

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by
Our Special Correspondents

Humboldt.

John Hill is in Holdrege this week.

P. O. Avery and wife went to St. Louis this week.

Art Gergens and wife of Auburn spent Sunday with relatives here.

A baby was born to Todd Drake and wife on Monday but it lived only a short time.

Mrs. Caroline White came down from Lincoln Sunday to visit her parents living west of town.

Myrtle Tinker arrived here last week from Bern, Kansas and has taken a position with the local telephone company.

J. F. Walsh was arrested and fined $1 and cost for assault upon Joe Carsh, a lad from the country whom the former accused of unbecoming conduct.

I. L. Sterns and wife and Elsie Davis and Grace Jones departed Sunday morning for St. Louis to spend two or three weeks at the exposition.

All concerned are proud and happy over the arrival of a fine baby boy at the home of Ray Gist and wife on Thursday. Judge Tucker wears the title of Grandpa with becoming dignity.

The young ladies club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Clara Garver and Georgia Gandy at the home of the former. A literary program was given and delicious refreshments served.

Hulda Osterholm arrived in the city Sunday from Essex, Iowa and expects to spend most of the summer here at the home of her sister, in the hope of benefiting her health.

While coming to town with a load of hay one day recently the load was upset and Todd Drake and Will Usher were thrown in the ditch by the roadside. Fortunately both escaped with but a few bruises.

Ernest Shurtleff, a young farmer was kicked in the face by an unruly horse and very badly injured on Monday. Dr. Morris was called and was compelled to take a number of stitches to close the wounds, and at best the patient's face will be badly disfigured.

Marshal Todd took a hand Sunday in a scrap between John Sheidegger and a young traveling agent who is making this territory doing some special work in enlarging pictures. The controversy arose over the return of the original picture used in the work, and in the mixup several blows were struck.

Albert Tanner has the measles. F. W. Samuelson was up from Falls City Sunday.

A baby boy was born last week to Tom Smith and wife.

Wayne Coons and A. D. Sargent have gone to Lincoln to attend summer schools.

Mrs. Decker of the Central hotel is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Mitchum who arrived last week from Kansas City.

Nick Beutler was released for want of evidence at his hearing last week in Table Rock upon the charge of boot-legging.

Ambrose Buerstetta and wife and Otis Unkefer and wife are tenting this week over on South Fork and having a good time generally.

Ed. Hughes was able to get up town Tuesday with the aid of crutches, after being confined to his room for over seven weeks with a broken limb.

Geo. W. Butterfield and sons of this city have recently made a deal for putting in a new elevator at Table Rock, and expects to begin work on the erection of the same in the near future.

Shubert.

Prof. Carr and wife are visiting his mother near Julian.

Frank Mitchell of Bancroft, Neb., is visiting relatives here.

Chas. Smiley and family visited relatives at Nemaha Sunday.

Geo. Randall and wife of Stella visited friends at this place Sunday.

Henry Leslie and Alexander McGeachie visited in Verdon Monday.

Joe Henderson and family visited relatives near Prairie Union Sunday.

The Children's day exercises in the M. E. church were well attended.

Quite a number of our young people attended the ball game at Barada Sunday.

Mrs. G. Goolsbey and children of Verdon are visiting her sister, Mrs. Hardy Hays.

A very interesting program is being prepared for Children's day at the Christian church, which will be held the 19th.

Preston.

H. P. Reiger and family went to St. Joseph Thursday.

Will Pyle left Saturday for Beatrice.

Edgar Thacker, son of Levi, of Los Angeles, Cal., is here on a short visit.

Joe McMahon and Frank Kanaly gave a dance in the old school house in Dist. 98 Thursday night. A large crowd was present. The music was furnished by the Troy orchestra.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE WELL PLEASED

When customers are pleased it is the best advertisement—ask about us and you will find out. Wall Paper is our Specialty. We also carry Paints, Oils, Etc.

White's Wall Paper Store. Falls City, Nebraska

Judge Scott and daughter of Falls City were in town Friday.

Geo. Neitzel and Maurice McMahon went to Reserve Tuesday night.

Gladys Neitzel and Anna Bush went to Rulo Sunday, returning Monday.

W. A. Margrave shipped two carloads of cattle to Kansas City Monday.

Quite a few from here attended the ice-cream social at Reserve Saturday night.

Our school board was kept busy last week. About fifteen teachers were to see them.

Our ball team crossed bats with Padonia Sunday, the game resulting 3 to 4 in favor of the former. Padonia will play here the 26th.

The new post office building is nearly completed. O. H. Bush and Joseph Neitzel are the builders.

Verdon.

Dr. Taylor drove to Salem Thursday.

I. W. Harris of Stella was in town Monday.

Mrs. Zook and Crouch went to Humboldt Tuesday.

Newt Cox of Dawson was on our streets Thursday.

May Johnson came up from Falls City and spent Sunday with her parents.

N. B. Judd of Dawson was in town the first of the week looking after business.

A large number from all over the county attended the meeting of the Richardson County Insurance Co. held here Monday.

Prof. Watson of Salem has been hired as principal of our schools for the ensuing year and Alpha Roberts of Dawson was given the Grammar room.

Ed. Frauenfeldt visited his mother at St. Joseph last week.

L. A. Kinsey and wife were in Stella Sunday the guest of Wm. Stringfield.

Mrs. Taylor Johnson and little grand daughter went to Morrill to visit at the home of John Raebuck.

Mrs. Conover received a telegram Saturday that her daughter, Nellie Weaver reached Caldwell, Idaho in safety.

Lillie V. Walker who has been visiting here the past week left for Kansas City last Tuesday. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Foutch for a few days visit in the city. Lillie V. with her mother will soon return to their home in Caldwell, Idaho.

Jerome Wiltse came down from Humboldt, packed the goods he recently purchased of his brother and shipped them to South Dakota, where he will open a store. Judge Smith of Humboldt will conduct the business for him.

Ohio Precinct.

Floyd Firebaugh of Falls City spent the week with Wm. Hutchison.

Oscar Maddox and family of Falls City visited at Conrad Brecht's Sunday.

A. E. Kinsely drove up from Hamlin, Kan., Sunday and visited with the folks at home.

Mrs. James Gilmore, who has been ill for some time, is reported not much improved.

Wm. Rieshich went to Maryville, Mo. Tuesday to attend a cattle sale on Wednesday.

G. W. Peck and wife spent a few days last week with their daughter, Mrs. C. P. Shaffer.

Mrs. J. W. Maust of Strausville enjoyed a visit from her father, Samuel Smith of Waterloo, Iowa, last week.