

SILK, SATIN, VELVET

The continued extensive use of Silks is one of the most convincing proofs of the prosperous condition and improved taste of our people. The strong tendency this season is toward plain and changeables and to meet this we offer an assortment far in excess of any former season. Our values in Silks have been carefully scrutinized and are recommended as worthy your fullest confidence. In 27 and 36 inch widths we are showing Black Peau de Soie, Taffeta and Jap Silks at $1 to $1.75. Our 36 inch Changeable Taffeta has attracted unusual attention and is guaranteed to wear satisfactorily. For Suits, Waists and Petticoats our Changeable Messalines are new and especially adapted. We show in 19 inch Taffeta of high grade, 40 shades enabling us to match almost any fabric.

SATINS

Skinner's 36 inch Warranted Satin in all the shades so desirable, absolutely warranted for two seasons' wear. In this connection we desire to call to your notice our Mercerized Satin. The quality is unequalled, having all the lustre and sheen of Silk, with the soft, velvety touch of Satin. In all shades,

Sunday morning it was cloudy and the roads were a little muddy but as that was the day set apart for the unveiling of the monuments of Thos. Gibson at the Verdon cemetery. At ten o'clock a. m. a large crowd formed in line of march headed by the drill team of the W. O. W. lodge of Falls City and next in line was the Reserve band then the members of the Verdon lodge, also a large number of neighbors and friends of the deceased. The lodge conducted the services assisted by the drill team, band and chorus class. A very impressive address was delivered by Rev. Schleh of Omaha. At 2:30 p. m. the procession formed on Main street in the same order and then marched to Cornell cemetery two miles west of town to unveil W. W. H. Cornells monument.

The possession was much longer in the afternoon as Salem, Dawson, Humboldt, Stella, Shubert and Barada were represented. The Falls City lodge is to be congratulated on having so good a drill team, as the work they put on was appreciated by all.
