CITY BREVITIES.

—Mrs. George Hornby is numbered among the sick.

—C. C. Tacket was over from the Agency Tuesday.

—Skating is the leading amusement these days.

—Read notice of excursion rates agreeable after the railroad.

—D. E. Sherman is again on duty after a spell of sickness.

—The Board of County Commissioners meet next Monday.

—This pleasant weather is very agreeable after the long cold spell.

—Buy your Christmas presents at the M. E. fair December 20 and 21.

—Pork-eaters are usually scrofulous and need Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse the blood.

—E. Dobson of Merriman, was a witness in a land case at the land office yesterday.

—A large crowd of townsmen spent Sunday afternoon in a grand old fashion rabbit hunt.

—Sergt. Wenlock of Fort Niobrara, was a very agreeable business caller at this sanctum Frid y.

—L. L. Eivens is clerking in Davenport & Thacher's store during the absence of L. C. Sparks.

—We acknowledge a very pleasant visit Monday from Messrs Crouse and Harris of Fort Niobrara.

—N. S. Rowley and B. F. Felch of Simeon, were business visitors to this city the fore part of the week.

—"Cured my cough like magic" is the frequent expression of those who testify to the merits of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

—Attorney P. H. O'Rourke of Gordon, conducted a contest cast before the land office officials here Tuesday and Wednesday.

—If you are in arrears on your subscription call and settle the same. Let us begin the new year with a square account.

—Mrs. Morris departed Saturday morning for Sioux City, Ia., where she will meet her husband and they will take up their residence in that city.

—An enjoyable time was had by a select company of young people at the residence of Rev. O. L. Ramsey Friday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

—Mrs. G. P. Crabb wife of County Treasurer Crabb, departed Sunday morning for Maryville, Mo., to visit at her parental home, where she will be joined by her husband about January 1st.

—Services in the M. E. Church next, as usual, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all services. REV. O. L. RAMSEY, Pastor.

—Joe McCloud was an agreeable caller at our office Saturday. He informs us that the ball to be given at Schlagle school house will be on Friday night December 20 and not on Monday night the 16th, as announced by this paper last week.

—R. B. Good of Lincoln, stopped in Valentine over Tuesday. Mr. G. is a newspaper man and favored this office with a friendly call. He is in search of a location for a democratic paper and has Valentine in view.

—A good agricultural paper helps make the farm pay. For this reason we have arranged to get you a year's subscription to the best Western agricultural paper, The Cultivator for a mere trifle. We will send The Cultivator a full year with the INDEPENDENT for $1.25.

—The dedication of the Presbyterian Church to the service of God took place last Sunday. Appropriate singing etc., had been arranged and on Sunday the Church had been prepared by extra seating for a large attendance. Rev. O. L. Ramsey was invited to come with his congregation and take part in the services, which he did. Also Rev. S. W. Holsclaw assisted. An able sermon was preached by Rev. Sexton D. D. of Seward, Neb., after which he dedicated the church building in accordance with the form of service prescribed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. Although the church building at this place is not large, it is a neat, comfortable structure, and the construction of such a building by the small membership merits much credit to the members. The christian work is advancing rapidly in Valentine, and we now have four beautiful structures which are dedicated to the Lord for carrying on his work.

—Wanted at the City Hotel a good girl.

—Edwin George came in from Arabia Saturday on business.

—L. C. Sparks enjoyed Omaha life the fore part of the week.

—Amos Randall of Rosebud, tarried in town a few days last week.

—John Stetter returned Saturday morning from an extended visit to friends at Chadron.

—J. A. Anderson of Rosebud, visited this city in a business way Friday and Saturday of last week.

Chinese Sacred, Lilies, Hyacinths, Tulips and other Bulbs at Lewis' Drug Store.

—See ad for Vox Populi in another column. The INDEPENDENT together with that paper for one year at $1.50.

