

OUR SPECIAL OFFER

EVERY BOY WANTS A WATCH AND
THE TRIBUNE WILL HELP EVERY BOY TO GET ONE.

THE PLAN IS VERY SIMPLE

See your friends and get them to subscribe for THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE. When you have taken FIVE Yearly Subscriptions send or bring the money to this office and as a premium we will give you A GOOD WATCH. Not a toy, but a good time keeper and one that you will be proud to carry and show your friends. You can win a watch in a day. This is a generous offer and you should take advantage of it. Begin now! See how quickly you can do it!

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE

Neighborhood News

Fort Hazel

Special to The Tribune.

Two of Harland Jones children are quite sick.

Geo. W. Schmidt is on the sick list this week.

A case of measles has been reported at Fort Hazel.

H. W. Schmidt shelled corn Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. Gerathwohl preached at the St. Paul church Sunday.

Jennie Chesly, who has been sick for some time is recovering.

John Kloepfel and wife went to St. Joseph Tuesday for a short visit.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of W. F. Dorste Wednesday night.

A. W. Jones of Auburn visited with friends and relatives at Fort Hazel this week.

Frank Oskey and wife gave a pie social at their home Friday evening. A pleasant time was had by all present.

The farmers of this vicinity are going to organize a Mutual Telephone company. A meeting was held at the Fort Hazel school house last Thursday night. U. T. Duncan was elected president and Eston Jones secretary. Quite a number of signers were secured.

Ohio.

Special to The Tribune.

Frank Shafer shelled corn Monday.

Anson Kinzly visited at E. T. Pecks this week.

Mrs. Alberts visited at Wm. Horstman's Sunday.

Rev. James Strouder visited at Noah Pecks Sunday.

E. T. Peck and wife visited at Andrew Kettlers Sunday.

C. E. Peck and his sister visited at G. W. Pecks Sunday.

Cottage prayer meeting was held at Wm. Bartletts Wednesday night.

One of the telephone men was in this neighborhood mending the phones.

A number of young people enjoyed a social dance at the home of Fred Finks Saturday night.

A number of the farmers of this vicinity went to hear D. Ward King speak on the subject of making good roads.

Barada.

Special to The Tribune.

Mrs. Frank Butler was trading with our merchants Monday.

Mrs. Coon Sailors is seriously ill at her home west of town.

James Stevenson rented the Ira Prosser building and is running a first class confectionery and butcher shop. We wish him success in his new business.

Jim Kyle of Gage county is visiting with his brother Jess and family.

Robert Hoback was visiting his brother at Lincoln a few days last week.

Johny Proser hauled a load of goods from Falls City Friday for Herbert Stokes.

Chas. Shulenberg visited several days of last week with friends at Falls City.

Claude Whitney and wife of Dawson visited with the latters parents east of town Sunday.

Samuel VanOsdell returned home from Falls City Sunday after several weeks stay at that place.

The many friends of Squire Gerdes are glad to see him about again after several weeks illness with la-grip.

Mrs. Lesley Ramsey and children left Saturday for a few weeks visit with friends and relatives at Falls City.

Preston.

Special to The Tribune.

Mrs. R. Morris is seriously ill. Louis Banks went to Napier Monday.

L. D. McCumber went to Rulo Monday.

Garnet Milson drove to Rulo Monday.

Chas. McCumber went to Falls City Saturday.

Mary Watteyne went to Falls

City Saturday, returning Sunday evening.

Ed Pyle was on the sick list last week.

Mrs. Louis Banks went to Falls City Monday.

Geo. Terrell of Falls City was in town Monday.

Prof. Unsell and wife drove to Rulo Saturday.

Mrs Joseph Neitzel is slowly recovering from the measles.

Miss Minnie Wilson took the train for Falls City Monday.

Chas. Sanguinette is a little worse at the present writing.

Tom Cook and Edward Bush are numbered among the sick.

Mrs. W. R. Thompson went to Falls City the first of the week.

John Casey of Falls City was a pleasant caller at our post office Sunday.

James Tangney; Bert Biggs and Frank Meets came up from Rulo Saturday.

Elmer Hoselon left for Imperial Thursday where he expects to spend some time.

F. M. Darrow, the division engineer came down from Hanover, Kansas, Sunday.

Maurice McMahon returned home from Morrill Wednesday where he has been for some time.

The Preston Literary club gave an entertainment Friday evening. The program was a good one. The instrumental duet by Ida Pribbeno and Alma Daeschner was fine.