Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1907.

Whole No. 179

Married.

DAVIS-BRECHT.

One of the prettiest home weddings that has occurred recently was that of Tuesday night of this week, on June 25, 1907 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Brecht where their second daughter, Elizabeth Margaret, was married to Charles Clay Davis in the presence of only near relatives and a few close friends.

Miss Brecht and Mr. Davis assisted in receiving the guests and at 8:30 o'clock took their places in a bower of simlax and white roses where the impressive marriage service, using the ring, was read by Rev. W. T. Cline Ph. D. of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Miss Maude Davis, a sister of the groom played softly during the ceremony, Green's "Till we Meet Again."

The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white Parisian chiffon over silk, elaborately trimmed with Mechlin lace. Her shower bouquet of bride roses reached to the bottom of her gown. The groom wore the usual black evening dress.

After congratulations were extended an excellent three course supper was served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated in pink and white.

Mrs. Clyde Davis served punch during the evening in the back parlor where white and green were used in the decorations, potted plants and palms being used in profusion.

During the evening Mrs. John Tipton of Albany, Mo., a cousin of the groom, sang several very pleasing selections.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis are so well known to our people we can say little to commend them further.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of the city high school and also of the State Normal. She was one of the successful teachers in the Central school for three years. She is a young lady of very pleasing address, refined intelligence, and holds a high place in the esteem of hosts of friends for her pleasing personality and admirable womanly characteristics.

Charlie Davis, like his wife was born and brought up here and enjoys the respects and esteem of the business and social world for his many good qualities, his integrity and uprightness in business, his genial agreeable manner to all he meets. He is the junior member of Davis & Davis of the Falls City News and his originality and adaptability are recognized by all the readers of The News.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and choice gifts, tokens of the good wishes and esteem of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left Tuesday night for Denver and Salt Lake City and after a month's trip will go to housekeeping in this city in a house already furnished for them. They have the congratulations and best wishes of hosts of friends for all the joys and pleasures of this life and in the language of the News, "May they found a tribe."

HECK-JONES.

Clarence Heck of this city and Miss Mae Jones of St. Joseph were married Friday June 21st in St. Joseph.

Both bride and groom are known to a large circle of friends here, Miss Jones having lived here at one time and who is known to many friends who admire her for her pleasing ways and agreeable manner. The groom is associated with his father, O. P. Heck in the feed and fuel business and is an enterprising, industrious young man.

Mr. Heck returned Saturday though his wife did not accompany him and for a while he was inclined to keep the matter to himself. The marriage probably first became known through the St. Joseph papers. Mrs. Heck came to this city Monday night and for the present the young people will remain at the home of the groom's parents.

The Tribune extends congratulations and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Heck long lives of happiness and prosperity.

C. T. LIPPOLD,

Street Commissioner.

Dedication Services.

Emmanuel church of the Evangelical association will be dedicated next Sunday June 30th. On Saturday evening there will be a song service and an address by Bishop Thomas Bowman. The morning services at which time the dedication sermons will be preached will be in German while in the afternoon when the dedication services are held the Bishop will conduct all the service in English. Bishop Bowman is a fine orator and a wonderfully capable man and his sermons will be well worth hearing. Rev. John Naninga and Rev. Manshardt, the resident pastor, will assist the Bishop. Special music has been prepared. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The improvements continue at the National hotel. New steps have been built to the west porch which has been extended and treated to new paint.

His Deeds Live After Him.

The many friends of Hon. Julius Smith will be shocked to learn of his death which occurred suddenly last Thursday evening. For some time Mr. Smith has been troubled with his heart, and only last week while attending court in Falls City he suffered a fainting spell that worried his friends greatly. However, he had recovered from that and was feeling unusually well up until supper time of the day of his death. After supper he arranged the work for the next week and conversed quite cheerfully with his family. He left the house and walked about the yard to his bee hives to attend to a little work in that connection, but being absent sometime his family went to look for him finding him lying near a hive dead.

Julius Smith was born in Germany March 5th, 1837. At the age of fourteen years he emigrated to America, making the journey across the ocean in a sailing vessel, landing in New Orleans. In the spring of 1852, he started northward in search of relatives who had preceded him to America, and after much difficulty he located them in St. Joseph, Mo., where he commenced working on a farm. Availing himself of whatever advantage the winter schools afforded him he worked and studied until 1856, at which time he came to Richardson County and has lived with us ever since.

In 1862 he married Rosalie Schmitt, of Brown County, Kansas, who with eight children survive him.

Mr. Smith has always taken an advanced position in public affairs and was elected to the legislature from this county in 1896, serving with ability and faithfulness to his people.

