

FRIDAY FACTS.

Judge Powers made a business trip to Creighton today. M. D. Tyler was a passenger for Lincoln this afternoon. Chris. Tesly, the Stanton jeweler, drove up this morning on business. Miss Nelda Hans of Battle Creek was in the city yesterday doing some shopping. Miss Martha Zalke of Stanton attended the dance at the hospital for the insane last evening. Prof. M. G. Doering of Battle Creek was in the city yesterday visiting with Prof. M. B. Singer. W. S. Cunningham and E. H. Baker, two of Tilden's prominent agriculturists, were Norfolk visitors yesterday. Rev. John Askin of Tabor, Iowa, will occupy the pulpit at the First Congregational church Sunday morning. A congenial company of young people from the city enjoyed the weekly entertainment at the hospital for the insane last evening. Will Morris of Central City, who has been visiting his brother, M. R. Morris, departed today for Iowa, Mitchell accompanying him. Mrs. W. H. Cooley and daughters, Bessie and Mable, departed yesterday for their three-months' visit to New London, Wisconsin. Mrs. E. E. Mitchell, proprietor of the millinery store which burned yesterday morning, returned home last night from her visit in Iowa. Mrs. H. G. Correll and nephew, Harold Correll, who have been visiting friends in the city, returned to Plainview on the noon train. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Reckard, who have been visiting relatives and friends in the city for some time, departed this noon for their home in Omaha. Harvey Queen of Whiting, Iowa, the peculiar wrecking of whose home by lightning was recited in yesterday's dispatches, is a cousin of Wm. Queen of this city. The social given by the Y. P. S. O. E. of the First Congregational church on the lawn of A. E. Campbell on South Eleventh street, was a very enjoyable function and well patronized. Master Frank King is entertaining a number of little friends this afternoon from 4 to 6 at his home at the corner of Koenigstein avenue and Ninth street, in observance of his sixth birthday. S. O. Campbell, Chris Schavland and Wm. Parkinson are in the city this afternoon on their way home from Lincoln, where they attended the republican rally and ratification yesterday. Eccles West, who is up from Missouri on a business trip to Stanton, came to Norfolk yesterday to visit his old time friend, Dr. A. J. Johnson. They were acquaintances 20 years ago in Illinois. Miss Kathryn Sisson left this morning for a ten days' sojourn at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. She goes as a delegate from her college, The Ohio Wesleyan, to the National W. W. C. A. summer school. The rain last night was something less than a half-inch, but it was of incalculable value to growing vegetation, which has been wonderfully revived and is now in condition to stand several days of dry weather. The shower of yesterday and the rain of last night will do much to straighten out the crops which were blown down by the recent severe wind storm. Officer Kane entertained a trio of tramps over night, one of them giving him quite a tussle last evening when he was placing him under arrest. The fellow was very docile until he was being led down Fourth street to the jail, when he rebelled and it took two officers and a citizen to get him behind the bars. This afternoon he was brought up and fined $10 and costs, but it is probable that the trio will be escorted out of town some time today. At the session of district court, which was held in Madison last week, Hattie H. Watkins was given a divorce from her husband, J. H. Watkins, on the ground of non-support. Both parties to the suit are members of the Volunteer Army and are quite well known in Norfolk, having been married here a few years ago. Mrs. Watkins is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Luke. Mrs. Bathke was also granted a divorce from her husband, C. F. A. Bathke, on the ground of cruelty and non-support. Madison Chronicle: A $1,000 slander suit was begun in the district court yesterday forenoon by Herbert Kaufman against J. A. Parker and Fred Nenow. The plaintiff alleges that defendants circulated a story that he had appropriated property of another and converted it to his own use, thereby damaging his character. The parties involved were until recently employed in a Norfolk creamery and the plaintiff further sets forth that the report was started so that he would lose his job instead of one of the defendants, business being light. Messrs. Sol. G. Mayer, C. D. Jenkins, Nathan Reckard and Frank Davenport composed a fishing party yesterday that went to the lake southeast of town. When the party arrived at the lake they discovered that the fellow who was to furnish the fishing tackle, which each declared was the other, had neglected his duty. They picked any way on the launch, which was not forgotten, and drove to Stanton and viewed the sights of that city. Their one consolation thought is said to be that they probably caught as many fish as though they had been fully equipped with the necessary paraphernalia. W. H. Baird, manager of the Norfolk sugar factory, has received notice that he is to be transferred to the new factory at Rocky Ford, Col., where he goes as superintendent. The name of his successor as manager here has not been announced. Mr. Baird expects to leave for Rocky Ford on Saturday of next week. Mrs. Baird is now in Grand Island visiting her parents, but will return the first of the week. Mr. Baird came to Norfolk in November, 1895, as chemist with the sugar company, and such marked ability did he show in sugar making that a year ago he was promoted to superintendent of the factory. Upon the removal of Mr. Wietsier to Rocky Ford he was again promoted, this time to manager of