

Y. W. C. A.—The young ladies aided by the lady members of the faculty have a splendid association which meets every Sunday afternoon in the chapel at 3 o'clock. The president and secretary gladly give advice and assistance to all young ladies who come to the college.

The two societies have a union meeting once each term. All young people are invited to attend the meetings even if they do not become active members.

SOCIALS.—Every other Saturday evening, a social is given in the chapel under direction of the faculty or some one of the College societies. All students are invited to these socials where proper entertainment is provided. These furnish not only evenings of pleasure but go to help young people in various lines of improvement.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE COLLEGE.

Term—Your term is ten weeks from the day you enter. The work is thorough, the courses comprehensive, hence the success of its students.

The school is practical and meets the demands of the times, hence the large attendance.

The expenses are less at this school for twelve months than at most schools for nine months.

Do you live in town and find that you cannot realize your ambition to obtain an education, either collegiate or special?

Our students are of that class of young men and women who go to school for business, for study, for a purpose.

We are prepared to help you in various ways, and we would be pleased to hear from you. (See explanation of courses of study.)

A great number of our students come from the farm, and but for this school and its advantages an education would be impossible to them.

The school is organized for the vast army of young men and women all over the west who are anxious to secure an education and have no money to throw away in useless expenditures.

Teachers—We obtain only the best teachers the country affords. Every teacher is a specialist in his or her line of work. Thus the student learns twice as much in the same length of time as he would if he had a poor teacher.

Every minute of the time is usefully employed. Recitations are forty-five minutes long, and the school year is fifty weeks. Consequently as much can be accomplished in this school in two years as can be accomplished at other schools in three years.

Does it pay to attend schools without standing with school boards? No. The Nebraska Normal College does thorough, practical work in every department. Students from the various departments secure positions as soon as they are ready for them.

Our courses embrace everything necessary, nothing useless; that there are broader, higher fields of knowledge than we can lead you through is true, but it is also true that it would take years of time and thousands of dollars of money to acquire this knowledge in the higher schools of learning.

A great many students hesitate about coming to college because they think they are not sufficiently advanced. To such we would say, come right along; you will find suitable classes. There are no examinations for admission required, and a student is known by his work. Especially is there no distinction between rich and poor.

The student whose life is earnest, whose time is money, and whose future is in his own keeping, does not care for three or four months' vacation in a year. He prefers to spend the time in hard study and earnest application, and thereby complete as extensive a curriculum in little more than one-half the time.

We have special classes provided for the thousands of young men and women who have not the time or money to enter our regular courses, but yet who want special work on special subjects and who desire to spend a few months for this purpose. These classes are under the care of able educators specially trained for this work.

We have devoted our time, energy, labor and means to establish a school for the poor young men and women of the west that would have standing among the educators of the country, and we are gratified at the recognition that college men, county superintendents, public school men, as well as our thousands of patrons, have given us.

Are you a farmer's son or daughter, living out in the country, where you have never had the advantage of graded and higher schools? Do not hesitate to come here, thinking you are not far enough advanced. Remember we have classes specially provided for students of this kind. Many of our very best students come from the farm. Our object is to help you do all the good in the world possible.

We can justly claim that the practical education in the Normal College trains young people to industry and thrift, to respect for economy and labor, to a love for their homes, and an enhanced reverence and affection for their parents. Our students are known everywhere for their honesty, their enterprise and their business success in every calling in which they have established themselves.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF OUR SPRING AND SUMMER REVIEW TERMS FOR 1901.

Spring Term opens April 1 and closes June 7. Summer Term opens June 10 and closes August 16.

The object of these terms, besides the regular work of the College, is to furnish teachers and those preparing to teach an opportunity to study and review such studies as they desire and thus better prepare themselves for the work of teaching. Neither expense nor effort is spared to make these terms most profitable to teachers of all grades. All the special review classes will be under the same tuition and will admit the student to all the other classes of the College. The classes in didactics and methods alone are worth the sum it costs to attend.

OUR SPRING AND SUMMER SCHOOL COURSES.—More than 500 teachers took advantage of this excellent course during last spring and summer; note the list of studies for these terms.

ENTER AT ANY TIME.—Our work is so arranged and our classes so divided that students can enter any day to advantage, and secure the same rates as though they had entered at the first of the term. Come whenever it suits you, and we will arrange your work to suit you. If you are ready to come when you get this Journal, do not wait, but come at once.

EXPENSES.—PAYABLE ON ENTERING.—Tuition, $10 for a term of ten weeks. Tuition, board and furnished room, $31.50 for a term of ten weeks. Expenses for less than a term will be at the same rate as above ($3.15 per week) during the summer. Good board and room in private families, at $2.50 to $3.00 per week.

In addition to above expenses only $5 extra is charged for twenty private lessons in vocal or instrumental music, shorthand and typewriting, special elocution, work in the primary school. Classes in vocal music and general elocution are free to all students.

