

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. W. Abbey has been on the sick list.

W. B. Schmucker is ill of malaria fever.

Grant Windle, wife and daughter spent Sunday in Verdon.

Jessie Barry was viewing the Exposition at St. Louis last week.

Harry Burchard is visiting with his parents in this city.

John Moran and daughter Lillian returned Sunday from St. Louis.

Reavis Gist attended the Epworth League assembly in Lincoln.

Mrs. Joseph Varner and daughter Marion are visiting relatives in Kingston, Mo.

John Sheely of Rulo went to Bonesteel Saturday afternoon to file his claim.

Ingram Cain of Stella is enjoying a vacation on account of an injured foot.

Frank Lichty shipped three car load of cattle to Kansas City the first of last week.

A. Earnst, wife and daughter of Seattle, Washington are visiting C. Wiltse and family.

Andrew Cameron and family are spending a month's vacation at St. Anthony, Idaho.

Vernon and Wilbur Story are visiting with their sister Mrs. Ida Green at Onaga, Kansas.

Misses Lillie and Anna Dorington are spending two weeks at the St. Louis exposition.

Ida Linge returned Friday from Colorado Springs where she has been visiting with friends.

Carrie and George Inskeep and Ruby Jones are visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Joy near Reserve.

Arrangements are being made for the building of an Episcopal rectory. It will be located just east of the church.

We have enjoyed Colorado weather all summer. What's the use of going to the expense and trouble of a trip to the mountains when Nebraska is furnishing the right thing in cool breezes and refreshing ozone.

The Richardson County Pioneer society will hold their annual picnic at Verdon, Neb. Aug. 17 and 18. Some of the principal attractions are addresses by Hon. G. W. Berge of Lincoln, Fred G. Hawxby and Rev. Dittenbach of Auburn. Music furnished each day by Harnacks Military band. A good ball game each day.

A Falls City young man was confiding the news of his recent engagement to his mother not long ago. "Remember my son," said the mother, "there are three requisites which a wife should possess. They are economy, prudence and health." We think that is pretty sound doctrine.

Joe McMahon, while working at his home four miles southeast of Falls City fell from a load of hay onto a pitchfork Saturday forenoon. The prongs which were slightly rusty ran in just above the ankle. He was brought to town where the injured member was dressed by Dr. Houston.

Owing to the presence of Mrs. Effie M. Lambert in Falls City; Rev. Pugeon did not conduct services in the Christian church Sunday night. Mrs. Lambert is a lecturer for the W.C.T.U., from Seneca Castle, N. Y., and on Sunday evening she delivered an address under the auspice of the local W.C.T.U., in the Christian church. Long before the hour for services the house was filled, and at the appointed hour, Mrs. Lambert, in her own peculiarly attractive way addressed the large audience on the following subject: "What Hath God Wrought?" Next Sunday evening—"Capital and Labor—The Path of Sorrow." Other services as usual.—Ferd. Pugeon, Pastor.

The Christ Who Loves Us All.

There is a Christ who loves us all,
And on whose loving breast;
We may recline our weary heads,
For he will give us rest.
He helps us fight our battles
'Gainst the falsities of men,
He helps us cross death's sullen stream
And gives us glory then.

He's not like men, so false, untrue,
He hastily judges not;
He is not cruel, base nor harsh;
Our weakness ne'er forgot.
For He's the One who pities us,
And from us ne'er departs;
He pours the healing of His wings,
Upon our wounded hearts.

He wipes the falling tears away,
When coursing down our cheek;
He heals our hearts when nearly broke
He strengthens us when weak.
He cheers our hearts when dark the sky
Looms up before our gaze;
He gives us sunshine after gloom,
He guides us o'er our ways.

He gives us grace for every trial,
And shows us how to live;
He sendeth far beyond request,
For He knows how to give.
He teaches us the spotless way
The way of love and peace and joy;
His own sweet way our pattern is,
When things of earth our souls annoy.

He is the only one who helps,
When we lay loved ones in the grave;
(For He rose victor over all)
He came, from sin and death to save.
Thou blessed Saviour, Friend of friends
Preserve us from all sin and harm:
Take this poor dust thy mercy warms,
And keep it 'neath Thy mighty arm.
—Pugeon,

The Auburn Chautauqua begins on next Saturday, Aug. 13 and the program is full of interest every day. Dr. Ross lectures on Saturday afternoon. The Chicago Lady Entertainers with the Edison Projectoscope, conducted by D. W. Robertson, that gave such universal satisfaction wherever shown, will appear Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday evenings, Hiawatha being shown on Saturday evening. Rev. Harvey H. Harmon, the conductor preaches Sunday morning and Rev. Eugene May, of Washington in the afternoon. Monday evening Frank Robertson gives his illustrated lecture on Russia and on Japan on Tuesday evening.

Thursday the political giants, Dolliver and Stone, will discuss politics from their respective standpoints. Friday, Saturday and Sunday Rev. Geo. L. McNutt the "Dinner Pail Man" will lecture and preach, as will also Prof. Ash Davis, the Cartoonist.

The children have an interesting program during the week.

On Monday evening all the editors and their wives or sweethearts present will be banquetted at the Byers Hotel by the Commercial Club of the city.

Tents and cots may be secured in advance by applying to W. B. Harman, Secy., Auburn, Nebraska.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured
by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by A. G. Wanner.
