BOTH SIDES WERE ELOQUENT ON THE NEW SCHOOL QUESTION.

Pap Perkins, the Postmaster, Tells How the Cause of Higher Education Was Knocked Out In the Debate at the Jericho Postoffice.

[Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.] Lish Billings, Abner Jones and Moses Plumber hev bin holdin Jericho back fur the last two years from hevin a new schoolhouse. The matter has come up almost every evenin at the postoffice and bin hotly argued, but they couldn't be budged. The other night a mighty smart lookin stranger was stoppin in town, and it was arranged that he drop in on the crowd and take the schoolhouse side and put the three obstructors on their backs. The stranger was on hand at the hour named, and when the proper minit arrived Squar Joslyn speaks up and says:

"Stranger, if you was a resident of this town, would you be fur schoolhouses or ag'in 'em?"

"I'd be fur 'em, of course," replies the man. "I'd vote fur the cause of education if I had to live on one meal

"BY JINGO, BUT THAT'S A STRONG PINT!" a day. It is education that makes a nation. The less education the more vice and wickedness."

"That's jest the way I look at it," says the squar. "I say education before everything else, but we've got men in this town who differ with me. You wouldn't think that leadin men of a town would be ag'in schoolhouses, would you?"

"They must be queer sort of men. Don't they want their children to know who discovered America?"

"That's a mighty strong pint, mighty strong!" says Deacon Spooner, as he tunks his cane on the floor and looks at Abner Jones.

"I reckon you're hittin at me," replies Abner after whittlin away for a moment, "and I've got a few words to say. I'd like to ask this stranger here if he knows who discovered America."

"Why, certainly, sir," said the man. "Has it ever done you any good? Has it ever made any difference to you whether it was Smith, Green or Brown?"

"But it is knowledge."

"Yes, it's knowledge, and that's a strong pint," whispers the dencon. "Yes, it's schoolhouse knowledge." says Abner, "but let me ask you sunthin. What month in the year d'you plant pumpkin seeds?" "Pumpkin seeds! Why, what have pumpkin seeds got to do with education?

"Quite a little bit, I reckon. This county ships 'nuff pumpkins every year to make 3,000,000 10 cent pies. I don't believe ten farmers kin tell you when America was discovered but they know when to plant pumpkins. Which is the best fur 'em? I reckon you kin tell what year George Washington died in, which I can't, but d'you know whar to fasten a rope when you want to drive a hog to market?"

"By jingo, but that's a strong pint, and Abner's got him!" shouts the deacon as he jumps up and down.

The stranger appeared to be sort of confused and taken down, but tried to git out of it by sayin they were triffin with the subject.

"I'm one as isn't opposed to schools and education," says Moses Plumber, "but I don't want too many of 'em. I'm sayin that everybody orter know how to read, write and cipher, but nowadays they want to stuff children with a heap that's no good to any-

"But what man kin know too much?" asks the stranger. "But fur higher knowledge how would we know that the earth revolved on its axis?" "But s'pose we didn't know? S'pose we figgered that the earth stood still? Wouldn't we have licked the British at Yorktown jest the same, and wouldn't the price of wheat be the same as today? I was talkin with young Jim Benson t'other day. He could tell the distance to the sun within a mile, but he couldn't tell how many rails to a rod of fence. He could give the names of all the stars, but he didn't know that cuttin a hog's tail off would make him root the harder, probably hopin to find a new one. He could tell when every state come into the Union, but he didn't know that a cow kicked sideways instead of straight behind." "By jingo, Moses, but that's oratory and a strong pint besides!" exclaims the deacon. "In the face of them facts I can't see how we are to git another schoolhouse.' "You have been ill at some time or other in your life?" queries the stranger of Moses. "I hev. Three years ago I was down with fever and everybody thought I'd ply known about fence rails, hogs' tails and the way cows kick, where would you be today? He had gone beyond readin, writin and figurin It was his higher education that saved your life."

"That's a strong pint ag'in you, Moses," says the deacon.

"Yes, but I didn't call a doctor," grins Moses, "My old woman pulled me through with herb tens and good nursin, and you all know she can't figger the value of two dozen eggs."

"Then the pint is on the stranger, and I'd like to see him dodge it."