The following classes will be organized for these terms: Arithmetic—Fractions, compound numbers, percentage, mensuration, review.

mental. Algebra—Beginning, fractions, radicals, advanced, review. Analytical Geometry—Beginning, advanced. Book keeping—Beginning, advanced, teachers' review, actual business. Rhetoric—Beginning, advanced, review. Shorthand. Surveying. Typewriting. Trigonometry—Plane, spherical. Word Analysis. Zoology. Other classes are organized when desired.

REGULATIONS OF THE COLLEGE—APPROVED BY TRUSTEES.

1. Students may enter at any time.
2. Tuition is payable in advance for at least ten weeks on entering, or to close of the year in case less than ten weeks remain. Special arrangements may be made with students who can remain but a few weeks for review. They pay just for time they attend.
3. Should students who pay for more than one term be obliged to leave College before the time paid for has expired, all tuition except for the term in progress will be refunded.
4. Any student who is called away before the close of the term, will receive a due bill for balance of tuition for the term. This due bill can be used by the same person at any time.
5. No student will be enrolled as a member of any class until he presents to the teacher an enrollment card from the president showing that the tuition fee is paid. Receipts for tuition are not transferable.
6. Should it be necessary for students to be absent from a class or other exercise of the college, they must first secure an excuse from the president or secretary. A failure to do this will cause the student's name to be dropped from the roll.
7. One tuition ($10.00) admits the students to any class of the college except instrumental music, voice culture painting and advanced elocution. The tuition for these studies will be found under their respective departments.
8. No student is permitted to engage in any outside occupation or to receive instruction in any subject from any person not employed by the College without the consent of the president.
9. Students will be dismissed from the College for neglect of duty and for improper conduct. When a student is dismissed he forfeits his right to a certificate for the unexpired term. Students who are dismissed can never again be admitted to the College. No student will be dismissed without a hearing before the faculty.

Many others have positions as principals in small village schools, the best country schools, bookkeepers, shorthand writers and music teachers. No college in the west has so large a per cent of its graduates in good positions as has this College, and the reason for this is that we prepare them for the very best positions.

To young men and women out of employment: If you want to prepare for a $50, a $60, a $75 or a $100 position, write to the President of the Nebraska Normal College. More than 100 positions have been filled during the past three months.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

To the public or whom it may concern:

We, the undersigned citizens of Wayne, Nebraska, and constituting the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska Normal College located in Wayne, Nebraska, cheerfully and willingly make the following statement:

The above named institution has been in successful operation since 1891 and has been constantly growing in influence and numbers. All of this time it has been under the wise and careful management of its president, J. M. Pile. As an instructor we consider Prof. Pile among the foremost in the state. He is assisted by an able and enthusiastic corps of teachers. The moral tone of the College is of the best. Each succeeding year finds added numbers of students in attendance. Graduates from this College are taking the best positions in the schools of our state. The motto of Prof. Pile and his faculty is thorough and conscientious work in all departments of school work. We cannot too highly recommend the College and its management. We point with pride to its achievements and influence for good in our community. We heartily recommend parents and guardians to send their sons and daughters here for an education.

- A. L. TUCKER, Pres. Citizen's Bank.
- HENRY LEY, Pres. State Bank.
- H. F. WILSON, Cash. First Nat'l Bank.
- B. F. SWAN, Cash. Wayne Nat'l Bank.
- FRANK FULLER, Attorney.
- M. P. AHERN, Merchant.
- R. PHILLO, Lumber Dealer.
- JOHN T. BRESSLER, Real Estate.
- JOHN D. KING, Real Estate.

That the work of the Normal College is thorough and practical is evidenced by the fact that its graduates have no trouble in securing excellent situations as teachers, accountants, etc., and school boards from all sections of our own and adjoining states are constantly writing President Pile for teachers. And why should the work not be thorough and practical, when it is remembered that every teacher is a specialist in the branches under his or her charge, is earnestly interested in the work, and has in addition to the necessary educational qualifications, that which is eminently of more value, the "knack" of making a dry subject full of interest to the pupil. The writer has visited the College at various times, and has never yet found a dull and listless class; on the contrary, both teachers and classes have always been alert and watchful, quick to catch a new thought or principle, or to detect an error and correct it. With such methods and principles as are constantly employed in the Nebraska Normal College, success is not a thing for chance and fortune to determine, but is sure, as sure as day is to follow night.

A. P. CHILDS, Editor Norfolk Times-Tribune.

It must truthfully be said of the Nebraska Normal College that its graduates many of the best teachers and young business men of Northeast Nebraska, and that the finished student leaves that institution with a superior and more practical training than those of ordinary colleges. Prof. and Mrs. Pile have labored hard to bring the school up to its present high standard, and are now liberally supported by the people.—Laurel Advocate.

