Munsing Union Suits FOR LADIES

We take considerable pleasure in calling attention to our complete stock of Munsing Union Suits for ladies. We consider ourselves very fortunate in securing the exclusive agency for these excellent garments.
It is generally known that they are very high class, it is not known by everybody but ourselves as to how ordinary makes of underwear are sold. We can convince you.

Wedding Bells.

At right and below on Tuesday morning of this week, a pretty dancing wedding took place at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

It was a Saturday morning wedding, and many beautiful presents were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M J Jordan, of Eaton, and a young man of sterling qualities. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rosania Hill of Eaton, and a lady of rare accomplishments.

The young lady, who left on a little wedding tour in the Black Hills, intends to make Omaha their future home.

Their many friends will themelves of this opportunity to wish this noble young couple every sort of beneficial things.

Oblivion,

Margaret Whitmore was born in Wigan, Lancashire, England, Aug. 16, 1858, and died May 11, 1912, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Jordan, Eaton, Neb., after an illness of three weeks. She was a spinster for the past 15 years of her life. She leaves behind no near relations.

She was a good and loving mother and sister, a good and loving neighbor, loved by all who knew her.

The remains were laid to rest in the Crookston cemetery May 15 of the same day.

The funeral services were held in the Church of Our Lady of the Cross, Eaton, by Father Elmer officiating.

Margaret McGinn is married in St. Germain, Wis., Oct. 12, 1912, to Mr. C. E. McGinn, of St. Germain.

A Country of Homes

Did you ever give thought to the fact that it is largely due to the material aid and encouragement given by banks and others that this is a country of homes and home owning property values, was possible only because many people depended in banks their surplus money, the money for which they had no immediate use. Individually these same accounts were small, collectively they stand for the world’s progress.

Identity yourself with the movement for making this a better land, a home owning people, by increasing the positive com-