"The stranger was stubbin his toe ag'in stones in the road and didn't look happy, but he braced up and said in answer

"Let us take a case right here at home. Here is a store. It had to be designed by an architect before the carpenter could build it. Mr. Plumber kin read, write and figger, but kin he draw the plans fur a buildin? But fur higher education no man could do

"Yes; it was a smart bit of work," acknowledged Moses, "but I had considerable to say to that architect. He had never heard that thunder would turn sweet milk sour; he didn't know cows had only teeth on one jaw; he didn't know how to stop a hen from settin, a hog from rootin or a dog from killin sheep. He even poked his finger into a wasps' nest to see if the critters was at home. I'm not ag'in schools, but if they is to tell our children that the earth revolves on its axis why don't they also tell 'em that scratch'n a hog's back with a corncob will help to fatten him?"

"That's a plut, Moses-it's a pint!" shouts the deacon as he raps on a bar'l. "Abner and Moses hev made their pints, and now we'd like to hear from Lish Billings."

"I've got mighty little to say," replies Lish as he sits with his back humped up like a camel.

"But it can't be that an intelligent man like you is opposed to education?" protests the stranger.

"That's accordin to what sort of education it is."

"I refer to general education. You look like a man of peace, but perhaps you have had trouble with a neighbor some time?"

"Yes, I had trouble with Sam Wheeler once."

"And you went to law?" "Yes."

"To go to law you had a lawyer. If that man had only known enough to read, write and figure, he wouldn't have bin a lawyer. He had to hev a higher education to be a lawyer. Don't you see?"

"I skassly do." says Lish. "But you had a lawyer, and so did

Mr. Wheeler. There was a suit, and you got jestice." "That's a pint fur the stranger, Lish!" shouts the deacon.

"Yes, mel be 'tis, but lemme tell him how it turned out. Sam shet up one of my hogs with his, and I proved it, but my lawyer lost the case and chargwith over $3, but Sam had to pay his Mountain Tea. Ask your druggist. lawyer $12, and he went home from the lawsuit to find the critter dead. That's gineral education. Sam and me lost $22 and a hog between us and was mad at each other fur ten years, and I'm sayin I've had 'nuff of it and am ag'in more schoolhouses till death!" said it was a pint and a strong one,

The deacon jumped off the floor and and the stranger got down off the counter and said he wasn't feelin extra well and guessed he'd git to bed early.

Is often hidden by unsightly pimples, czema, tetter, erysipelas, salt rheum, te. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will glorify the face by curing all skin eruptions, also cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, ilcers, and worst forms of piles. Only !5cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Kiesau Drug Co.

That is about the mildest form of outery a man makes when rheumatism suddenly tweat c him. In its worst forms rheumatism is a living death. The victim, in-capable of moving hand or foot, has no part in the great procession of life, on which he gazes with hopeless eyes. It is terrible for the man who has been the bread winner, strong, active, energetic, to suddenly find himself helpless as a babe, and dependent on the kindness of others for almost every necessary of life.

There is no need to urge the rheumatic to seek a cure. He has probably grown discouraged in the search, having tried many medicines without relief. Yet there is hope and help for every rheumatic who will use the medicine which has cured so many who were in a like case. That medicine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, has cured a great many sufferers who were without hope and for whom physicians had said there was no help. A medicine which will cleause the blood from uric acid and other poisons, will cure rheumatism. "Golden Med-ical Discovery" has no equal in its power to cleanse the blood and to enrich it. It absolutely eliminates from the blood the poisons which cause the disease, and by increasing the activity of the blood making glands it increases the supply of pure blood upon which physical health and strength "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, nor opium, cocaine or any other narcotic. If your dealer says he has something "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery" why not tell him that the remedy which cures rheumatism is good enough

"I had been troubled with rheumatism for twelve years," writes Mr. R. J. McKnight, of Cades, Williamsburg Co., S. C., "so bad at times I could not leave my bed. I was badly crippled. Tried many doctors and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me much good. The pains in my back, hips, and legs (and at times in my head), would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of 'Peliets,' and to-day my health is good after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels and so preserve the balance of health. They do not become a necessity to the user as they cure disordered conditions of the bowels, and are not thereafter required.
