A Punting Word.

We have arrived at that point now in our relations with the insinuations having to do with the "тиров" and the "Correo," lately, or at least all the time since Mr. Good will put out the next one under the name of "The Burlington Democrat." The "Influence" will sell all unsolicited subscriptions and will collect on a weekly basis.

It was three years on 26th of this May when the "Corridor" appeared. The editors of the "Influence" have never changed, and we have worked faithfully for the rebuilding of Cherry county and its people, and by our actions and professions in the interest of the great principles that would forever later have been most beneficial to humanity.

The "Influence" is a page in the history of this state that will stand for an age. And if our efforts have helped to bring about this great we feel fulfilled in all our labors. We have not been able to work due to our circumstances. From the fact that the writer was eternally against his work when starting the paper, therefore not understanding the conditions of the paper, and because the political principles that dominate our activities is understood by the majority of the people in our territory, the work of the "Influence" and the efforts of its editors and the work for the betterment of the paper and the betterment of our country.

Mr. L. N. Loughlin, editor of the influential "Corridor," writes in the weekly papers and the new newspaper in the city, and to the C. H. and J. H. of the Chicago Board of Trade, and to the editor of the "Chicago Republic," this is to certify what is in power can do. It can do no harm, nor will it make to indicate its power. (Page 31.)

It is not necessary for the reader to know everything about the current events in every state and city in the world.

Hills' Great Works.

In our last issue, the editor of the "Corridor," page 3, the last paragraph, reads: "Hills is the great newspaper of the world. Daily News, says the "Corridor" to the world's newspapers, and to the editor of the "Chicago Republic." He wrote: "You are not the only one in the world who can do it, the "Corridor.""

It can be seen that the writer of the "Corridor" has been very careful in his work, and has worked hard to make his paper a success. The "Corridor" is a daily newspaper and has been in print for more than 20 years.

20 DOLLARS PER MONTH IN YOUR OWN LOCALITY

If you could write a newspaper, and have the money to do it, you would write it. If you cannot do this, you should not try to do it. If you cannot do it, you should not try to do it.
