

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF CHERRY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

VOLUME XVI

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, APRIL 18, 1901.

LIKE WINE,

The "RED FRONT" improves with age, until now it's the most popular trading place for the majority of Cherry Co.'s shoppers. The reason why 'tis so easy to explain: We never dissappoint if we can help it; we always give our customers what we advertise; our prices for the same quality of merchandise are always lower than our neighbors. We don't only say, compare prices, but we do say, compare quality as well. We carry nothing for our customers that we do not use ourselves. Our goods are always clean and fresh; no shelfworn or bankrupt stock, and when we advertise a sale we always sell goods lower than the regular price. Hence the reason of our phenomenal success, and the household word, 'it pays to trade at the "RED FRONT."

THE RED FRONT

CLOTHING

Is our principal line, and ordinarily we are proud of the fact that we have the largest assortment in Cherry county, but at present we are sorry to say that we have

TOO BIG A STOCK

Especially of Winter goods, owing to mild weather, and in order to reduce it we are making discounts on heavy goods, amounting in some instances to 50 per cent.

W. A. Pettycrow.

Dan Alder, W. R. White, Jas. Childer, Joe Girard and J. W. Crowe, of Merriman, are in town on court business this week.

Last Sunday was a bright, sunshiny day that a large number of our people enjoyed; some went out walking and others riding and driving.

The I. O. O. F. lodge of Cody will celebrate the 83 anniversary of that order by a grand ball at that place on the evening of April 26, 1901.

Last Saturday the Brayton building which stood on Main street, was put on wagons and moved to the first lot west of the DEMOCRAT building.

A. W. Grooms brought a load of cedar posts to town Monday from down the river and on account of the rain stayed over night and attended Workman lodge.

E. J. Davenport and daughter Mae returned from the Governors banquet at Lincoln last Saturday night, having been gone during last week taking in Omaha on the trip.

FOR SALE:—My stock of merchandise consisting of Groceries, Boots and shoes; must get out on account of ill health. Will take cattle or cash or both. 11 C. J. Farnham.

Work was commenced Monday on the basement of the new Quigley and Brayton buildings on Main street. This building, when completed, will enhance the appearance of Main street greatly.

Samuel I. Thackrey, father of J. E. Thackrey, and Will Wiseman came up from Manhattan, Kan. last Friday night. Mr. Thackrey expects to make his home in Cherry county and his wife will come in a few weeks.

Dr. Seymour, the noted Lincoln eye specialist, who paid Valentine a visit about a year ago in his private car will make a one day visit here, Friday, Apr. 26. He will be accompanied by Dr. Williams, the ear, nose and throat specialist who was with him at the time of his last visit. They will have rooms at the hotel.

The ladies of the St. John's church will have an exhibition at Elliott's drug store, for one week only, a collection of pictures by many of the most celebrated artists and illustrators. These pictures which are sold at art stores for from 50 cents to $2.00 can be bought at Elliott's for 25 cents a piece from April 22 to 29.

Judge Westover went home Saturday night to be with his family over Sunday returning Monday morning to hold another week of court at Valentine. The Judge is to be complimented upon his keeping things going as this is the spring of the year when the farmers can ill afford to be away from their farm work.

Mrs. Dillon has sold her property in the western part of town and will move to Wisconsin where she has relatives living. Her son-in-law and Mrs. Burlington will depart for Mexico some time next week. The above are well known and highly respected citizens of this city and the best wishes of their many friends go with them to their homes.

Ed Heath, of the Cody Cow Boy, was in town last Friday and Saturday visiting friends and attending court as a spectator. It is nice to meet one of those jolly, good-hearted, whole souled, 200 pounders even if they do talk in their wild cow boy dashes of setting a "Barker" on to us. We're glad it is not a bitter, and don't forget at the proper time to feel thankful for it.

The entertainment given by the High School of Valentine at the Cornell hall was attended by about four hundred people and is unversally acknowledged to have been a commendable success. The partakers in the program acquitted themselves admirably in every instance. The recitation spoken by Miss Snaughnessy and the drill at the close of the entertainment seems to meet with the greatest amount of praise, yet to be honest it would be difficult to say which is deserving of the highest honors.
