Less noise from the political tinkers and more from machinery would bring the country up to a more prosperous condition.

It's a long time ago, and it seems ungenerous, but still we can't help remarking that Mrs. Lot wouldn't have turned to salt had she not first turned to rubber.

Nothing on earth can be more pleasing and more anjelic than a virtuous young lady, adorned with the grace and elegance of finished politeness, based upon a sound intellect and a well improved mind.

Washington never gave a better bit of advice than when he said, "Be courteous to all, but intimate with few, and they be well tried before you give them your confidence."

The true and noble young man of your country are those who do not touch whiskey nor carry a pistol. They deserve great praise and encouragement. While they may be in the minority as to numbers, they are greatly in the majority as to quality.

A young fellow in Louisville, Ky, recently beat a fellow to death with his fist for making unbecoming remarks about his sister. Served him right. Any man who will make vulgar remarks about a lady is hardly fit for the society of a Nigger squaw in predition.

A Chicago business man determined to spend all he maid in one year in advertising. He soon found that it was impossible, for the simple reason that the more he advertised the more he maid, and after a strenuous effort to get rid of his money in advertising he gave up the idea. This is a fact.
