

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1907.

Whole No 194

Society News.

Mrs. John Holt entertained a few friends in honor of her guest Mrs. Able of Sterling Thursday afternoon Oct. 3rd.

The afternoon was spent in a very enjoyable social manner and an elegant two course luncheon was served at its close. Those present were Mesdams Able, Hill, May, Barrett, Metz, Jennings, Abbey, Ewalt, Bohrer, Maddox, Holt and Miss Gillespie.

Misses Maud Graham and Nell Snyder entertained the members of the Kaffe Klatch club at the home of Miss Graham on Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time is reported by all.

The State Federation of Woman's clubs was in session in Hastings this week, convening on Tuesday and closing Thursday. The various clubs of this city were represented as follows: The Shakespear club by Mrs. T. J. Gist, Sorosis by Mrs. Charlie Banks and Mrs. M. Giannini, while Miss Lillian Banks was sent as a representative of both the Friends in Council and the Woman's club. That the different societies were well represented goes without saying, and the members may expect some very interesting reports at their next meetings.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Jaquet, Wednesday, October 16.

The Friends in Council were very pleasantly entertained at the home of the Misses Cleaver, east of town, last Friday evening. Roll call was responded to by favorite plots from Scott's works, followed by selections from the "Lay of the Last Minstrel" by Miss McDonald. Miss Lum of Verdon, gave an interesting review of "The Talisman." Aside from the regular program, the guests were favored with a number of instrumental selections by the Misses Cleaver, Miss Cade and Miss Banks, while Miss Helen Martin rendered a vocal solo. A watermelon feast was a fitting finale to a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Harry Pence was hostess to the Married Ladies' Kensington club yesterday afternoon. The usual routine of needle work and social intercourse was the program, with dainty refreshments at the close.

Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Maud Davies as hostess. Mrs. W. W. Jenne read an exceptionally fine paper on "Forestry of the Northeast," which showed that she had devoted much time and thought in its preparation. Mrs. P. S. Heacock read a short paper on Thomas B. Aldrich, his rank as a native poet. Mrs. Morris read a few extracts from Forest Reserves, or National Forests.

During the social half hour, elegant refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. J. Morris, October 23rd.

The chicken pie supper at the home of Judge Withite, Wednesday evening, given by the ladies of the Episcopal church, was a decided success, there being a big crowd and plenty to eat. The ladies realized $19 by their efforts.

The Shakespeare club will meet with Mrs. Lyford Friday, Oct. 18. It is earnestly requested that all members be present as the ladies wish to decide upon the play to be taken up for the winter.

A Love Feast.

How well pleased all will be to know that the Reavis-Martin feud is at last settled. It is hard to believe but we know it to be the truth, as Judge Isham Reavis and family and Hon. Francis Martin and family were seen dining together at the same table, the family table, at the National Hotel last Sunday, and from the animated conversation and their illuminated countenances, everyone was convinced that peace had been restored. It is rumored that J. H. Miles had tipped the waiter with a dollar to bring about this state of affairs though we can hardly believe that, but however, the tragedy is over, the curtains drawn, and they "will live happy ever after." Surely the "lion and the lamb shall lie down together." We wonder, is the lamb on the inside?

The Count Goes On.

Another of young Martin's records has been counted and again he has made an estimate, and again is the mistake (?) in his favor. In the case of Shrimpton vs Gist the reformer represented that he had copied 83,000 words and received payment for that number. The record contains but 72,453 words. So far but four of these records have been counted and the record to date is as follows:

Words in Record	Words paid for
Witsie case 95,952	145,000
Miles case 25,167	32,000
Breniger 16,120	36,000
Gist case 72,453	83,000

Making an overcharge of 76,308 words.

More confidence would be had for the young man if in his estimates he had ever made a mistake against himself.

If a man would sell you a load of corn, charging you for fifty bushels when it contained but thirty, what would you call the fellow who sold it?

Won Medal.

The Richardson county convention of the W. C. T. U. convened in Dawson last Wednesday and conducted a very interesting meeting.

