Cut By Wire.

Earl, the ten-year-old-son of W. E. Marts, who lives on the Weller farm a mile south of Stella, met with a severe accident Saturday evening. He ran into a wire fence that they had built that morning and tore the flesh to the bone across one cheek requiring a number of stitches to close the wound. The ragged edge of the barb wire will leave a big scar.

Ice Cream.

We believe that the people demand a better grade of hand made ice cream and a wider variety of kinds and flavor. We have equipped our establishment to meet this demand.—D. W. Sowles.

Memorial Services.

The annual memorial services will be held at the Brethren church on Sunday May 29, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Haskins. An appropriate program is being arranged for Memorial Day, May 30.

David Ransom came down from Shubert on business the first of the week.