the Norfolk business. His transfer to Rocky Ford as superintendent of the large new factory being erected by the American Beet Sugar company, is a still further advancement. Mr. and Mrs. Baird, although the latter has lived here but a short time since their marriage, have a large circle of friends in Norfolk, who will regret their removal from the city, at the same time wishing them abundant success in their new home. The Doctors' Meet. The fifth annual session of the Elkhorn Valley Medical society is being held at the parlors of the Oxnard hotel this afternoon and will continue during the evening. The society is officered as follows: E. Tanner of Battle Creek, president; A. E. Scofield of Tilden, (deceased), first vice president; J. P. Gilligan of O'Neill, second vice president; Frank G. Salter of Norfolk, secretary; W. H. H. Hagey of Norfolk, treasurer. The following is the program for the session: President's Address—E. Tanner, Battle Creek. "Treatment of Puerperal Eclampsia"—A. The advertising car of Campbell's circus is in the city and the heart of the small (?) boy has been sent into a flutter of anticipation and excitement thereby. Miss Lucy Williams of this city will be one of the instructors in the Burt county teachers' institute to be held in Tekamah during the week beginning August 20. Last night was cool enough for quite heavy wraps and coverings to be comfortable, which is quite a contrast with the weather that preceded it for a week or two. C. S. Hayes will leave this evening for Leed City, S. D., where he will join Mrs. Hayes and Clyde and together they will go to Spearfish to camp out for a week or ten days. Rev. and Mrs. S. F. O'Neill Frontier: August Gregger, a young Poleander, aged 24 years, was before the insanity board yesterday, adjudged insane and was taken to the asylum at Norfolk. He lived with his parents in Stuart township. The family of J. W. Henderson, living four miles west of the city, is very much afflicted. Four of the children, as previously reported, are sick with whooping cough, one has the scarlet fever and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson are both sick. Tomorrow is the date set for the change of management in the Norfolk hospital for the insane. Dr. O. L. Stevenson, who has been the head physician under Dr. G. F. Keiper, will be installed as superintendent in place of Dr. Keiper, resigned, while Dr. August Anderson of Hebron will be installed as assistant physician. Wm. Lowell, who assisted Sheriff Reynolds in bringing down an insane patient from Knox county yesterday, endeavored to board the north bound train while in motion, yesterday noon but failed in his effort and was thrown violently to the ground sustaining a fracture of several ribs and a bad cut on the head. He was taken to the Queen City hotel and his injuries attended by Dr. Mackay. The ribs were broken almost squarely in two and made a very painful injury. He was bandaged up, and started for home today, although his movements caused him a great deal of pain. G. M. Thompson has adjusted his loss, recently sustained by fire and smoke, with the adjustors of the companies in which his stock was insured, agent of the Home Fire Insurance company, in which his stock was insured, and is now open for business. After going into the details of his loss it was found that it was not as great as at first supposed and he accepted $375 in settlement thereof. Mr. Thompson was particularly pleased with the manner in which Mr. Roberts, general agent of the Home Fire Insurance company of Omaha does business for his company, as it was through his efforts that the prompt settlement was made. The fire occurred early Thursday morning and the loss was therefore adjusted in just about two days' time. The Barnes family, living nine miles south of the city between Warnerville and Madison, lost their home by fire yesterday, and are left in destitute circumstances. They are now sleeping in the barn but have no bedding of any sort and the charitably inclined of Norfolk are invited to solicit to their needs. There are four children in the family, besides a grandchild. The girl is about 13 years of age and the boy's ages range from perhaps 10 to 15 years. Anyone having clothing that will answer for their comfort could assist by giving it. If contributions of either clothing or food are left at the house of Mrs. McKim on North Tenth street she will see that they receive it. Mrs. Barnes used her best endeavors to put the fire out, climbing on the roof to do so, but her efforts were entirely unavailing. NORFOLK'S STREETS. Christoph, returned to her home at Arnold, this state, today. The members of the Sunday school of the Trinity Episcopal church hope to participate in a picnic at Taft's grove on Friday afternoon. Nicholson of St. Paul, this state, is visiting with his uncle, G. B. Salter, and attending the meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Medical society. Past Grand Master S. W. Hayes, S. G. Dean, and G. W. Box drove to Battle Creek Saturday to assist in the installation of officers of the Masonic lodge there that night. A picnic is being held this afternoon at Taft's grove, by a number of her lady friends, in honor of Mrs. G. F. Keiper who will leave for her home in Pierce tomorrow morning. A fellow, charged with disorderly conduct, was taken in by the officers Saturday and this morning paid the fine of $2 and costs assessed against him and was given his liberty. Richard Requa, who has for several years been a valuable assistant in the office of the Nebraska Telephone company at this place, will leave Thursday for California to join his parents. A glorious rain fell last night and was particularly acceptable, following as it did the hot dry wind of yesterday. The storm came up with a considerable flourish of wind and electricity, but it did not prove very severe. Dr. Anderson came in Saturday noon from Hebron to take his position as assistant physician of the Norfolk hospital for the insane. He was accompanied by his father, Nils Anderson, who will visit with him a few days. Yesterday was the 50th birthday of Mrs. A. P. Childs, and in honor of the event, the members of the Eastern Star paid her a surprise visit at her home on West Madison street, and both the guests and the surprised lady had a most elegant time.