

DEATH RECORD

Cornelia Thomas Hall.

The funeral of Mrs. John Hall whose death was reported in these columns last week was held from the Episcopal church in this city on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Hall was the second daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. E. W. Thomas and was born in Brownville, Nebraska in the year 1870, where she lived with her parents until their removal to Falls City in the year 1877. She was educated in Brownell Hall, Omaha, Neb., and at the Cook County normal at Englewood, Ill. She taught school at LaGrange, Ill., for several years, going from there to Cleveland, Ohio where she taught in the public schools. Thence she went to Buffalo, N. Y. where she had charge of the kindergarten department of a fashionable young ladies seminary. While in the last named city she met Dr. John Hall to whom she was married in Falls City in the year 1898. With her husband she lived in Greely Col., for two years after which time Dr. Hall accepted a position as member of the faculty of Columbia university in New York City, at this place Mrs. Hall died. The immediate cause of her death was an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Hall, or Cornelia as her many friends love to remember her was one of the most cultured and lovable ladies that Falls City has ever claimed. Her death was a great shock to the entire community.

The Tribune extends to the husband, mother, brothers and sisters the sincere sympathy of all our people in this their hour of grief and desolation.

W. C. O'Malley.

At his home in Lincoln last Thursday W. C. O'Malley died after an illness of more than a year. Mr. O'Malley has been visiting in this city in the interest of the Insurance Company which he represented for so many years that he has always seemed like a resident. About two years ago he was taken ill with a kidney trouble from which he never entirely recovered. When he was last in Falls City he was a mere shadow of his former self and it was apparent to his many friends that his demise would not be long delayed.

By his genial personality he had made and held many friends who will regret to learn of his death. During his long illness he continued cheerful and hopeful, maintaining a determined fight against the grim destroyer, and when the end came he died as he lived—like a man.

Since Her Old Sweetheart Came Back.

You'd look jest ez blue ez I do,
If you'd got it same ez me;
For I'm in the durndest pickle
That eny man could be.
Got a gal I think a heap of;
Yes, I love her that's a fac'—
But I'm discombobulated since
Her ole sweetheart kem back.

He's been here jest erbout a month,
Drest up in new store clothes;
An' he's always out a walkin' with her
Everywhere she goes:
I aint egzakly jelus, but
I'll tell you what's a fac'—
Things are lookin' mighty gloomy
Since her ole sweetheart kem back.

This here playin' second fiddle
Aint what it's sed to be;
At least I know jest bloomin' well,
It isn't suitin' me.

I don't know what she's done to me,
Aint egzakly got the sack;
But I havn't got a stand in,
Since her ole sweetheart kem back.

Rev. Pougion.
