

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF CHERRY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

VOLUME XVI

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, MARCH 28, 1901.

NUMBER 10

LIKE WINE,

The "RED FRONT" improve with age, until now it's the most popular trading for the majority of Cherry Co.'s shoppers. The reason why 'tis so easy to explain: We never dissappoint if we can help it; we always give our customers what we advertise; our prices for the same quality of merchandise are always lower than our neighbors. We don't only say, compare prices, but we do say, compare quality as well. We carry nothing for our customers that we do not use ourself. Our goods are always clean and fresh; no shelfworn or bankrupt stock, and when we advertise a sale we always sell goods lower than the regular price. Hence the reason of our phenomonal success, and the household word, "it pays to trade at the "RED FRONT."

THE RED FRONT

CLOTHING

Is our principal line, and ordinarily we are proud of the fact that we have the largest assortment in Cherry county, but at present we are sorry to say that we have

TOO BIG A STOCK

Especially of Winter goods, owing to mild weather, and in order to reduce it we are making discounts on heavy goods, amounting in some instances to 50 per cent.

Fred E. Whitney, of Newport come up last Saturday to work on the DEMOCRAT. Mr. Whitney is an expert job printer and has had considerable experience in the business in all its details being at one time manager of the Long Pine Journal and was editor of the Stuart Ledger for a year.

Anthony & Johnson Black Oddity Co. are booked to us as a first class company of people as well as first class artists in singing and dancing and Mr. Dorza, the black Nightingale, in classic selections, Johnson Bros., in their musical act. Prof. O. W. Johnson, the master of 27 different instruments, and Edwards in Buck and Wing dance.

Last Saturday afternoon a light rain began falling and turned to large flakes of snow toward evening. The wind began to blow and the ground was soon covered with snow but not until shortly after midnight did the real storm come on which continued throughout the night and all day Sunday and not until Monday forenoon did the storm abate.

Snow drifted over the fences, around houses, blocked doorways and sidewalks four to six feet deep and made traveling almost impossible until the roads were broken. There were no trains from Sunday morning until Monday night. This is said to be the heaviest storm for nine years. Where there were no obstructions the ground is bare. The loss of stock is light as most people were prepared with plenty of hay and stock was in good condition.

J. W. Burleigh is in town this week.

W. A. Carter of Cody was in town Tuesday.

Robert Dyer is down from Rosebud this week.

Work was begun last Thursday of raising the Quigley building preparatory to moving. The work is being done by Rev. Holsclaw and his sons.

Mrs. Frank Brayton has been visiting home folks in Ainsworth during the past week and during her absence Mr. Brayton takes his meals at the hotel.

The dance at the post on March 22, was a marked success. The dancing loving public will know what to expect when the boys in blue undertake anything.

The Fred Krug Brewing Co. will put up a building on the site of the old Palace saloon and have let the contract of putting in the basement walls to Joe Stolze.

Henry VanLeer, formerly of near Brownlee, moved to town last Saturday and will make Valentine his home. We are glad to have Mr. VanLeer camp with us.

Merton Holsclaw left Wednesday night of last week for Washington where he expects to find employment. Merton is strong and healthy enough to make a success in most any country and we wish him success.

Waldron and Calet's players have drawn good audiences during their week here and we cannot speak higher praises for them than they deserve as all of the company seem to possess more than the ordinary talent and are apparently of good character.

Some of our people met at Judge Towne's office last Thursday afternoon and nominated C. H. Cornell and Arthur Sherman as candidates for the town board. C. H. Cornell has declined the nomination so it will leave only three candidates for the two places.

Jos. Millard of the Omaha National Bank and Gov. Dietrich were nominated today at 10 o'clock at Lincoln for U. S. senators. D. E. Thompson, Meiklejohn and Rosewater withdrawing from the race. Millard and Dietrich are generally acceptable to republicans around Valentine.

A good time is reported by a jolly crowd who went out to Wm. Baird's ranch last week on a hunt. Sandy Griswold sporting editor of the World Herald, Wilbur Fassett, son of Judge Fassett, T. J. Foley, proprietor of the finest saloon in Omaha and Joe Leader our genial conductor on the F. E. & M. V. passenger, also owner of a nice ranch near Woodlake. Joe is a worker and makes a good hunter as well as a success in other lines of work.

The commissioners, last Saturday awarded the contract of building the court house to Wm. Maier of Omaha. Mr. Maier came the night before in response to their telegram. The court house is to be 64 feet by 74. The lower part for the jail to be built of native rock and the main building of brick. About 250,000 brick will be required. The court house is to be completed by Aug 15 ready for occupancy. Mr. Maier informs us that the work will begin at once.

VALENTINE - NEBRASKA

Last week E. Ormesher had six quarter sections of land transferred to him which added to his already fine ranch will accommodate his increasing herds of cattle. Mr. Ormesher came to this county years ago a poor man and worked with Frank Brayton pitching hay in the early days to get a start. Mr. Brayton is in the mercantile business with W. S. Jackson who also made his start here against adverse circumstances and they are all doing well now and are each comfortably fixed with a steady increasing business as a reward for their thrifty business methods.

Dr. Seymour, eye specialist, here Friday, April 28.

The coming visit of Drs. Seymour and Williams will offer a splendid opportunity to those in this city wishing to consult an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. Dr. Seymour has recently enlarged his business in Lincoln and now has an institution on O street in company with Dr. Thad Woodward, the noted surgeon, where they can treat many more patients than he has been able to do in the past. Consultation free at the hotel, Friday, April 28.
