The celebration of Emancipation day will be held tomorrow evening at Marquardt hall under the auspices of the Lime Kiln club. A fine program consisting of addresses, cake walk and music will be furnished. The judges of the cake walks will be W. O. Hall, C. J. Carter, Geo. Box and Sol Mayer is referee. All are cordially invited to attend.

Supreme Master Workman Sessions of the A. O. U. W., has just rendered a decision upon the new law relating to the number of delegates that each lodge is entitled to in the grand lodge, holding that the law is unconstitutional. The decision will make the basis of representation in the grand lodge to be held at Lincoln next week, the same as it was at the last session, one for each membership of 50 or major fraction thereof.

Harry, son of M. M. Stannard and Ernest, son of Hiram Strong, are missing from the city since yesterday. Both lads attend the Lincoln school. Stannard is in the Fifth grade and Strong in the second. They are respectively 15 and 14 years old and are both well spoken of by their teachers. They left for school as usual but neither put in an appearance at home when night came. Young Strong told some of his mates not a great while ago that he was going to "bum it" to California some day and yesterday spoke of going to Grand Island to some one of them. It is probable that both boys have started on one of these pilgrimages from which they will return sadder but wiser. Their parents are anxious for their safety and concerned as to their whereabouts.

W. H. Dexter has sold the Norfolk Steam Laundry to Messrs. Craven and McCoy of Fairbury. One of these gentlemen is an experienced laundry man. Possession has been taken of the plant by the new proprietors. They have already enlarged their quarters, and now occupy the basement and first floor used by Mr. Dexter and in addition, the rear half of the first floor formerly occupied by the Journal office. This will increase the size of the plant to meet the demands of the business and will endeavor to satisfy the needs of all old patrons and new ones as well. All accounts up to May 1 are assumed by Mr. Dexter who thanks the public for its generous patronage and bespeaks a continuance of the same in behalf of his successors. The public will be pleased to learn that Mr. Dexter contemplates staying in the city.

The value of being courteous and kindly toward others in ones department is very apt to be underestimated. It is really one of the highest social obligations that is imposed upon men in general and any young man who considers such things beneath his notice is surely making a great mistake. There is nothing else in this world that commands such universal respect and commendation as a correct address. It unlocks the doors to the best society and gives the key to not only social but business success. Great ability in any direction is to be envied but to him who would be honored and beloved the art of pleasing people is far more to be treasured. That art depends on treating all kinds of folks just as if they were of positive interest to you. This attitude cannot be simulated—it must be real to be of any account. Young people cannot possess it too strongly.

The predictions of the weather bureau man were verified in dead earnest last night. The day was a peculiar one. The temperature rose rapidly during the forenoon and was up in the eighties before darkness dawned. A strong wind from the south, sultry and damp, made life wearisome. The dark clouds began to bank up in the west and south early in the afternoon and continued to grow heavier and angrier in appearance until about 4:30 o'clock when the storm struck the city. It continued to pour down bucket fulls of water accompanied by an incessant display of lightning and heavy thunder, with occasional hail, for several hours. It was the worst storm of the year and the greatest fall of rain in the same length of time. Dr. Salter states, since the weather record has been kept in the city. Over three inches of rain fell. The storm ceased about 10 o'clock. While it continued the streets were literally "rivers of water" and in the west end of the city quite a district was flooded with the torrent that flowed through the ravine from the hills adjacent north and west. The sight presented this morning was one of general wreckage. Sidewalks were floated off from their usual moorings and landed in out of the way places or across the street, while the winter's accumulation of different barn yards and debris in general was deposited in the front yards and over the lawns of many beautiful homes. The railroad tracks were submerged north of the city but no serious wash-outs have been reported. A strong wind accompanied the storm. Reports received from the entire northern part of the state indicate that the storm was general in this section. Although the loss in a minor way was large, the benefits accruing are so immense that they defy any estimate. The ground is now thoroughly water soaked. Vegetation of all kinds will spring forward with a bound. All fears of a dry season—at least in the early part of the year—in this locality has been dissipated. This morning it was decidedly cooler and the skies have been overcast during the day. It is excellent weather for the growing grain.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

Spend a Delightful Social Evening at the Residence of E. P. Weatherby.

From The Day's Drily.

The members of the economic department of the Woman's club, with their husbands and friends, held their annual banquet last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Weatherby.

About 50 people shared in the enjoyment of the occasion. The house was darkened and the tables lighted with candles giving a very pleasant effect. Young ladies acted as waiters. The tables were tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers and the feast provided included all the delicacies of the season. E. P. Weatherby acted as toastmaster and first called upon Rev. J. Jeffries, who responded very happily to the toast "Dewey's Victories." He vividly depicted the brilliant battle in Manila bay which resulted in sinking Montejos's fleet, and thought that however much the people might shrink from them, new obligations were imposed upon this country by the possession of the Philippines which cannot be avoided. He divided the history of this country into three periods, colonial, American and humanitarian. The last era was entered upon under the providence of God one year ago by the achievements of Dewey and his men.

"The Club Women" was very brightly discussed by Mr. E. A. Bullock. Mr. Bullock referred to the different ways in which woman had been clubbed in times now past and how under the spell of that reaction which now gave her larger liberty and broader culture, woman herself was now handling the clubs and the evidences at hand showed that she was doing it very effectively. The club women of the Woman's club was a beneficent factor in the social life of the city, and the old tyrant, man, could well afford to make unconditional surrender to such a gracious power in modern civilization.

The third and last toast of the evening was given by Mr. C. H. Reynolds in response to the topic "Household Economics." Mr. Reynolds very facetiously alluded to the profundity of such a subject and expressed himself as feeling inadequate to properly treat it. It was a subject especially close to the mind of the housekeeper, and one that involved such perplexities and difficulties that about all that a man could do was to quietly rock the cradle while his wife mixed pancakes, gelatine, sewed on buttons and settled the internal and foreign arrangements of the household and the nation.

The waiter's toast was then brought in and proved the real genuine article, relished by all present. Readings were given by Miss Hartly and Mr. Bullock and proved an excellent antidote to the heavy weight discussions earlier in the evening.

The occasion was altogether a very profitable and pleasant one to all who participated in it and will long be remembered.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done? This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone today the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Solely in the U.S.A. by W. D. MERRILL, Chicago, New York.

20 CENTS GIVEN AWAY.

Cut this out and take it to the drug store named below and you will receive a regular 25 cent bottle of Dr. Sawyer's Ukinate for twenty.
