Last Saturday was a busy day locally. The most arduous labor of the farmer is done for the year and he can now look forward to an occasional day in town. Soon the corn will be in the shock and the pumpkins ripe upon the vines. The leaves will have reached their days of the sere and yellow, winter will blow out of the north and the year of our Lord 1904 will have slipped by us into the past. Thus leisurely we grow old.

Mr. Al Roberts will establish a racket store in the Schmucker building now occupied by Tailor Wilson. Mr. Roberts recently came to Falls City from Oklahoma where he carried on a prosperous business. He expects to reside here permanently. Falls City gladly welcomes all such young men of industry and moral worth.

To Everywhere And Back.

The Burlington offers excursion rates in every direction—so low that there is no excuse for staying at home. Below are some of them.

St. Louis and back: Three kinds of daily rates besides the special low rate coach excursions on each Tuesday and Thursday during August and September.

Chicago and back: Daily low rates either direct or via St. Louis, with stopovers at St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha.

Louisville, Ky., and back, $20.40, August 12 to 15.

Boston and back—the only chance of the season for a low rate visit to New England, $31.40, August 11 to 13—long limit.

World's Fair stopovers at St. Louis on through tickets.

Colorado, Utah and Black Hills resorts—there and back practically half rates all summer.

To California—San Francisco and Los Angeles and back, August 15 to September 10, only $45. The only chance in 1904 to get this low rate.

Portland, Puget Sound and back, August 15 to 18, one fare for the round trip.

To Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Great Lake region, the ideal summer country—daily low rates to take you away from home.

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month very low round trip rates to hundreds of points in the Northwest, west and Southwest.

Write or call, describe your trip; let me advise you the least cost.
