Richardson County Teacher's As sociation

The regular fall meeting of Cast the Richardson County Teacher's Association was held in Falls City, Friday evening and Saturday Nov., 10 and 11,

Friday afternoon the Dawson High School Basket Ball Teams played the Falls City High School Basket Ball Teams, A good crowd witnessed the game, The Dawson High School Teams For Sum won.

The evening program was held in the Methodist Church, The room was fairly well filled with appreciative listeners. The organ solo by Miss Etta Reichers, and the Falls City High School chorus were both well received. Dr. Ross of the State University lectured on the subject, "The Near Future of American Society," It was a strong, interesting and instructive, talk, The audience was the professors class. Dr. Ross did not attempt to entertain or make fun in any way. His lecture was a thinking and reasoning exercise in which the whole audience took part,

Some one handed Dr. Ross the following question and ask his answer, as a sociologist;

"Bill and Jim are school boy chums. Bill threw a snowball through the school house window. No one except Jim saw him do it. The next morning the teacher asked who threw the snow ball. No one answered, After waiting two days. Jim Fordust tells on Bill, Resolved: that Jim did right," Dr. Ross' auswer is that Jim did do right.

The Saturday sessions were Una Suldow held in the Central school build -In: Beck ing. The program as announc-Eva D. Scott Flove Grinstead was carried out. The interest Bea Riles was good and nearly every John Roberts Alice Stephenson teacher was present to take the