It is difficult to speak of such a man as he analytically. He has been one of us so long, having lived on his farm of 320 acres for the past thirty-eight years, we are intimately acquainted with his life and good qualities that a plain recital of his life's history seems fulsome praise. It may all be summed up in the statement that he was a good citizen; in every avenue of his life he was that. No more beautiful home life has been lived anywhere than that found in his home. Kind, considerate, just always and at the same time charitable and generous. We could ill afford to lose him. The heritage he bequeathed his children, not that of great riches but rather a good name, pleasant memories of a good father will do much towards alleviating the grief of those who are now bowed in sorrow.

Besides the widow Mr. Smith leaves the following children: Mrs. Dan Keller, Mrs. C. Williamson, Mrs. Lambert Whitney, Mrs. George Cade, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mable Smith, and Isaac Smith, as well as two brothers Hon. Chas. Smith, Peter Smith, and one sister Mrs. Chas. Poor. To these the Tribune extends its heartfelt sympathy.

A large concourse of friends attended his funeral Sunday, from the Gospel Union church of Salem.

Society News.

The dancing party given by Dr. and Mrs. Miner at Wahl's hall Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rathburn of Columbus, was a most enjoyable occasion. Harnack's orchestra furnished the music which was all that could be desired. Ruth Heacock and Mrs. Himmelreich assisted Mrs. Miner in receiving and in serving delightful refreshments. The hall was beautifully decorated with carnations and ferns. Altogether it was one of the most distinctive parties of the season and a source of delight to the guests.

Mrs. Henry Meyers entertained St. Martha's Guild at her home North of town on Monday night of this week. Contrary to the usual custom refreshments were served by Mrs. Meyers and her daughters. Though the evening was an enjoyable one the pleasure was somewhat marred by the storm which came up and necessitated the early return of the party to town.

Miss Rill Houston entertained last Friday afternoon with a Kensington in honor of her friend, Miss Florence Corruthers of Hiawatha. Eighteen young ladies were present and aside from the needle work in evidence some entertaining games had been prepared. Music was furnished by several of those present during the afternoon.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Houston and Miss Rill. The afternoon was in every way most enjoyable. Beside Miss Corruthers other out of town guests were Miss Crum, Montpelier, Ind., and Miss Davies, Tecumseh, Nebraska.

W. H. Maddox and wife entertained twenty guests at dinner last Saturday complimentary to Mrs. Crum and daughter, Montpelier, Ind., and Mrs. Dietsch and daughter of Hastings. An excellent three course dinner was served which was done ample justice by all present. The guests appreciate the cordial hospitality extends and report a delightful visit.

Mrs. Frank Landis entertained with whist on Tuesday evening complimentary to her sister, Miss Ray Miller of Nebraska City. Sixteen ladies were present and all enjoyed the evening immensely. Beside playing whist, considerable amusement was furnished by telling the fortunes of some of the guests. Very dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Morton, Miss Crum of Montpelier, Ind., was an out of town guest present.

Mr. Will Mosiman living two and a half miles east of town, planned and executed a very clever surprise upon his wife last Saturday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. About forty-five guests assembled and all kind of games and outdoor sports were participated in until a very late hour. Excellent refreshments were served during the evening. All those present report a splendid time.

Mrs. Will Uhlig gave a Kensington on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Harry Morrow of Hutchinson, Kans. About twenty-five ladies were present. The delightful weather added to the general good spirits of the guests and the afternoon proved in every way an enjoyable one. Excellent refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mrs. Allen May of Salem was down to attend the party.

Master Lloyd Wahl has sent out invitations to a number of his little friends inviting them to help him celebrate his sixth birthday anniversary, Monday July 1st from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Henry Meyers entertained a large dinner party Thursday at her home one mile north of town in honor of Mrs. Crum and daughter, of Indiana, and Mrs. Dietsch and daughter, of Hastings. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests and an excellent dinner served. Music and games were provided for the entertainment of the visitors and no trouble was spared that would contribute to the pleasure and enjoyment of those present.

Kicked by a Horse.

Austin Grush living between here and Salem was kicked by a horse last Friday and his left arm was badly fractured just below the elbow. Dr. Boose was called to attend him and though the arm was in very bad condition, it is now believe he will recover without any permanent injury to the member.

Masonic Installation.

The Masonic lodge installed on Monday evening officers for the coming year: R. P. Roberts, worshipful master; G. H. Fallstead, senior warden and S. H. Bayne, junior warden.

On Tuesday at a special meeting the mysteries of the third degree were conferred upon A. N. Cook after which light refreshments were served. The meetings were well attended and all report a good time.

Decorations Stolen.

After Wahl's hall had been decorated last Friday for the party given by Dr. and Mrs. Miner, and the ladies had gone to supper, some one entered and took all the immense quantity of cut flowers that filled the baskets and vases and the cards that had been left on the card tables. As soon as discovered as many flowers as could be secured were ordered from the greenhouse. There is no clue as to who the pilferers were.
