Wm. Fugate of Brownlee is in town visiting friends and transacting business.

Pat Peiper was up from the hay flats last week and took a few Christmas remembrances home with him.

Mrs. Tillie Hipple of Crookston was in town Monday on business.

Max E. Viertel, the Crookston postmaster, transacted business in Valentine Monday.

Wm. Bollwerk and daughter Anna of Nenzel were business visitors in Valentine Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson drove up from Kennedy Monday to do their Christmas shopping.

Ed Pike will sell off the stock and implements on his ranch on January 4. Read his display ad in this issue.

Louis Marvin, the old soldier who was held for some time on an insanity charge, was allowed to go to Indiana where he will enter a soldiers' home.

Mrs. Minnie Handy visited in Valentine the first of the week and then went to Wood Lake. Mrs. Handy has filed on a homestead near Ballards.

Yesterdays, snow flurries put an end to the good skating on the pond. Now those having flexible flyers or home made imitations will have their inning.

Wm. Erickson of Canada was in town several days the past week on business and talking with friends about his home there. He returned about six weeks ago with his wife who had gone up there to visit him for several weeks previous to their coming home.

G. M. Tracy of Crookston was placed under arrest Tuesday on charges filed by the county attorney alleging that a check given by a creamery concern in Sioux City, while in his possession was raised from $2.82, the original value, to $4.82. Mr. Tracy was released on $1,000 bond to appear for hearing on Jan. 6th.

The largest and most enthusiastic meeting of Masons in the history of that order was held in Fraternal Hall Tuesday night. The Master's degree was conferred upon four members; T. C. Clark, R. J. Baumberger, Perry Veach and Ed Cohoto Jr. Twelve members of the Ainsworth and Long Pine lodges and large delegations from Rosebud and other points were in attendance. After the work had been completed a banquet was given.

Miss Ella Copeland and Silas Lund of Brownlee were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Haislop of the M. E. church, at the M. E. parsonage. Miss Copeland is the daughter of J. W. Copeland north of Sparks and has spent several years in Valentine and is well and favorably known here. Mr. Lund has purchased the Sand Hills store at Brownlee of W. L. Clark and will make their home there. We join with the numerous friends of this young couple in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

John Haeber was in from Oasis Monday.

H. M. Cramer was in from his place on the North Table Tuesday.

Mont Bishop and family have moved into rooms over Johnson's Millinery.

In 1910 the United States excelled all other countries of the world in the conversion of raw asbestos into manufactured products but a very small percentage—less than 1 per cent of the asbestos used—was mined in this country, by far the larger part being imported from Canada. The total production in the United States for 1910, according to the Geological Survey, was valued at $68,327 the imports of raw material from Canada were valued at more than fifteen times that amount.
