PEOPLE'S PARTY CALL TO VOTERS.

Exhorts Its Members to Rally

to the Support of Bryan and Liberty.

Headquarters National Committee, People's Party.

To the People's Party Voters of the United States:

At the direction of the national committee we send you greeting. We are on the very eve of victory for the principles for which we have so long

No party has ever made such sacrifice or shown such unselfishness as has the People's Party during the past ten years of its existence. That sacrifice and patriotic devotion to principle are now beginning to bear fruit. One more charge and the fight is won. Let us all join together, as we did in 1892 and 1896, for the sake of the people and the love we bear the people's cause. We call upon every Populist in the Union to rally once more under the banner of reform and to assist us in winning this culminating struggle of the century * * *

While Lincoln did not believe in abolition, his election meant the ending of human slavery on this continent. In the same way the election of Bryan means the beginning of a new era in American politics. The future victories for hun anity that will grow out of it no man can foresee.

In the name of humanity and for the cause of liberty, which is as sacred now as it was in any of the glorious struggles of the past, we call upon every Populist to rally to the support of the republic in its hour of peril. This is a struggle between the world old forces of monarchy and freedom. There are only two sides to the conof the people, on the other are the legions of privileges and plutocratic rule. Every man must take his position on the one side or the other. Populism was organized as a protest against the encroaching spirit of monarchy and mamonism, and now that success is in sight we cannot believe that any Populist will fail in his duty, but that every one of our 2,000,000 votes will be registered on election day in favor of a government of the people and for the preservation of the republic.

J. H. Edmisten, Vice Chairman. J. A. EDGERTON, Secretary.

Imperialism would be profitable to the army contractors; it would be profitable to the shipowners, who would carry live soldiers to the Philippines and bring dead soldiers back; it would be profitable to those who would seize upon the franchises, and it would be profitable to the officials whose salaries would be fixed here and paid over there, but to the farmer, to the laboring man and to the vast majority of those engaged in other occupations it would bring expenditure without return and risk without reward .- W. J. Bryan.

Sherman on McKinley.

There was nothing in McKinley's course in congress except trimming to the wants, as he supposed them to be, of his immediate constituency. As Mc-Kinley was an expansionist on the tariff he became an expansionist against the views be declared to us in the matter of these distant possessions. And still his purposes are not clear or determinate and I suppose that the great activity in business has dropped the public attention from the farreaching consequences of these amended and still vague purposes of Mr. Mc-Kinley.-John Sherman on McKinley.

The Chinese exclusion act has proved an advantage to the country. forcement, as well as its extension to other similar races, are imperatively necessary. The Asiatic is so essentially different from the American that he cannot be assimilated with our jopulation and is therefore not desirable as a permanent eltizen .- From Bryan's Letter of Ac-

The Merchant and Trusts.

The merchant is losing his independence. The trust fixes the terms upon which he shall sell and often binds him by contract not to sell a competing article. When the monopoly is complete, credit will be shortened, and the merchant will be compelled to bear all the risks of trade. When the trust raises prices, the merchant usually has to divide the advance with his customers so far as stock on hand is concerned, but when the trust overstocks the market and then lets the price fall the merchant must bear the loss on accumulated stock.-Bryan's Letter of Accept-

Can't Accuse the Major.

Our Republican frends virtuously accuse Mr. Bryan of being an imperialist. They charge that he dominates his party. This is a crime which at least cannot be laid at the door of the major He lives but ' ' - the torete

The Democracie, ... ty expresses its pride in the sources and sailors of all our wars and declares its purpose to deal generously with them and their dependents. A liberal policy is natural and necessary in a government which depends upon a citizen soldiery instead of a large standing army. Self interest as well es gratitude compels the govern-Lient to make bountiful prevision for those who in the hour of danger and at great sacrifice of business, bealth and life tender their services to their country.-From Bryan's Letter of Accentance.

VALENTINE

We wear the stars of honor That ne'er were stained with shame. And our only aim is office; We are patriots tried and true; Our fame is flaming like the sun Which meets the world's view.

And when our foes give battle We shall deal them deadly thrusts, For we'll receive our weapons From the trusts, trusts, trusts! We've raised the price of everything

That mortal man does use, And this to every trust, combine, Is bright and cheering news, And, though wages ain't advancing, We're sorry (how we sigh!) Some day they'll starve a-jumping In the near by and by. Have patience; do not worry;

Let courage swell your busts.

You'll receive all that's due you

From the trusts, trusts, trusts! Mark Hanna now is busy, He has schemes and coin galore; He knows well where to place it, As he has shown before. He's a brave and bold campaigner, Whose banner never fell; He will fight his way to heaven

When he is placed in hell. He'll crown our fight with glory, For his valor never rusts, And he'll find his ablest soldiers In the trusts, trusts, trusts.
