It is reported that John Powell saved a man's life on circus day. A disreputable individual approached him with a hard luck story and finished by soliciting a dime. John pulled a dollar out of his pocket and asked, "What would you do if I gave you this?" to which the fellow replied: "I would fall dead." John put the dollar back in his pocket.
 Quite a crowd of trap shooters met in Smith's pasture north of town Friday. Clay Davis and Frank Crabill were the real winners. George Holt, George Dietsch and Pete Frederick may be able to shoot the chutes but they certainly are in need of practice so far as clay pigeons are concerned.
 More cement walks are being laid in Falls City this summer than ever before. Now when we get the streets paved our Hiawatha friends can walk sailor fashion to their hearts content without fear of accidents or injury.

Orators and Entertainers.
 Parties who are thinking of tenting during the Chautauqua can rest assured that on the Auburn grounds from August 13 to 21 there need be no fear of high water or damp and muddy grounds as the City Park is high and dry, and a few hours of sunshine after the heaviest rain thoroughly dries the ground. Tents and cots may be procured in advance by applying to the secretary. The talent that has been engaged for the Auburn Chautauqua is surpassed by none. Roberson, McNutt, May, Fox, Davis, Dooliver and Stone are all men of national reputation as orators and entertainers. The Temple quartette, the Giant quartette and the Chicago lady entertainers are among the best known musical organizations that travel. The management have spared no money in order to obtain the best talent possible. For further information address W. B. Harman, Auburn, Neb.

Less Than Half Fare.
 The Burlington offers another series of low rate excursions to St. Louis and return on Mondays July 11, 18 and 25.
 Tickets at $7.25 for the round trip—considerably less than half rate. Tickets are good in chair cars and coaches.
 Let us send you an illustrated folder or call on our agent for full particulars.