—Times-Tribune, July 1. Battle Creek Republican: It seems peculiar that a prominent democrat, thus early in the game, would offer to bet $100 that Dietrich will be elected governor, but such a case is reported in Madison county. And it is only one straw tending to show which way the wind blows. W. A. Northcott, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, of Greenville, Ill., has written to the committee at Madison having in charge the Log Rolling on July 18th signifying his intention of being present on that date. He declined to attend a congressional picnic at Rock Island on the same date in order to be present. A committee from Norfolk lodge No. 97, A. O. U. W. Saturday evening presented Rev. W. H. Eaton of the Baptist church with a handsome emblem of the order and a bag of money. These were tendered in recognition of his valuable services to the order on June 10th, which was observed as Floral day. Master Workman H. L. Spaulding made the presentation speech and Mr. Eaton replied. O'Neill Frontier: Grant Hatfield and Bob Marsh were visiting in the south country Tuesday and Wednesday. Bob says, and says it without a smile either, that they picked up baked prairie chicken in the sandhills south of Ewing Tuesday. While the story sounds rather fishy Bob's reputation for truth and veracity has always been good and as it was a little hot that day we will accept his story and say nothing. But by— it was hot. On invitation of Dr. Stephenson, a few friends from the city went out to the Norfolk hospital for the insane last Saturday evening and participated with the officers and employes in a farewell dancing party to Superintendent and Mrs. Geo. F. Keiper. The employes and officers had purchased for the retiring superintendent a fine gold headed cane, which was presented in a nice speech by Dr. Stephenson. Dr. Keiper replied very feelingly and seemed much impressed with the thoughtfulness of those with whom he had associated. The evening was very enjoyably spent. A car from a school of correspondence of Scranton, Pa., is on the track at the Junction, having come in Saturday night to remain for a week. The car is fitted out with mechanical appliances used in railroad work and other necessities to give practical illustrations of the work. The employes take a course of instruction through correspondence and their work in school is verified and assisted in this manner. The car makes a stop at all division headquarters and the employes of the division are given an opportunity to visit it and receive instruction through lectures by the manager, who accompanies the car. Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Eaton expect to leave Thursday for Waukon, Illinois, where they will rest during the summer. In the fall Rev. Eaton will engage in evangelistic work, in which capacity he hopes to again visit Nebraska. Mrs. Eaton, whose health is quite poorly, will go south this fall, hoping that a change of climate will prove beneficial. During their residence here Rev. Eaton and wife have made many friends who are exceedingly sorry to have them leave but wish for them much benefit in health and prosperity. Rev. Eaton has for several years served the First Baptist church as pastor. The Campbell show, which is coming here on the 14th, is a strictly Nebraska production, having its headquarters at Fairbury. The company uses a special train of 13 cars to carry its attractions and presents a two ring circus performance. The advance man who was in the city Saturday says they run up against the revenue laws about every move they make. They were charged $100 revenue on entering this state from another and are compelled to pay revenue on every contract they make, whether for grounds, feed, or anyone of the hundred and one things that a traveling circus is compelled to contract for. Mrs. Hennessy, mother of Mrs. J. H. House, died at the home of the latter on North Eleventh street yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, aged 67 years. Funeral services will be held at the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and the remains will be taken to the cemetery at Battle Creek for interment. The deceased has been suffering from dropsy for about eight months and that disease was finally responsible for her death. The deceased leaves a family of 12 children, six sons and six daughters, to mourn for her. Nine of the children are here, and the other three are expected. Most of them live in or near Norfolk. Company L. N. G., indulged in its first target practice since the war, at the old fair grounds yesterday forenoon. Twenty-two members of the company participated and five qualified at 100 yards, the qualification being a score of 18 out of a possible 25. John L. Decker ranked highest with 21 scores, Fred Lobnow scored 20 times, Captain Gerecke, Lealand Spaulding and Harry Howell each scored 19 out of 25. The practice will be held each Sunday when weather permits and it may be expected that something of a contest between members will result. There is to be a contest for a state cup this fall and company L hopes to be in a position to win. Subscribe for THE NORFOLK WEEKLY NEWS.
