FALLS CITY - NEBRASKA

Editor Bok prints in his Lad Home Journal the pictures of "the most beautiful children in the United States." They number two or three dozen. But Editor Bok always was a fearless man.

It has just become known that a gripman on a San Francisco street car is a descendant of a royal family of Servia. Probably he kept his identity secret for fear he might have to go home and be king.

Principal Tompkins of the Chicago normal school says he doesn't think it necessary that children should be taught to spell unusual words, and he particularly mentions "syzygy." By the way, can you define it?

A farmer of Nevada, Ohio, a dry town, having been arrested the other day for passing around a bottle supposed to contain whisky, made the defense that it really contained hard cider. Speaking of technicalities!

The careful, conservative plodder who makes fifteen or twenty millions in stocks during five or six years always has the utmost contempt for the simpleton who loses his money fooling with a get-rich-quick scheme.

Not only is Senor Candamo president of Peru, but Senor Serapio Calderon, who will do the president's work while he is ill, is vice president. And to think that you never heard before of either of these able statesmen!

Somebody has been looking into Andrew Carnegie's resources and finds that out of his once colossal fortune he has only $385,000,000 left. Still, with this remnant Mr. Carnegie may do a great deal of good if he uses it judiciously.

Lawyer Goodheart of New York, who is applying for alimony and counsel fees in a separation suit, has a reassuring name, but his request for counsel fees shows that, however, philanthropic he may be, he is thinking of his bill.

Scientists say the blow of the whale's tail is the strongest force in the animal world; the kick of the giraffe, the next, and the stroke of the lion's paw, the third. Mr. Sully might add some expert testimony concerning the power of the bear's squeeze.

Russians Kill Russians.

TOKIO.—General Kuroki in reporting a few days ago, says that according to information furnished by a native, a body of Russian infantry 2,000 strong occupying a hill near Ten Shan Hong, on Sunday mistook a detachment of their own infantry about 200 strong, retiring before the Japanese troops, and fought among themselves. In the conflict 110 were killed and seventy wounded, and the Russian carts were stampeded, leaving their loads of stores behind for the enemy.

In the Nation's Strong Box.

WASHINGTON.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the 150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balance, $220,192,322; gold, $112,790,277.

Convention Date Unsatisfactory.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Judge Tuley has issued an injunction restraining the Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters from holding the biennial convention of the order at Minneapolis May 10.

RUSSIAN LOSSES

OFFICIAL REPORT OF GENERAL KASHTALINSKY RECEIVED.

THE RUSSIANS LOSE 2,000 MEN

The News Has a Stunning Effect on the Authorities at St. Petersburg—Seven Hundred Wounded and Forty Officers Killed.

ST. PETERSBURG.—The Russian losses at the battle of Kiu Lien Cheng were 2,000 men and forty officers—far greater than previous reports indicated.

This is the official estimate of Major General Kashtalinsky, who directly commanded the division that suffered the brunt of the attack and whose report was received Wednesday by the emperor. Many are inclined to place the Russian losses even higher. General Kashtalinsky mentions also that more than 700 wounded had arrived at Feng Wang Cheng and these may not be included in the casualties. He made no attempt to estimate the Japanese losses, merely stating that they must have been colossal.

The magnitude of the Russian losses had an almost stunning effect on the authorities and aroused general grief, mitigated only by satisfaction at the bravery displayed by the Russian troops.

Not for a moment was there any intention to pay such a terrible price for delaying the enemy's crossing of the Yalu river. This fact was known throughout the city and gave rise to renewed reports, attributed to official sources, that General Kuropatkin had officially censured Lieutenant General Zassalitch. If this was so, General Kuropatkin's telegraphed criticism of Zassalitch was carefully cut out of the dispatches which have been published, and the general impression now held is that he will remain in Manchuria.

General Kashtalinsky's report establishes the fact that the Russians sustained the greatest loss in order to save the two regiments which were occupying Antung.

The Eleventh regiment was given the post of honor at the rear, with instructions to hold back the on-coming Japanese. The Twelfth regiment and the Third battery's quick-firing detachment were directed to retire.

By the time the latter movement commenced the Japanese had almost surrounded the Russian position. The Twelfth regiment was compelled to charge with the bayonet and succeeded in breaking through the enemy's line. The Second battery's quick-firing detachment, without horses, could not move the guns and were compelled to abandon them. The men of the Second battery put their shoulders to the wheels in an effort to push the guns up the mountain side, but the Japanese fire was so hot that they returned to the protection of the Eleventh regiment.

Nearer and nearer approached the Japanese and a charge upon the Eleventh regiment and the Second battery was imminent so he guns were abandoned.

Then a priest led the troops and they began the terrible march across the valley.

Get Ready for the Rush.

BONESTEEL.—The people of this place are making strenuous efforts to be ready for the greater influx of prospective homesteaders July 1, when the Indian Rosebud reservation land is to be thrown open. They have what the Germans would call "earth hunger." Scores of people seeking claims already have set their tents to be in on the ground floor. It is apparent a tremendous number will be here ready to grab onto the 2,600 quarter sections which this tract of excellent land contains. This is splendid soil and a very rapid settlement is anticipated as a result of this opening.

Miss M. Cartledge gives some helpful advice to young girls. Her letter is but one of thousands which prove that nothing is so helpful to young girls who are just arriving at the period of womanhood as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly, for it is the only medicine I ever tried which cured me. I suffered much from my first menstrual period, I felt so weak and dizzy at times I could not pursue my studies with the usual interest. My thoughts became sluggish, I had headaches, backaches and sinking spells, also pains in the back and lower limbs. In fact, I was sick all over.

"Finally, after many other remedies had been tried, we were advised to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am pleased to say that after taking it only two weeks, a wonderful change for the better took place, and in a short time I was in perfect health. I felt buoyant, full of life, and found all work a pastime. I am indeed glad to tell my experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it made a different girl of me. Yours very truly, MISS M. CARTLEDGE, 533 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga."

At such a time, the grandest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the necessary changes, and is the surest and most reliable cure for woman's ills of every nature. Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. Estes, of New York City, says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to you because I believe all young girls ought to know how much good your medicine will do them. I did dress-making for years before I was married, and if it had not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I do not believe I could have stood the strain. There is no other work that is such a strain on the system. Oh, how my back used to ache from the bending over! I would feel as though I would have to scream out from the pain, and the sitting still made me so terribly tired and weak, and my head throbbed like an engine. I never could eat after work, I was so worn out. Then I was irregular, and had such frightful cramps every month they would simply double me up with pain, and I would have to give up working and lie down. But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed me into a strong, well woman. Yours very truly, MRS. MARTHA ESTES, 513 West 125th St., N. Y. City."