—E. L. Davis of Kewanee, was a pleasant caller at our office, and made everybody happy by applying cash on subscription.

—I. N. Russel of Kennedy, accompanied by his daughter, spent a few days visiting in this city the latter part of last week.

—James Judson of Sparks, was a welcome caller at these headquarters Friday evening, and deposited cash for subscription.

—Oyster supper will be given in connection with the bazaar on December 20th, at Cornell Hall. Come and bring your best girl.

—J. A. Carroll and family of Burnwick, Ga., arrived here Tuesday evening. Mr. Carroll is successor to Col. J. T. Oglesby as receiving and shipping Indian Agent here. The office is being turned over to Mr. C. today.

—A flag-staff from which to float the American stars and stripes was raised in this city last Saturday by the G. A. R. Post. This makes a grand improvement in the appearance of our city. The erection of such a token of liberty is creditable to any town.

Teeth filled with wood Teeth filled with hay.
For the next sixty days good wood and hay will be taken at the highest market price in exchange for dental work.
DR. C. A. WELLS,
Office over T. C. Hornby's store.

—Arrangements have been perfected for a Christmas entertainment at the Presbyterian Church Christmas eve. A short program has been arranged and the room will be decorated with two beautiful Christmas trees, one for the Sunday School children and one for the public in general.

—It is money in a farmers pocket to study western farm methods. Read The Cultivator, the best western farm paper. We get it for you a year for nearly nothing, if you subscribe for the INDEPENDENT. Both papers one year for $1.25. Apply at this office.

—Walter Jackson and Joseph Yeast returned Friday morning from a pleasure trip through many of the southern states extending over several weeks. They spent three weeks at the Cotton Exhibition at Atlanta, Ga., and visited all the principle cities and pleasure resorts in the south. They say a more enjoyable trip could not be wished for.

—An accident befell F. K. Bivens, who was superintending the raising of the G. A. R. flag-staff, Saturday, which would, by a slight change of circumstances, have proven fatal. Two heavy timbers had been raised and were supported by ropes which some by-stander interfered with, and let the timbers fall striking Mr. B. and bruising him quite badly. He is able to be out, however, and is improving rapidly.

Cody.

A. D. Cole has shipped in a supply of lumber from the Black Hills. Station Agent Lichty and Elmer Holiday made a flying trip to Valentine last Saturday.
The principal thing that breaks the monotony of the dull times, here, is the echoing ring of the hammers welded by the Modern Woodmen, who are proving themselves woodmen indeed. They are erecting a fine lodge building 18x32 feet, and expect to give a grand ball on Christmas eve. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to

"trip the light fantastic." The best music will be provided, also a good supper at the Holiday House. Come everybody and have a good time. L.

Notice.

SEE HIM "SWAT 'EM" BOTH.

There is no hope of relief from the conditions that now curse the American people, until both of the old parties have been destroyed. They are the willing and subservient tools of corporate power, and are utterly unable to perform a single noble and patriotic act. This is the sentiment that is breathed forth by every line and picture in VOX POPULI, the illustrated Populist paper that is now producing such a political sensation throughout the United States, and from the columns of which the above cut is taken.

VOX POPULI is a 16-page publication, and more than half of each issue is given over to Pictures and Striking Cartoons. The statistical matter of each single number is worth more than the subscription price for an entire year ($1.00). The circulation of VOX POPULI is general throughout the United States. Every leading Populist takes it. In the campaign of 1895-6 it will appeal to the eye and the intellect of more people than any other journal in the nation. Whether poor or well-off, you cannot afford to do without VOX POPULI. Single copies are sold at 10 cents, but any subscriber to the paper in which this advertisement appears, who wishes a sample copy, can get the same by stating that they are subscribers and sending 4 cents in stamps to cover postage, etc., to VOX POPULI, St. Louis, Mo.

VOX POPULI and this paper will be sent at reduced rates upon terms set forth in another column.
