Prince Henry may think he has seen a great deal and knows considerable, but wait until he gets to Chicago.

The storm king is now giving Nebraska a touch of high life not unlike that with which he has favored eastern and western sections.

The Tobias Express is somewhat confused as to whether Prince Henry sailed on the Kron Prinz or whether the Kron Prinz sailed on the Prince Henry.

Indications are that the frazzled end of February is assuming leonine characteristics to usher in March in a manner that will cause it to retire with a lamb-like meekness of spirit.

The Iowa legislators have acquired the Tillman-McLaurin spirit. This was apparent Wednesday afternoon when Labor Leader Willis shook his fist under the nose of Representative Temple. There was no bloodshed, however.

Tillman's relatives in South Carolina take unkindly to President Roosevelt's method of attaching odium to fisticuffs in the senate. It is not unlikely that the president will take the enmity of the Tillmans as complimentary if they see fit to bestow it on account of his participation in the incident.

The Iowa senate has passed a resolution favoring equal suffrage by a vote of 28 to 18, and the supporters of the movement express confidence that the house will take similar action. The Iowa legislators must wish that the Hawkeye state should be eternally and overwhelmingly republican, because the Iowa women are at least as strongly republican as the men and the adoption of woman suffrage would undoubtedly mean the doubling of the republican vote.

Iowa farmers are being worked by a new graft. The shapers enlist them as prospective home seekers in South Dakota and propose to file homestead claims on the payment of $10 in cash and the execution of a note for $10. They propose to locate their victims on the Indian reservation in Gregory county, which has not yet been opened to settlement although a bill is pending before congress. Nebraska farmers will do well to pass up such schemes.

The NORFOLK NEWS thinks the offer of the private secretary of the governor, one Clancy, that if good men were sent to the legislature, and they introduced a bill appropriating a sufficient sum for an asylum, Governor Savage would approve it, is an intimation that the governor believes the Madison county republicans to be a mass of muddled oafs. It denies the mild impeachment and makes sport of this olive branch of peace. "No compromise" appears to be the motto in Madison.—Grand Island Independent.

In squaring itself with Governor Savage for having republished country press criticisms of his excellency the State Journal gives him credit for having cleared the state institutions "of a host of barnacles." He has, indeed! He also cleared the Norfolk hospital for the insane of a host of patients who are uncomfortably herded in the already overcrowded asylum at Lincoln. He cleared $150,000 of state property near this city of the protection that occupancy and repairs would have given it, or in other words abandoned it to the corroding touch of time and the care of his cousin, Engineer Thomas. He has cleared the state press of interesting items of public concern emanating from the state house; and, not of the least, he has cleared the fair name of Bartley of the barnacles acquired by the popular belief that he stole a considerable amount of state funds. He also cleared the penitentiary of the distinguished ex-treasurer's presence and cleared the other prisoners of the odium attached to associating with a criminal of his class. He cleared the republican party of all responsibility for his actions by ignoring its opinion expressed in convention, taking the bit between his teeth and dashing headlong to his fate. The governor has certainly made a wonderful record at clearing out barnacles and during the approaching campaign it is not unlikely that the people will take up the cue and clear the state house of some barnacles that he has overlooked.

The Sioux City Journal, speaking of the Tillman-McLaurin incident, finds that "nothing comparable has occurred in the senate chamber since the assault upon Charles Sumner, senator from Massachusetts, by Preston Smith Brooks, a member of the house of representatives, from South Carolina, which occurred on the 22d of May, 1856. But at the time of that occurrence the senate was not in session. The Massachusetts senator two weeks before had made a characteristic speech on the 'Crime Against Kansas,' in which he had sharply criticised Senators Douglas and Butler, the latter of South Carolina and a relative of Brooks. Following the adjournment of the senate, when Sumner sat quite alone writing at his desk, Brooks entered, and after a few words assailed the Massachusetts senator with a bludgeon. The senator could not readily extricate himself from his place, and as the blows continued to fall he sank bloody and unconscious to the floor. An effort was made in the house to expel Brooks, but the necessary two-thirds vote could not be secured. Brooks, however, soon resigned, and took appeal to his constituents, and was triumphantly re-elected. That was forty-six years ago, at the very beginning of the life of the republican party and of the inauguration of powerful opposition to the extension of slavery. South Carolina has a unique place in the history of the senate chamber.

