bartley; Floyd and Elma Hodgkin, Bartley; Mae

Smith, Bartley; Robert Shara, Hayes Center; Gertrude Sanders, Beatrice; Mrs. Etta Hoover, Bartley, Nebraska.

Banquet Announcement.

The Bryan birthday banquet, given annually in honor of Nebraska's distinguished citizen, has always been a large affair. The indications are, however, that the celebration this year will be the biggest and liveliest in history. William J. Bryan's birthday is March 19th. The dinner and celebration of this event will be under the auspices of the Lincoln Bryan Club. The dinner will be held in Lincoln's large auditorium on the evening of March 19. The toast list will comprise a large number of America's distinguished men.

Ole James, now a member of Congress from Kentucky will be one of the speakers. Thomas P. Gore, known to fame as Oklahoma's blind senator. R. F. Pettigrew, former United States senator from South Dakota. George Fred Williams of Massachusetts.

Robert L. Henry, "Bob," the Texas congressman who has become famous for his relentless war upon the money trust. Mr. Frederick Townsend Martin, member of one of the wealthy families of New York, has assured the Lincoln Bryan club that he will be present and speak to the toast "The Idle Rich."

Mr. Bryan will be the last speaker. Others yet to be announced will be on hand and the promise is that those who attend the Bryan Birthday Dinner on March 19, 1912, will be given one of the greatest and most complete treats ever offered in the western country.

A progressive conference will be held on the afternoon of March 19 and at this conference measures will be taken for the further organization of Nebraska democrats.

Everyone is invited to attend the Bryan birthday banquet. Tickets for this dinner will be $1.00 and may be obtained by addressing Fredrick Shepherd, Chairman Banquet Committee, at Lincoln, Neb.

Remember The Tribune's phone is 19. We will appreciate an item any time.

DANBURY.

T. S. Rupp and daughter Herma attended the funeral of Grandma Howell at Culbertson last Thursday. Miss Herma also visited Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cans in McCook.

W. A. Stone has returned to McCook for further treatment—being improved by the treatment already received.

Call at D. Magner's store and get a can of Armour's Prepared Soup.

Wants, for rent, for sale, etc. See a line in The Tribune.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.
