GET A KODAK

There's education, recreation and genuine enjoyment in picture taking. That isn't all; you accumulate a collection of pictures that you wouldn't part with for many times the expenditure involved. We have just added a line of Eastman Kodaks. The Kodak is the most highly perfected and widely used camera in the world. It was the kodak that made picture-taking simple and easy. With a Kodak you can take good pictures from the very start. We want you to come in and see them. If you buy will, instruct you fully. We also have a complete line of supplies—everything you will need. An entire outfit can be had for very little money.

The city water works system is out of repair at the pumping station and those who have no wells to get drinking water from are complaining. The recent high water washed out the north wall of the reservoir and the water is not as clear out of the creek as it generally is. The boys are swimming in the pond, knowing that some poor women who have to wash must use it for drinking water. It is a shame that these boys can't bathe in a tub at home for a while until the reservoir can be repaired. Our board of health should see to this and not allow the boys to bathe in the water that must be used by more than half of our people.

Races for last Friday resulted as follows according to program. First race was a quarter mile dash for ponies; entries, Diamond Maid by Samuel Martin Pumpkin Seed by T. A. Rowland, Lady by John Arcoran, Coon Tail by John Bachelor, Grey Pete by Ed Jordan; Pumpkin Seed took first money. Lady second and Coon Tail third. 2nd race one mile novelty, entries were, Jimmy Hicks by Frank Doty, Lookout by A. C. Sampson, Nigger Baby by John Cordier; Jimmie Hicks was ahead at first and second quarter closely followed by Nigger Baby; Lookout then began to gain passing Nigger Baby then passed Jimmie Hicks just before he got to the three-quarter pole and came on around winning also the last quarter. Some dissatisfaction was expressed at Jimmie Hicks being held up after the first half mile allowing Lookout to come in and take third and fourth money. No; that they were unwilling to see Lookout win but that it was too plain that the race was intended to end in that way, by holding up Jimmie Hicks after he had cut out Nigger Baby to let the other horse win. The last on the program was the consolation run by Diamond Maid by Samuel C. Martin, Chas. Crickett by Geo. D. Huggins, Baker by Frank Hoffman, and Rosebud Girl by C. P. Jordan; Rosebud Girl took first money, Chas. Crickett second and Diamond Maid third.

Wayside Notes.

It is now a settled fact that Georgia will celebrate the Fourth in due and ample form—arrangements are under way and an old time celebration looked for. Two of our former citizens who had left us have returned and both taken homesteads near town. Mr. Hagie, an old railroad engineer is building a residence and will engage in the cattle business.

We are sorry to note the dangerous illness of Grandmother Wilson. She has long been a sufferer from paralysis and her malady with the burden of age is hastening her exit from time to time beyond.

We notice a neat new building in Georgia with a neat sign across the front "McCormick Mowers" and in the door the smiling countenance of H. Shultz. Success.

Wanted, at this office—a new self-gearing, self-greasing, self-sharpening, self-raking, self-righteous Mosquito-extinguisher. A small boy of profane habits can find employment with the machine.

Now let every loyal American citizen stand up and say, hurrah for the Boers. OLNEY.