Under the able direction of that prince among educators, Prof. J. M. Pile, the Nebraska Normal College has forced its way to the front, and we honestly believe is without a superior of its kind, east or west. Fortunate, indeed, are the young ladies and gentlemen who have the advantages of this institution. Prof. Pile is assisted by an able and tried corps of teachers, each eminent in his department. Most heartily do we recommend this College to all who are seeking a classical, professional, business or musical education. Parents may with the utmost confidence, entrust their sons and daughters to the care of Mr. and Mrs. Pile. We speak from knowledge gained by a personal investigation. M. LUTHER KUNKLEMAN, Pastor Lutheran Church.

Having many times visited the Nebraska Normal College, I take great pleasure in endorsing all departments of its work. Prof. J. M. Pile, the president, is not only a man of executive ability, but a superior teacher. He is to be commended for his enthusiasm, and the thoroughness of the work. What has been said of the president may be said of the secretary and all the teachers. A healthful, invigorating, moral atmosphere pervades the school, the health of body and mind are alike cared for. No idle scholar feels at home in the Nebraska Normal College.

W. W. THEOBALD, Pastor Baptist Church.

It gives me pleasure to recommend the Nebraska Normal College to those who desire an education. A new building with all the modern improvements has just been erected, and offers enlarged opportunities and superior advantages. The location of the college is beautiful and healthful. It stands on a prominent eminence and commands an extended and picturesque view. The school is thoroughly equipped. There is a full corps of competent teachers, with whom I am personally acquainted. I heartily recommend them as thorough and reliable workers. I am particularly glad to notice the attention given to health, morals and manners.

A. F. ERNST, Pastor Presbyterian church.

It is with pleasure that I recommend the Nebraska Normal College to any young person seeking an education. I have several reasons for so doing. Located as it is in the most progressive town in Northeast Nebraska, a town of churches and schools, where I have had the pleasure of residing for the past three years and being brought in contact with the faculty and students almost daily. I have no hesitancy in saying that the faculty stands second to none among the schools of the west and with Prof. Pile at the head I never fear the outcome of the honest student's college career.

THOMAS BITHEL, D. D., Methodist Pastor.

From a five years' acquaintance with the president of the Nebraska Normal College and acquaintance with members of the faculty, and acquaintance with many teachers who have been students of the college, and personal observation of the work of the college, I can heartily recommend it to all teachers, those preparing to teach and those who wish to prepare themselves for business. In my opinion the Nebraska Normal College is not surpassed by any institution in the west.

MARY SCHROER, Ex-Supt., Dixon county.

The Nebraska Normal College is sending out strong, competent teachers, who are meeting with the most satisfactory success as teachers. Stanton county is to be congratulated upon its nearness to such educational advantages as are offered in this school. Its faculty is a strong one. The fact that teachers hereabouts are taking advantage of the means there offered for obtaining a higher education is but attested by the number who have attended and are now attending the college at Wayne.

CHARLES S. CONEY, Ex-Supt. Stanton county.

The following are quotations from a few of the hundreds of letters endorsing the Nebraska Normal College:

"In my estimation the Nebraska Normal College is not surpassed by any institution in the west."

Mrs. MARY CLINGHAN, Ex-County Supt., Dixon county.

"Preparations such as your college gives insures success."

WM. COLLINS, Ex-County Supt., Cumming county.

"The work of Nebraska Normal College has been a lasting benefit to me. The instruction is the best."

CHAS. E. HILL, Grammar Teacher, Wisner.

"I have investigated the work of the Nebraska Normal College several times and know it to be thorough and practical. I believe this to be the leading private Normal in the west."

J. S. HANCOCK, Co. Supt., Stanton.

"At the Nebraska Normal you are prepared for your work under the direction of Pres. J. M. Pile, the greatest teacher of teachers in the west."

CHARLOTTE M. WHITE, Ex-Co. Supt., Wayne.

"I was a student one year in the Wayne Normal and must say Pres. J. M. Pile is one of the very best educators in the country. Capable, experienced teachers have charge of every department."

W. F. MORGAREIDGE, Ex-Co. Supt. Valentine.

"I completed the teachers' and Scientific courses in the N. N. C. I had attended two colleges before I went to Wayne and have visited many others and can say the Nebraska Normal has no superior in the west."

L. M. POWERS, Co. Supt., Neligh.

"It has been my good fortune to know of the success of the Nebraska Normal College from its organization."

P. F. PANABAKER, Co. Supt., Hartington.

"I know of no better school than the Wayne Normal. It prepared me for my position."

G. R. McDONALD, Co. Supt., Broadwater, Mont.

"Teachers and students preparing for better positions will find at the Nebraska Normal, just what they want."

C. C. SINGER, Former Principle, Page.

"I consider the two years which I spent in the Nebraska Normal College one of the best investments I have ever made."

C. H. BRIGHT, Principal Winside.