Irrigation Congress at Sterling Adopts Resolutions.
 Sterling, Colo., Feb. 28.—At yesterday's session of the irrigation congress of Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska the resolution committee made its report, which was adopted. The resolutions recite that a vast area of the public domain, now of comparatively little value, may be reclaimed through irrigation, and quote the official utterances of President Roosevelt and Secretary Hitchcock in support of the claim that the government should undertake such reclamation. A general revision of the land laws is asked and especially the repeal of the commutation clause of the homestead act, the desert land act, and the stock reservoir act. Cession of the arid lands to the states is opposed. An appropriation by congress of $250,000 is asked for surveys and experiments and a larger appropriation for permanent work. The preservation of the forests is urged. The members of the congress visited the irrigation reservoirs in this vicinity. In the afternoon Governor Savage and others addressed the congress.

PRIME FILES THE PETITION.

Declares Surety and Guarantee Company Bankrupt.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The Surety Guarantee and Trust company, a concern with an alleged capital of $1,000,000, went into the hands of a receiver yesterday as a result of bankruptcy proceedings, instituted before Judge Kohlsaat of the United States district court. Assets amounting to $1,000 were found in the company's offices and the receiver, Wells M. Cook, gave a bond to cover that amount. The petition to have the company declared bankrupt was filed on behalf of John R. Prime, former adjutant general of Iowa, Richards & Biles and N. H. Wilson, all of Des Moines, Ia. Their claims aggregate $1,850, of which General Prime says that $1,500 was obtained from him by false representations concerning the financial condition of the company.

Fined for Discharging Union Men.

Leavenworth, Feb. 28.—In the city court here Manager DeCoursey of the Leavenworth Street Car company was fined $50 for dismissing W. P. Sullivan, an employe, because of his connection with a labor union. This is the first conviction under the new state law.

Ship Abandoned at Sea.

London, Feb. 28.—The British steamer Georgian, from New York for Liverpool, passed Holyhead yesterday and reported having on board the crew of the German ship Theodore Fischer, Captain von Harten, from New York, Feb. 9, for Liverpool, the Fischer having been abandoned at sea.

Peoria Granted Franchise.

Peoria, Feb. 28.—James Whitfield, president of the Western League, arrived here yesterday and stated that he was authorized by the circuit committee to grant Peoria a franchise just as soon as the local company was completed. He began work at once securing stockholders.

Republican Mass Convention.

Mass convention of the republican electors of the city of Norfolk and of the school district of the city of Norfolk, is hereby called to meet on Tuesday evening, March 11, 1902, at 8 o'clock p. m. at the city hall in the city of Norfolk, Nebraska, for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the city election to be held in the city of Norfolk, Nebraska, on the 1st day of April, 1902, viz: Mayor, city treasurer, city clerk, city engineer, police judge and two members of the school board for the school district of the city of Norfolk, and transact such other business as may regularly come before the convention. The electors of the various wards of the city of Norfolk will also meet in mass convention at the close of the city convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for councilmen for the various wards, as follows:

- First ward, one councilman for full term.
 - Second ward, one councilman for the full term.
 - Third ward, one councilman for full term.
 - Fourth ward, one councilman for the full term, and to transact such other business as may regularly come before the electors of the various wards.
- L. M. GAYLORD,
 Chairman,
 J. L. HERSHBER,
 Secretary.

SOUTHLAND IS DELUGED

Rivers Overflow Their Banks and Much Damage is Done.

BRIDGES ARE WASHED AWAY.

Rainfall at Columbus Was Almost a Cloudburst—Pittsburg Threatened by Rise in the Allegheny River—Tornado in Texas.

Atlanta, Feb. 28.—Heavy rains deluged the country near Montgomery, Birmingham and Atlanta. At Columbus, Ga., the rain amounted to a cloudburst, the fourteenth street bridge across the Chattahoochee river there being washed away.

Several washouts were reported on a number of roads and trains out of Columbus were annulled.

In the southwestern section of this state the rain and windstorm almost attained the proportions of a tornado and it is feared considerable damage resulted. In American trees and fences were blown down by the gale.

At Savannah, Ga., a terrible sea is running and the wind is blowing 50 miles an hour.

At West Point, Ga., the merchants are busy removing goods from stores to places of safety.

In Atlanta rain fell in torrents. The barometer was the lowest ever recorded.

The weather bureau sent flood warnings to all points in Alabama and Georgia reached by the Chattahoochee and Alabama rivers.

At Tampa, Fla., hurricane signals are out and the wind is blowing 34 miles an hour, with increasing speed. All boats are close in port and a severe storm is raging on the gulf. Martins was struck by a hurricane and scores of houses damaged. There was a cloudburst in Tampa and the town was flooded.

Pittsburg Menaced by Flood.

Pittsburg, Feb. 28.—The Allegheny river ice at this point has not moved much and Pittsburg and Allegheny are still menaced with flood and great damage otherwise. The government forecaster considers the situation critical and river men are on the alert. The flood situation at Oakmont and other points above is very serious. Boat houses have been swept away, boats crushed and all descriptions of river craft destroyed.