A special feature of the evening session was an oratorical contest between six contestants, among the number being Louise Rule of this city, who won first place, the prize being a beautiful silver medal. This entitles her to the privilege of competing for the gold medal in the state contest. This is the first attempt made by Louise, and she should feel proud, as all her friends do, of her success.

Concert A Success.

The concert given at the German hall last Monday evening, by the blind born brother and sister, Louis and Barbara Tremmel, proved very enjoyable to the large crowd present. The flute and zither music was especially fine, and proved them masters of these instruments.

After the concert a general good time was the order and when all left for their homes it was with the feeling that they had spent a very pleasant evening.

Glad They Are Alive

D. W. Reid and wife of this city were passengers on the M. P. train from Omaha, which was wrecked near Union last Thursday. While they were not injured, aside from a good shaking up, they have not yet recovered from their fright. After viewing the wreck they came to the conclusion that this is a pretty good old world after all, and are mighty glad they are alive.

Grandma Dunn Injured.

Word was received this week that Grandma Dunn of Barada, had been quite seriously injured. Last Sunday she was visiting at the home of her son, Ira Dunn, and in attempting to descend the porch steps, slipped and fell in such a manner as to break her leg.

At last report she was getting along nicely, but owing to her extreme old age it is feared it will be a long time before she fully recovers.

Poland-China Hog Sale.

The Tribune this week, turned out a neat catalogue advertising a public sale of Poland-China hogs in this city Saturday, Oct. 19, 1907, at Chapman's sale pavilion, by Messrs H. C. Wittrock, H. E. Wyatt and W. F. Rieschick. These gentlemen have some of the finest hogs to offer that can be found anywhere. Their herds are headed by such stock as First Quality No. 29251, and Grand Chief, Jr., No. 42039, and many others equally as good, whose breeding qualities entitle them to stand in the front ranks of Poland Chinas.

Anyone desiring stock of this kind will miss the opportunity of their lives if they fail to patronize this sale.

Travel Talks.

Since Wednesday evening Elder W. R. Miller of Chicago has been at the German Baptist church giving interesting Bible talks. Beginning next Monday evening he will give six Travel Talks illustrated with the best stereoscopic slides. Rev. Miller has traveled 47000 miles the past year. He has also visited Babylon, where he secured a brick from the ruins of Nebuchadnezzar's palace, bearing his inscription, which will be displayed by him at the church some evening. Elder Miller is a man of rare ability, and our people should take advantage of this opportunity of hearing him.

Everybody welcome. Church located 5 1/2 miles north of Falls City and 6 1/2 miles south of Barada. Doors open at 7:30.

Their load took first prize in the car lot exhibits of Shorthorns and then was selected as the grand champion load of all classes. The lovers of Basket ball will have an opportunity next Saturday afternoon to see a double header on the High school grounds, when the Auburn High School boy's team vs. the local High school boys team, and the Auburn girls team and the Falls City girls team will battle for supremacy. It promises to be an interesting contest. Turn out and encourage the young people. The game will be called at 3 p. m.

This is the first visit Art has made to his old home for twenty years, and while he found many changes, and many of his old friends gone, still he enjoyed every minute of his stay, and says he will not let another twenty years pass before he comes again. Art is now located in Chicago.

Humane Officer Hershey, through whose efforts these children are provided for, informs us that there are other children at the orphanage desiring good homes.

Farewell Sermon.

That Rev. Cline is leaving many warm friends in Falls City was evidenced by the crowd that filled the M. E. church Sunday to listen to the farewell sermon of this able man. It was a scholarly address, but through it all was a vein of sadness caused by the thought of the separation to come.

It is seldom one finds a minister so universally liked, both in and out of his church, and all regret to see him go, yet the good that he has done in our midst will remain as a monument to his memory. Good luck go with him.

To the Public.

In leaving Falls City for my new field of labor, permit me to express my thanks to the people of this city for their kindness and co-operation in my work.

I desire further to commend my successor, Rev. C. A. Mastin, D. D., to this community as a christian minister of high standing and a good preacher of the gospel of Christ.

Also to personally thank the Tribune for courtesies extended during the past three years.

W. T. CLINE.
