

Neighborhood News

Williamsville.

Theodore Shutz is on the sick list.

Bonholdt Bros. shelled corn for R. Faller Tuesday.

Mrs. Seimering visited in St. Deroin last week.

Emma Slater spent Sunday with her friend, Hazel Dunn.

G. W. Duerfeldt and F. Butler assisted E. Butler with his butchering last week.

Anna Constantine went to Falls City Monday to spend a few weeks with friends.

Edward and B. C. Duerfeldt assisted I. A. Dunn with his butchering last week.

Mrs. Elliot started for her home in Montana Friday as Grandma Dunn is slowly improving.

G. W. Duerfeldt made a trip to Salem Monday. He drove to Falls City and took the train from there to Salem, returning the next day.

Ohio.

Special to The Tribune.

Mrs. Phineas Fisher is on the sick list.

Frank Lichty shelled corn last Tuesday.

Fred Neman sold a valuable horse last week.

John Brauns moved into their new house last week.

John Burk of Rulo spent Sunday with his son Oscar.

Claude Yocum was visiting in this neighborhood Saturday.

H. J. Prichard delivered his corn to Straussville Tuesday.

Wm. Schultz and wife are visiting at the home of John Dowty.

Services were held at the German church Monday and Tuesday.

Raleigh Franklin and John Neman were in this vicinity Monday.

Geo. Messler and wife of Falls City visited at Fred Nemans last Tuesday.

An entertainment was given at Maple Grove school house Friday evening.

Mrs. Blevens of Oklahoma is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Allie Dowty.

Chester Stump and wife and Henry Fehr and wife spent Friday at Frank Lichty's.

Barada.

Special to The Tribune.

Sadie Thompson visited her parents over Sunday.

Mat Shulenberg returned from a business trip to Bancroft.

It is reported that Sam Spickler has purchased the James Stevenson farm.

Sam Isabelle and Herb Stokes transacted business at Falls City Saturday.

May Kyle returned home Saturday from a few weeks visit at Falls City.

Mr. Baker, Jack and Jess Prosser visited last week with friends in Missouri.

Jess Kyle has rented a farm in Gage county and will remove his family there soon.

John Kelly arrived a few days ago from Bancroft to visit with relatives and friends.

The Dragoos sale was attended by a large crowd and everything brought a good price.

Herman Kelly has accepted a position with J. F. Schnute at Falls City and left for that place last week.

Wm. Eyle and Ed. Spitznagle returned Saturday from a business trip to Bancroft. They are both highly pleased with that country.

Verdon.

Special to The Tribune

Lewis Heineman has the measles.

Owen Clark is quit sick at this writing.

Mrs. Hayden Bowers returned from Falls City Sunday.

Jim Cozard and wife of Stella spent Sunday in Verdon.

John Nulk was down from Stella Sunday visiting friends.

Lettie Weaver visited in the country Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gertie Lum spent the latter part of last week in Falls City.

Heinzelman Bros., loaded a car of flour this week to go to Glasgow, Scotland.

Meta Heineman visited over Sunday with her aunt, Myrtle Bowers in Falls City.

Mrs. L. Yantiss came in from Long Island, Kans., to visit her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. H.J. Kiel went to Kansas City Sunday to purchase her spring stock of millinery goods.

Mrs. Webster came up from Emporia the fore part of the week to look after business interests.

Mrs. Dobber, daughter of Chas. Henderson and wife, came up from Kansas City for a two weeks visit.

John Hasenyager and family returned from an extended visit at Santa Anna, California. They like the country very much.

Ernest and Ol Clark came in from Oklahoma Sunday night in answer to a telegram bearing the news their brother was very sick.

John Goolsby and family of Barada have been here several days this week caring for Mr. Goolsby's father who is still very sick.

COUCHES

From today until March 5th, inclusive, we will sell COUCHES at :: ::

20 PER CENT OFF

A COUCH

The Same as Cut, 8 rows of tufts, 31 inch-

er wide, covered in the best of Velour = = $11.75

All Couches

Are of the best Steel Construction and are guaranteed.

See Our Window Display for Bargains.

A Good Oak Kitchen Cabinet, 28x44. two Bins, holds 50 pounds each, at = = $4.25

Reavis & Abbey

Grandpa Howland was down town Saturday the first time for about two months, having been confined to the house on account of sickness.

Scott Sailor, accompanied by his daughter Grace went to Lincoln Friday, after spending a few days in that city they will make a visit in Hitchcock county.

Chas. Peckham moved down from Stella the first of the week and moved in the Fogle house near the mill. He will work on the section as soon as the weather will permit.

A reception was given to the tenth grade of Verdon high school on Friday evening at the home of Ray Arnold south of town. Prof. Funk and wife numbered among them and a merry time is reported. Light refreshments were served.

Married, at the home of the brides mother, Allen Combs of Salem and Miss Pearl Foutch of Verdon, Rev. Brewer officiating. The ceremony took place on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in the presence of a few intimate friends of the family.

The bride was neatly attired in white while the groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast. Miss Pearl was the accomplished daughter of Mrs. A. B. Foutch who has a host of friends who wish to extend congratulations. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known having lived here a number of years. The happy couple will live on a farm near Salem.

Perfect Confidence

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by A. G. Wanner.