Marriage of Former Norfolk Girl. The American of Griswold, Iowa, of recent date contains a very fine write-up of the marriage of Miss Grace Murer, formerly of Norfolk, to Herman G. Wilcox, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Murer of Griswold, on the 15th instant.

The groom has been a resident of Griswold for a number of years and is the junior member of the hardware firm of Wilcox Bros. He is a young man of the most steady habits, careful, considerate and painstaking in every business transaction.

By his ever courteous and attentive treatment of customers he makes friends with every one with whom he comes in contact.

The bride has also been a resident of Griswold for a number of years. She is one of our most polished, refined and accomplished young ladies.

Since she graduated from the Griswold High school some three years ago she has given the most of her time to teaching instrumental music and is very thorough in this art. She is also a leading worker in the Young Peoples, society of the Presbyterian church. In her changed relations in life she not only becomes a helpmate in name but in deed as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox will be at home to their friends in Griswold after December 1.

or otherwise, depending from what standpoint you view it, on this 20th century of modern civilization, that the fixed immutable forces of nature, projecting, propelling always, keep crowding you onward until you reach the highest plain, from which you can view with supreme delight the accessories we have for finishing a becoming toilet, for the hat you wear must be becoming, must be adapted to your face and features or the whole ensemble is nil. We make the claim that we can fit your face becomingly. Come and see.