Tornado in Texas.

San Angelo, Tex., Feb. 28.—A windstorm prevailed over this section all last night. Various points report a number of houses blown over, stock killed and other damage done. At Robert Lee, Coke county, the house of J. G. Graham caught fire and his 18-year-old daughter perished. Near Abilene the inmates of the ranch house of J. W. Wilson were badly hurt.

THEATRICAL TRAIN WRECKED.

Meets Freight in Fog and Many of the Company Are Hurt.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 28.—A special train carrying the Florodora theatrical company from Norfolk to Wilmington, on the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroad, was wrecked yesterday at Eastville, Va., and several members of the company were seriously injured. A heavy fog prevented the engineer from observing a freight train ahead and a rear-end collision occurred. The engine, baggage car and two forward cars of the special train were completely wrecked.

W. L. Carleton of the Florodora company sustained serious injuries. He is paralyzed from the waist down and may not recover.

E. C. Herr, manager of the company, and Charles H. Powers are also badly injured. Others who sustained injuries are: Tony Rooney, Miss Frances Gordon, Miss Ella Henry, Miss Maud Davis, Miss Selma Mantell, Miss Ida Doerde, Miss Libbie Nunn, Miss Lillie Young and Miss Annie Young.

The fireman of the special was badly scalded and will die. There were 87 persons in the theatrical company. The wreckage caught fire after the collision and a bucket brigade, formed by the uninjured members of the company, succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The scenery and nearly all the baggage was destroyed by fire.

Dr. Burnett on Trial.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Dr. Orville S. Burnett yesterday faced a jury which had been selected during the day to try him on the charge of responsibility for the death of Mrs. Charlotte S. Nichol of Nashville, with whom, it is said, he agreed to die at the Hotel Marlborough. The defendant was found suffering from the effects of morphine beside the body of the woman, who is believed to have succumbed to an overdose of the drug. "No intimation was given of the line of defense contemplated. Burnett presented a good appearance in court and took a keen and lively interest in the work of his counsel.

Workmen Overcome by Gas.

New York, Feb. 28.—Patrick O'Connell is dead and Jeremiah Murphy is in a critical condition and five other men had narrow escapes from death yesterday at the works of the Standard Oil company in Constance Hook, N. J. The men were at work around a still in which 500 barrels of crude Texas oil had been placed to be refined. The gas from the boiling oil settled around the still and the workmen were overcome one by one. Help was summoned and when it arrived O'Connell was dead and Murphy was found to be unconscious. The others did not suffer so severely.

Notice.

The democratic electors of the several wards are hereby called to meet in mass convention at the city hall on the 3rd day of March, 1902, at 8 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of selecting delegates for the several wards to the city convention to be held on the 5th day of March, 1902, and to select the candidate for councilman from each ward.

The delegates selected are to be voted on at the primary election which will be held on the 4th day of March, 1902, at the several places enumerated below:

- First ward at Uhle's grocery store.
- Second ward at Carl Laubsch's tin shop.
- Third ward at Times-Tribune office.
- Fourth ward at Fourth ward hose house.

The polls will remain open from 12 o'clock noon to 7 o'clock p. m.

John Philip Sousa will bring his great band to this city for a grand concert for the first time since he set all Britain keeping time to the rhythm of his marches. This tour, which will complete the tenth year of the existence of the Sousa band, will embrace 120 different towns extending from Portland, Me. in the East, Galveston, Tex., in the South, Omaha, Neb., in the west, and Duluth, Minn., in the north. The concert here will be given on the afternoon of March 5 at the Auditorium. The Sousa band is unquestionably at the head of the bands of the world. It is "the glorified ideal of the military band," according to the London Globe. Mr. Sousa is certainly the most conspicuous and popular of all American musicians and his unflinching courtesy towards his audiences has endeared him to his enormous following. Sousa's soloists this year are Maud Reese-Davies, soprano; Dorothy Hoyle, violinist; Arthur Pryor, trombone, and Walker B. Rogers, cornet.

"A Danger Foreseen Is Half Averted."

If you are in business and don't advertise you are in danger. This is a warning. See your mistake in time and avert it. A poor publisher, the proprietor of a struggling magazine, sent a half inch advertisement to the New York Herald. The ad man made it a half page. The bill was bigger than the publisher's entire possessions. He thought he was ruined. It was the turning point. The magazine sold. It was good and people liked it. Other half page ads followed. Result: fortune, fame, honor. Advertising is just as potent a lever now as it was then. This paper reaches the homes of this section.
